New Beginnings

David Taylor Era Primed for Strong Start with Experienced Roster and Impact Newcomers

The 2024 offseason sparked a new era for Oklahoma State as legendary head coach John Smith announced his retirement and wrestling icon David Taylor was hired as the program's eighth head coach in May. All eyes of the wrestling world have been on Stillwater ever since and excitement is buzzing for Taylor's first year at the helm with OSU's No. 3 ranking in the preseason NWCA Coaches Poll. The Oklahoma State roster features 13 national qualifiers and after adding three multi-time All-Americans over the summer, the Cowboys have all the pieces to contend for a team trophy at the NCAA Championships.

The Schedule

The Cowboys will once again be battle-tested come March with a schedule that features 11 duals against teams ranked in the preseason Coaches Poll, four top 11 finishers from the 2024 NCAA Championships coming to Stillwater and another trip to college wrestling's toughest regular season tournament.

Taylor makes his head coaching debut with a trip out west to Utah Valley on November 15 and Oregon State two days later. Oklahoma State has only faced Utah Valley one time, while its series with Oregon State has gone the Cowboys' way in all 23 previous matchups. OSU then opens its home schedule the very next weekend against Wyoming and Arizona State.

For the second year in a row, OSU is headed to the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational in early December. With 14 ranked teams expected to be in attendance, the CKLV field is widely regarded as the most competitive in college wrestling prior to the postseason. A trip down I-35 on December 13 then sets up the 189th all-time meeting in the Bedlam Series. Oklahoma State surpassed 150 total wins in the series following its two-dual sweep last season and is looking for its 20th consecutive win over the Sooners, which would match the series record set between 1969 and 1978.

Throughout late December and early January, the Cowboys host four straight duals inside Gallagher-Iba Arena against Virginia Tech, Air Force, NC State and West Virginia. A win over Virginia Tech would even the series at one apiece and give Oklahoma State a .500 record or better against every opponent it's faced since the program's inaugural season in 1915. Four of the Cowboys' final five duals then come on the road, beginning with Big 12 tests at Northern Iowa and Iowa State on January 24 and 26, respectively. Following its home finale versus Missouri and fourth-ever meeting with Little Rock, Oklahoma State concludes the regular season on February 23 at Iowa, the second-ranked team in the Coaches Poll. The Cowboys lead the all-time series 29-26-2 but are looking for their first win in Iowa City since January 7, 2012.

Nicknamed "Sparky" for his prowess atop the Cowboy lineup, Troy Spratley is set to make a big jump in 2025 following a breakout freshman season in which he went 23-8 and defeated a dozen ranked opponents. Spratley was a key piece of OSU's 14-1 dual record as he and Daton Fix proved to be one of the fiercest 1-2 punches in the country. He picked up several marquee wins throughout the season, highlighted by a major decision over 2024 national champion Richard Figueroa of Arizona State and tight victories against seventh-ranked Noah Surtin of Missouri and Lehigh's Luke Stanich, who earned the No. 2 seed at the NCAA Championships. After reaching the Big 12 finals and finishing one win shy of the national podium, Spratley has proven he's among the weight's top contenders. Behind Spratley is a pair of redshirt freshmen in Sam Smith and Jayce Mullin, who are both inexperienced but showed potential at open tournaments last season.

133 Pounds

For the first time in five years, Oklahoma State's 133-pound role will not be filled by Daton Fix, who exhausted his eligibility last spring. Several Cowboys are vying for the starting spot, including blue chip prospect Cael Hughes, veteran Reece Witcraft, Zach Blankenship and true freshman JJ McComas. A local product out of Stillwater, Hughes went 140-0 in high school and received the Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award as a senior before joining the program last season. Hughes split his time as a redshirt between 133 and 141 pounds but is looking to make an increased impact at the former in 2025. Redshirt senior Witcraft also returns and brings more experience than anyone in the group after qualifying for the NCAA Championships twice in his career. He went 6-3 in limited action last season and notched a top 10 win over Arizona State's Julian Chlebove at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational.

141 Pounds

Returning national qualifier Tagen Jamison is joined by three true freshmen at 141 pounds as he looks to build off a strong freshman season when he posted a 21-10 record with five wins over top 10 wrestlers. Unranked to open the 2024 season, Jamison was quickly thrust into the spotlight as he placed fifth at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational and ended the weekend with a 13-5 major decision over fourth-ranked Brock Hardy of Nebraska. Jamison's freshman campaign also included wins over multiple All-Americans, including a clutch overtime victory versus 2024 Big 12 champion Anthony Echemendia to help secure the dual against Iowa State. Freshmen Kolter Burton, Jake Hamiti and Ramon Salazar are all looking to gain valuable experience in open tournaments while likely using their redshirt this season.

SEASON PREVIEW

After sustaining a serious injury at the 2023 Big 12 Championships and using his redshirt last season, Carter Young is back in the mix and aiming for the first podium finish of his career. A two-time national qualifier at 141 pounds, Young is 27-23 for his career but boasts wins over a dozen ranked opponents and three in the top 10. Another reason for excitement is his reunion with associate head coach Jimmy Kennedy, who helped coach Young to a third-place finish at the 2021 Senior World Team Trials while taking down two former national champions in the process. Redshirt sophomore Cutter Sheets provides depth at the weight with a 24-10 record in open tournaments for his career.

157 Pounds
Teague Travis returns to the Cowboy lineup after going 23-8 last season and qualifying for his first NCAA Championships as the No. 16 seed. Despite beginning the year at 149 pounds, Travis bumped up a weight class in December and became one of the most consistent pieces on the team. He was crucial to Oklahoma State's 14-1 dual record with a dozen wins in those matches and beat eight ranked wrestlers, highlighted by a 7-6 decision over fifth-ranked Ed Scott in OSU's upset at NC State. With another year of experience and training under his belt, Travis is a definite contender for a spot on the national podium in March. A four-time national qualifier, Michigan State transfer Caleb Fish is also a factor at 157 pounds. Fish has compiled an 83-37 record throughout his career, but still has a redshirt available to give the coaching staff flexibility at the weight class.

165 Pounds
Fresh off an outstanding career at Michigan, Cameron Amine is primed to make a major impact in his lone season as a Cowboy. Amine has become a mainstay as one of the top 165-pounders in the sport, qualifying for the NCAA Championships in each of the past four years, reaching the podium three times and compiling a 66-25 record. Last season, Amine finished one win shy of All-America honors for the first time in his career but still managed seven wins over ranked opponents and a 16-9 record. He is one of the sport's stingiest wrestlers having surrendered bonus points just one time in his career and is sure to be a tough out at the weight class yet again. Youngsters Jaxen Wright and Colin Young are listed at 165 pounds alongside Amine, while Caleb Fish could also play a role if necessary.

174 Pounds
Another newcomer ready to make an immediate impact, Dean Hamiti Jr. looks to take the reins at 174 pounds for Oklahoma State. Hamiti spent the past three years at Wisconsin, where he became one of the most dynamic scorers in the country with an 81-14 record and nearly 70% bonus rate. The Joliet, Illinois, native first broke onto the scene as a true freshman in 2022 as he won the first 17 matches of his career and has been ranked inside the top 10 ever since. His long resume includes a pair of sixth place finishes at the NCAA Championships, a 2023 Big Ten title and a freshman season that saw him win conference freshman of the year honors and be named the NCAA's seventh-most dominant wrestler. Although it did not end on the podium, Hamiti had another stellar campaign in 2024, posting a 28-4 record and beating 16 ranked opponents to improve his career mark in such matches to 40-13.

184 Pounds
National finalist Dustin Plott is back in the lineup to lead perhaps the deepest weight class on Oklahoma State's roster. Plott is looking to finish the job in his final season as a Cowboy after racking up a 31-4 record in 2024 and reaching the championship match at the national tournament. Following back-to-back sixth place finishes in the two years prior, the move to 184 appeared to unlock another level in Plott, who pinned eight opponents and earned bonus points a team-high 25 times last season. He also led the Cowboys with 19 wins over ranked opponents, three of which were in the top five. Even with a tough field consisting of national champions Carter Starocci from Penn State and Northern Iowa's Parker Keckeisen, Plott will once again be a serious player for the national title. Brayden Thompson and Jersey Robb are each entering their second year with the program and provide additional depth at the weight. Thompson qualified for the NCAA Championships at 174 pounds last season but could benefit from a redshirt in 2024, while Robb showed promise in four dual starts at 197 pounds, which were highlighted by a dual-securing major decision over No. 30 Julien Broderson of Iowa State.

197 Pounds
Several candidates are in contention to take control of the starting spot at 197 pounds, led by three-time national qualifier Luke Surber and highly touted freshman Cody Merrill. Surber battled through injuries for much of the 2024 season, but still produced a 13-9 record and reached the NCAA Championships for the third year in a row. When healthy, Surber has proven to be competitive with the weight's biggest contenders, tallying a win over Missouri's top-ranked Rocky Elam in 2023 and 21 career wins against ranked foes. Meanwhile, Merrill arrives in Stillwater with a perfect 109-0 record at Gilroy High School and the talent to be a factor in the 197-pound field as a true freshman. Ranked as high as No. 2 in the country at the time of his signing, Merrill was a U17 World bronze medalist in 2022 and three-time champion at Fargo Nationals. With a redshirt available to both wrestlers, Surber's ability to return from last season's injuries will play a major role in who secures the starting position. Kyle Haas also provides extra stability at the weight having appeared in five career duals and holding a win over Stanford's No. 15 Nick Stemmet at the 2024 Southern Scuffle.

Heavyweight
One of the most prolific scorers in the NCAA, Wyatt Hendrickson is set to take over at heavyweight following a spectacular career at Air Force. Hendrickson racked up a laundry list of accolades for the Falcons that included four appearances at the NCAA Championships, a pair of All-America finishes, two Big 12 championships and leading the country in pins for three straight seasons. He holds a 100-11 career record with a 75% bonus rate and 59 wins by fall, which led to NCAA Most Dominant Wrestler honors in 2022 and 2023. Just last season, Hendrickson went 27-2 and undefeated in nine dual matches to extend his winning streak in dual competition to 35. After coming up just short the past two years, Hendrickson possesses all the tools to get over the hump and become Oklahoma State's first national champion at heavyweight since Steve Mocco in 2005. Another option at heavyweight is Konner Doucet, who has qualified for the NCAA Championships in back-to-back seasons and compiled a 45-26 career record.

COVERING THE COWBOYS

Thank you for your coverage of Oklahoma State wrestling. Please let us know if we can assist your efforts at any time during the season and feel free to contact the OSU athletics communications office with any questions or concerns. Jake LeForce is the communications contact for Cowboy wrestling. Please take a moment to become familiar with the following media policies.

Interviews
All interviews with Oklahoma State student-athletes and coaches should be coordinated through Jake LeForce and the athletics communications office. David Taylor and wrestlers are typically available for interviews once per week throughout the season and after duals or tournaments.

Credentials
Members of the media should contact Jake LeForce in the Oklahoma State communications office to request credentials to OSU wrestling duals (jake.leforce@okstate.edu or 405-830-9924). Credentials can be picked up in the Memorial Lobby of Gallagher-Iba Arena on prior to the start of competition of match days.

Media Parking
Members of the media attending duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena should park in the lot just south of Boone Pickens Stadium using their credential. The entrance to the lot is off Knoblock Street.

Visiting Staff
Upon request, visiting SIDs, radio crew or other peronnel will be permitted up to four seats along the scorer's table in Gallagher-Iba Arena on match days. Please contact Jake LeForce at least 24 hours in advance with the amount of seats needed and if other accomodations are needed elsewhere.

Visiting Radio
Ethernet cables will be provided to the primary radio broadcast crews for both the Cowboys and the visiting team. Additional lines are available to the media on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Photography Policies
Photographers may shoot from the east and west sides of the mat, but are prohibited from shooting in front of either team's bench. Photographers and videographers must stay seated while shooting to avoid obstructing fans' views.

Press Room Services
The press room is located just southwest of Heritage Hall inside the OSU Athletics Center. Soft drinks will be available for working members of the media. Statistics sheets will be delivered to the press section and the media room following the dual.

David "Magic Man" Taylor is entering his first season as head coach of the Oklahoma State wrestling program after compiling one of the most impressive resumes in American wrestling history.

Success in the coaching ranks is all that remains for Taylor to conquer, who accepted the Cowboy position in May 2024 for the first official coaching role of his career. Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Taylor spent the last 20 years dominating every level of the sport as an athlete. His abundance of accolades includes an Olympic gold medal, three titles at the World Championships, six total world medals, two NCAA championships, two Dan Hodge Trophy awards, four national finals appearances and four conference championships.

He also recently served as the owner and operator of the M2 Training Center, a successful club he founded that has produced several collegiate wrestling standouts over the years. In addition to responsibilities at the training center, Taylor played a key role in building the Nittany Lion Wrestling Club, the regional training center at Penn State University. His achievements on the mat throughout that time contributed greatly to the success and sustainability of the entire NLWC program.

As a Penn State wrestler from 2010-14, Taylor became one of the most accomplished athletes in program history. Most notably, Taylor brought home the 165-pound title as both a sophomore and senior as part of his four national finals appearances. He was also named the recipient of the Dan Hodge Trophy in both of those championship seasons, an award honoring the sport's top college wrestler. With those two awards, Taylor became just the third multiple-time recipient in the history of the Dan Hodge Trophy. He saw even more success at the conference level as a four-time Big Ten champion.

Often praised for an exciting and aggressive style on the mat, Taylor put together a spectacular 134-3 record, totaling 50 pins, 42 technical falls and 29 major decisions, good for an 88.3% bonus rate throughout his entire career.

Taylor's efforts as a freshman in 2011 helped lead Penn State to its first NCAA team title in 60 years, which was the first of four team championships Taylor went on to celebrate as a Nittany Lion. Taylor's final collegiate bout in 2014 saw him win a national title in Oklahoma City, 10 years before his hiring just up the road in Stillwater. He faced current assistant coach Tyler Caldwell in that match, who was competing for the Cowboys.

Alongside his accomplishments on the mat at Penn State, Taylor excelled off of it with multiple Academic All-America and All-Conference selections.

On the senior freestyle circuit, Taylor continued his dominance to the tune of four Olympic or World gold medals, six total medals and a remarkable seven-year run that saw him become the top pound-for-pound wrestler on the planet. From December 2017 at the World Clubs Cup to the 2024 World Championships, Taylor won 79 of his 83 matches against the world's top competition with 35 technical falls, 15 pins and a 57-match winning streak along the way.

Despite having never made a World Team prior, Taylor's 2018 campaign produced perhaps the most decorated era of his seven-year run. First, Taylor became the 12th American to claim a gold medal at the Ivan Yarygin Golden Grand Prix, widely considered the toughest open tournament in the world. He then aided Team USA to a first-place finish the World Cup, won his third title at the U.S. Open just a few weeks later, captured his first of three gold medals at the Pan American Championships in May and finally broke through as a champion at the U.S. World Team Trials for the first time in his career. Taylor rode that momentum to the World Championships in Budapest, where he took down reigning World champion Hassan Yazdani of Iran in the first round and went 5-0 en route to his first World title. After the season, Taylor was named both the UWW International and United States Freestyle Wrestler of the Year.

The highlight of Taylor's freestyle career then came at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, which occurred in 2021 due to delays from the COVID-19 pandemic. There, Taylor racked up three technical falls on his way to the finals, defeating four-time World medalist Ali Shabanau from Belarus, San Marino's Myles Amine and defending World silver medalist Deepak Punia of India. Awaiting in the finals was Yazdani yet again, who was the heavy favorite following his World title in 2019. With an Olympic gold medal on the line, Taylor blasted Yazdani for a clutch takedown with just seconds remaining in the match and secured upset win, 4-3.

Taylor's 57-match winning streak was snapped in the finals of the 2021 World Championships at the hands of Yazdani, but he bounced back with 13 more wins in a row and back-to-back World titles in 2022 and 2023. Taylor defeated Yazdani in both of those championship bouts, giving him a 5-1 edge in the legendary rivalry.

Most recently, Taylor capped off his historic career with a bronze medal at the 2024 World Championships in late October. Following a first-round defeat to eight-time gold medalist Abdulrashid Sadulaev, Taylor rebounded in repechage by winning three straight matches to reach the podium for the sixth and final time in his career. His bronze medal match came against two-time World champion Kamran Ghasempour of Iran and was one for the ages, as Ghasempour led 2-0 at the break but Taylor stormed back in the second to emerge as a 6-2 winner.

With the podium finish, Taylor completed his competitive career in a similar fashion to his predecessor, John Smith, who won his final gold medal at the 1992 Barcelona Olympics just months after completing his first season at the helm of the program.

Taylor sent a buzz through the wrestling world prior to the 2024 World Championships when he announced his intention to compete at the U.S. World Team Trials that September despite his position as head coach at OSU. He won all six of his matches at the tournament and secured his spot on Team USA with a sweep over 2023 World bronze medalist Zahid Valencia in the Championship Series.

In all, Taylor finished his senior freestyle career with a record of 161-22.

Before his collegiate and international success, Taylor won the prestigious Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award, which is given to the country's top high school wrestler. He went 180-2 while competing for St. Paris Graham High School in Ohio and won four consecutive Ohio state championships, two of which coming at 103 pounds, one at 112 and another at 135. He was the Outstanding Wrestler at the 2009 Ohio state championship and the Ohio Wrestler of the Year as a junior and senior, as well as a two-time Asics First Team All-American. Taylor also claimed a Beast of the East title and won the Ironman crown an unprecedented four times, the first wrestler to ever do so in the history of the storied event. Other accolades included three cadet and two junior national titles in both freestyle and Greco-Roman, served as a member of the 4-H Club and was ranked top 10 in his recruiting class.

Taylor and his wife, Kendra, have three girls, London, Ivy and Birdie.

David Taylor Wins Bronze at 2024 World Championships, Increases World Medal Count to Six

Recap from October 31, 2024

TIRANA, Albania – Oklahoma State head wrestling coach David Taylor won a 92-kilogram bronze medal at the Senior World Championships on Thursday, improving his career world medal count to six.

One of the most successful American wrestlers in history, Taylor won four world titles throughout his career, including at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, and medaled in each of the last five years. He also racked up an impressive senior freestyle record of 161-22 with victories in 79 of his last 83 matches, a stretch that included a 57-match winning streak from December 2017 to October 2021.

Following Wednesday's defeat to gold medalist Adbulrashid Sadulaev (AIN), Taylor bounced back with a pair of wins over Azerbaijan's Abubakr Abakarov and Lars Schaefle of Germany in Thursday's morning session. Abakarov held a slim 1-0 edge after the first period, but Taylor rebounded in the second to secure the 3-1 win. He then found his offense against Schaefle and ended the match in 5:08 by a score of 11-1.

In the medal match, Taylor squared off against two-time World champion Kamran Ghasempour of Iran, who got an early takedown and led, 2-0, at the break. Taylor stormed back in the second period with three takedowns of his own, however, giving him the 6-2 victory.

With the finish, Oklahoma State has now had 11 wrestlers combine for 14 medals at the World Championships. Daton Fix was the most recent Cowboy to do so as the 61-kilogram silver medalist in 2021.

Jimmy Kennedy begins his first season as associate head coach at Oklahoma State following stints at a pair of Big Ten programs.

Kennedy joins the staff after serving as an assistant at Penn State for the past three seasons, where he played an important role in the team's immense success. The Nittany Lions captured the NCAA team title in all three of Kennedy's seasons and never suffered a defeat in the regular season with a perfect 45-0 dual record in that time. Kennedy also helped guide Penn State wrestlers to 11 NCAA individual championships and 22 All-America honors. The team saw just as much success among Big Ten competition, earning a pair of team titles and boasting 13 individual winners.

In his last season on staff, Penn State ran away with the national team title after racking up 172.5 points, breaking the all-time NCAA record. PSU's 100-point margin of victory was also an NCAA record as the team crowned four individual champions and eight All-Americans. Kennedy celebrated the second of his two championships at the Big Ten meet, along with five individual winners. Following the season, all four of Kennedy's national champions were finalists for the Dan Hodge Trophy, as 197-pounder Aaron Brooks was ultimately named the recipient. Brooks, along with teammate Carter Starocci, became the first four-time NCAA titlists in Penn State history.

The two campaigns prior to 2024 saw more of the same with a pair of team titles and a combined 7 national champions, 14 All-Americans and eight conference champions.

Before his tenure in State College, Kennedy also spent time as an assistant coach at Northwestern, volunteering in 2019 and serving full-time in the two years after.

Kennedy put together an impressive career as an athlete as well, first at Illinois from 2007-11 and then on the international stage. For the Fighting Illini, Kennedy was a three-time All-American, hitting podium in 2008, 2009 and 2011, the first two coming at 133 pounds and the last at 141.

He was just the 12th three-time All-American in program history and ended his collegiate career with a record of 119-24.

Headlining Kennedy's lengthy list of freestyle accolades was an appearance at the World Championships in 2014 while representing the United States. Wrestling at 61 kg, Kennedy was victorious at the USA World Team Trials and went on to represent his country in Tashkent, Uzbekistan later that summer. He came close to reaching that stage yet again with runner-up finishes at the Trials in 2013 and 2017, and was a champion at the 2016 U.S. Open. His other accomplishments include victories at the 2017 Paris International, 2014 Yasar Dogu, 2013 Intercontinental Cup, 2012 and 2013 Guelph Open and 2012 New York Athletic Club International.

Beginning his wrestling career at Grant Community High School in Fox Lake, Illinois, Kennedy reached the state finals in all four seasons with victories as a sophomore and senior. Kennedy's senior year in 2006 saw him break the state record for takedowns in a season with 384 and was named Illinois' recipient of the Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award. He won a cadet national championship his sophomore year and completed his career with a 187-3 record.

Thomas Gilman is making his coaching debut as an assistant for the Cowboy wrestling program on the heels of an outstanding athletic career.

Over the past 15 years, Gilman has seen immense success at every level of the sport and now joins the Cowboy staff in the first official coaching role of his career. Most recently, Gilman was part of the Nittany Lion Wrestling Club alongside Taylor as he trained for competition on the senior level.

As an athlete at Iowa from 2013-17, Gilman was a key piece of the Hawkeye lineup while consistently delivering deep runs at the NCAA Championships. He concluded his career with an impressive 100-9 record, including an 84.5% bonus rate in his three seasons as a full-time starter. Gilman won his first Big Ten title as senior, entered his last two postseasons with an undefeated record and reached the national finals in his junior season.

In all, Gilman was a three-time All-American for the Hawkeyes and placed third-or-better at the Big Ten Championships in each of his final three seasons.

Following his departure from collegiate wrestling in 2017, Gilman immediately began a successful career on the freestyle circuit in which he represented the United States on the world level five times in six years and captured four medals.

The first of those four medals came in August 2017, just months after his final appearance for the Hawkeyes. Gilman blazed through the U.S. World Team Trials to clinch a berth at the World Championships later that summer, where he went 4-1 before falling to Japan's Yuki Takahashi in the finals and bringing home a silver medal. The following summer, Gilman took bronze at the Pan American championships and represented his country at the World Championships for the second-straight year with a fifth-place finish in Budapest.

After falling just short of the World team in 2019, Gilman broke through once again with a sweep at the 2020 Olympic Team Trials to secure his spot at the Tokyo Games, which took place in 2021 due to delays from the COVID-19 pandemic. There, Gilman dropped his first match, but responded with a technical fall over Gulomjon Abdullaev of Uzbekistan and 9-1 win against Iranian Reza Atri to take the bronze medal. The performance marked Gilman's first Olympic medal and second of four total medals on the world stage.

Another highlight of Gilman's career came the very next year, when he finally got over the hump and won gold at the 2021 World Championships, the first American to ever do so at 57 kilograms. Gilman ended each of his first three matches short, pinning his first opponent and picking up technical falls in the next two rounds. In the finals, Gilman pulled out a tight 5-3 victory over Iran's Alireza Sarlak, capping off his historic performance.

Gilman returned to the World Championships in 2022, finishing runner-up for the second time in his career and representing the United States for the fifth time in the last six years. He also added a gold medal at the Pan American Championships that summer, as well as in 2023.

A graduate of Skutt Catholic High School in Omaha, Nebraska, Gilman became the 20th four-time state champion in Nebraska history with a 103-pound title as a freshman, one at 112 pounds as a sophomore, another at 119 pounds as a junior and the final in the 132-pound weight class. Gilman's efforts were vital in the team's three titles and one runner-up finish during his time on the team. He also added freestyle national titles at the cadet and junior levels in 2010 and 2011, respectively, and was Nebraska's recipient of the Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award as a senior.

Tyler Caldwell is entering his eighth season on staff at Oklahoma State and second as an assistant following a six-year stint as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Caldwell's first season as an assistant saw Daton Fix and Dustin Plott each finish as a national runner-up, while Izzak Olejnik finished fifth at 165 pounds to give the Cowboys their most placers since 2021. Fix's final season in Stillwater included becoming the Big 12's first five-time champion and first five-time All-American in program history. The Cowboys excelled in dual competition throughout the regular season, winning their first 14 duals for the program's highest win total in five years. Three of those victories came against top-five teams as part of OSU's nation-leading 12 ranked wins on the year. OSU also set a program average attendance record with 5,871 fans per dual and hosted their first sellout at Gallagher-Iba Arena since 2019. Oklahoma State would go on to finish second at the Big 12 Championships with 141.5 points, the most by a runner-up in league history.

While serving as recruiting coordinator, the Cowboys consistently signed classes ranked in the top-five nationally. In Caldwell's final season in the role, OSU inked the top-ranked class that was highlighted by the No. 1 pound-for-pound wrestler. Caldwell also played a major role in the Cowboys signing the top class in 2020, consisting of the top pound-for-pound wrestler in the nation.

Since Caldwell was added to the staff in 2018, OSU has completed a pair of undefeated dual seasons in 2019 and 2021 and compiled a 92-13 record. Cowboy wrestlers have combined for 28 All-America finishes at the NCAA Championships while bringing home 22 conference titles. The Cowboys won the conference team championship in each of Caldwell's first four years on staff, and he also saw AJ Ferrari win a 197-pound national title in 2021. Caldwell's tenure also oversaw standout Daton Fix excel on the international stage with two World Championship appearances and a silver medal in 2021.

As a collegiate wrestler, Caldwell transferred to Stillwater ahead of the 2013 campaign after competing at the University of Oklahoma as a freshman and sophomore. Earning All-America honors in all four years of his career, Caldwell was a two-time NCAA finalist and finished his career with a 126-29 record, including a 63-9 mark at OSU. He also won the Big 12 title at 165 pounds in both of his seasons as a Cowboy, while securing bonus points in over 40% of his matches.

Following his graduation from Oklahoma State in 2014, Caldwell served as a volunteer assistant at West Virginia during the 2015-16 season.

Caldwell also found success on the international stage, winning a University World title in 2014 and placing third at the U.S. Open that same year. He also placed fourth at the U.S. Open the following year.

A Wichita, Kan., native, Caldwell has been a part of the Cowboy wrestling program for over a decade.

Bryan Pearsall fills the role of recruiting coordinator in his first season on staff at Oklahoma State following a successful decade on the coaching circuit.

Pearsall joins the program having spent the past seven seasons at Penn, where he originally began as an assistant prior to his promotion to associate head coach less than a year into his tenure. An instrumental piece of several top-25 classes, Pearsall saw Penn reach unprecedented levels on the recruiting trail, highlighted by a ninth-ranked overall class in 2019. While at Penn, his wrestlers qualified for 34 appearances at NCAA Championships, earned 39 placements at the EIWA Championships, won a pair of individual conference titles and were named All-Ivy honorees 36 times.

In his final season as a Quaker, Penn finished in a tie for fourth at the EIWA Championships with 90.5 points before sending eight of its 10 starters to the NCAA Championships two weeks later. There, tenth-seeded Nick Incontrera led the charge at 174 pounds, reaching the Round of 16 and coming up just two wins shy of All-American status. Penn concluded the 2024 season with a 6-5 record, cementing its third-straight year with a winning record in dual competition.

Prior to his time at Penn, Pearsall served three seasons on staff at Army under former Cowboy wrestler Kevin Ward. Pearsall volunteered in 2015, but moved into a full-time assistant role for his final two years as he oversaw 13 national qualifiers and 18 EIWA placers. Just as he did at Penn, Pearsall's work on the recruiting trail helped Army climb the EIWA in both competitive and recruiting success, including a signing class ranked as high as No. 16 in the nation in his final year on staff.

Pearsall also gained valuable experience as a coach at the Scarlet Knight Wrestling Club in 2014. Working directly with Rutgers wrestlers during that time, the Scarlet Knights notched an 11-5 record in dual action, placed third at the EIWA Championships and secured its first All-American since 2002.

Wrestling for Penn State from 2009-13, Pearsall was a teammate of Cowboy head coach David Taylor as he started all four years following a redshirt in his true freshman season. He played a direct role in bringing Penn State its first national title in 60 years in 2011, which was the first of three straight team championships that Pearsall was part of. The Nittany Lions also celebrated Big Ten championships in those three seasons as well.

Pearsall put together a 55-54 record throughout his career, battling back from a rocky freshman campaign to finish above .500 in each of his final three seasons and qualify for the NCAA Championships as a senior. That season, Pearsall posted a personal-best 24 victories and proved to be a big bonus-point threat with eight pins on the year, tied for third-most on the team.

A USA Wrestling Bronze Certified coach, Pearsall previously served as director of the West Point Wrestling Club, coaching athletes at UWW Junior Nationals and the U.S. Open in Las Vegas. He also continued his involvement with PAWF as a coach for the cadet and junior teams competing in Fargo.

Season Review

Turning the Corner

Cowboys Excel in Regular Season Before Promising Postseason Performance

In the final campaign of his legendary 33-year career, Oklahoma State head coach John Smith said the 2023-24 team produced perhaps his most satisfying season at the helm of his alma mater.

With a rejuvenated lineup that featured four freshmen and five first-year starters, the Cowboys put together a 14-1 regular season that saw them lead the nation with a dozen wins over ranked teams, including three in the top-five. As part of that total, OSU defeated a ranked opponent in 10 straight duals prior to the regular season finale against Iowa, its longest streak since 2004. Led by yet another conference title from Daton Fix, the Cowboys would go on to finish second at the Big 12 Championships prior to placing top 10 at the NCAA Championships for the 27th and final time in Smith's tenure.

Along with its success on the mat, Oklahoma State averaged 5,871 fans across nine duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena, the highest season attendance average in program history. On February 18, 9,912 fans piled into Gallagher-Iba Arena to watch OSU continue its winning-streak in the Phillips 66 Bedlam Series before the venue hosted a sellout crowd of 13,721 people against Iowa. Together, the two crowds marked the program's largest attendance ever over a two-dual stretch.

Although a month passed between duals, OSU opened the season with home wins over Bucknell and No. 20 Lehigh. The Cowboys then claimed victories at No. 18 Oklahoma and Wyoming, capping a perfect 4-0 fall semester and opening a tough stretch of five straight duals on the road. The win over Oklahoma was Oklahoma State's 150th in the all-time series and 18th in a row.

The fall schedule also included a trip to the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, where several Cowboys put their name on the map behind strong performances in the sport's toughest regular season tournament. Most notably, Izzak Olejnik beat four ranked wrestlers en route to the 165-pound title in just his third appearance as a Cowboy.

In the opening dual of the 2024 calendar year, the Cowboys picked up their first marquee win of the season with a 22-12 victory over fourth-ranked NC State in Raleigh, N.C. The performance highlighted a perfect 5-0 road trip, as Oklahoma State returned home for seven of its final eight duals.

Another key point of the season came in late January and early February, when the Pokes beat No. 4 Iowa State and No. 5 Missouri in consecutive weeks. OSU's three top-five wins tied its most since 2005, while it shot up to No. 2 in the NWCA Coaches Poll for the first time in five years.
Oklahoma State would end the year with its 19th-straight win over Oklahoma, just one short of tying the rivalry's all-time record, before falling to No. 4 Iowa in the regular season finale.

Heading into the Big 12 Championships, Fix earned the top seed at 133 pounds, while OSU was one of two teams in the conference to receive a seed at every weight class. What was originally believed to be an open team race quickly turned into a two-team hunt between Oklahoma State and Iowa State, who separated from the field and each went into the final session with a shot at first-place.

Ultimately, the Cowboys finished second with 141.5 points, the most by a runner-up in conference history. Fix was victorious at 133 pounds once again to become the first five-time Big 12 champion ever. Three other Cowboys reached the finals as all 10 starters secured an automatic qualifying spot to the NCAA Championships, making OSU the only team in the country to do so. After sending its whole lineup to the event in 2023, Oklahoma State was one of just three teams in the country to accomplish the feat in back-to-back seasons.

At the NCAA Championships, three Cowboys secured All-America honors as the team placed 10th and was just 15 points shy of earning a team trophy. Fix and 184-pounder Dustin Plott both reached the championship match, while Olejnik concluded his time as a Cowboy with a fifth-place finish, the best of his career.

Despite dropping a tight finals bout to defending national champion Vito Arujau of Cornell, Fix's runner-up finished added another line to an already outstanding career. He became the first and only five-time All-American in program history in addition to his 123-7 career record, a win total that ranks 10th ever by a Cowboy.

At 184 pounds, Plott put together a dominant 31-4 season that included 25 bonus-point wins and 19 victories over ranked opponents. Three of his four losses came to national champion Parker Keckeisen of Northern Iowa as Plott captured the highest NCAA finish of his career to date.

Shortly after the season, Smith announced his retirement following a historic run as head coach of the Cowboys. His incredible 33-year tenure included five NCAA team titles, 33 individual champions, 153 All-Americans, 23 team conference titles and 15 conference coach of the year selections.

BUCKNELL	6
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 11	38

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team opened the 2023-24 campaign with a dominant 38-6 victory against Bucknell Friday at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Cowboys won nine of ten matches, over half of which earned bonus points from No. 24 Troy Spratley, No. 2 Daton Fix, No. 6 Izzak Olejnik, No. 4 Dustin Plott and No. 11 Luke Surber. In all, OSU recorded 23 takedowns on the night and allowed just two.

"I thought (we) looked pretty good," Smith said. "A lot of new faces in the lineup. Things didn't really go perfectly by any means, but I thought we did a nice job recovering in some of the matches. Taking back the momentum was nice at 141, 149 and 157. I liked what I saw, we hustled to the points. Good win at 165. I think those guys struggled a little bit, at least at what they wanted to accomplish, but they did a nice job getting it done. Obviously, they'd want to stretch it out and make it comfortable, but that doesn't always happen."

Spratley, a redshirt freshman who competed at Minnesota last season, was one of five Cowboys to make their first dual start for Oklahoma State and started his season in emphatic fashion. He used a strong second period to build a 14-2 lead and put the match away in the third to earn a 22-3 technical fall (5:43) over Owen Bell.

In the following match, Fix continued the Cowboys' stellar start with a fall over No. 16 Kurt Phipps in 5:31. It was Fix's 21st career fall and marked a stark improvement over his 4-1 decision against Phipps in last season's matchup in Lewisburg, Pa.

Tagen Jamison, another transfer from Minnesota, and Teague Travis each made their first dual starts at 141 and 149 pounds, respectively. Jamison trailed 3-0 following the first period, but controlled the final four minutes, leading to his first career win after missing all of last season with injury. Travis' 6-1 decision over Aiden Davis was his first career dual win after going 17-2 last year in open tournaments.

Following Jalin Harper's tight 5-4 win over Nick Delp, Izzak Olejnik made his highly-anticipated debut at 165 pounds. Olejnik rode his 8-1 opening period to a 10-2 major decision over No. 33 Noah Mulvaney, his first win in an orange singlet and 93rd of his career.

Returning starters Dustin Plott, Luke Surber and Konner Doucet closed out the dual with three victories. Plott, who started his first career match at 184 pounds, put Nolan Springer on his back for a fall after 3:25, while Surber found his offense in the first and third periods to pick up a 21-5 technical fall (6:21) over No. 22 Logan Deacetis. Doucet capped off the night with a ranked win over No. 32 Dorian Crosby thanks to a third period ride out.

LEHIGH NO. 20	12
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 11	25

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 20 Lehigh, 25-12, in its first dual in nearly a month Friday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena. OSU improved to 2-0 on the season, while Lehigh fell to 0-3.

After splitting the first two bouts of the night, the Cowboys rattled off six straight wins to take control of the dual. On a night when Oklahoma State was without veterans Daton Fix and Luke Surber, young talent stepped up to carry OSU to victory.

"We knew we were going to have to overcome some things coming into this one, and I think we did for the most part," head coach John Smith said. "It wasn't anything perfect, but it was good. I saw some guys trying to stretch their scores when they knew we needed major decisions. We were able to get that at 165 and 184. Nice win from Thompson getting his first win. Saw a little different demeanor, and he trusted the process tonight. I thought we learned a little bit about ourselves at the heavyweight. Nice job at 141 with the tech fall, and we expected that, but it was still a nice job to go out and get it done."

Troy Spratley got the Cowboys started off on the right foot, riding a first period takedown to ultimately defeat Luke Stanich, 4-2. At 133 pounds, Reece Witcraft took on top-ranked Ryan Crookham, who was able to get the Mountain Hawks on the board with an 11-2 major decision.

Tagen Jamison, who shot up to No. 9 at 141 pounds in Intermat's latest poll, opened the flood gates for six straight Cowboy wins with a 17-2 technical fall over Ethan Smith in 5:15. It was the first tech fall of Jamison's young career.

Jordan Williams then added a 10-5 decision over Drew Munch before Teague Travis downed No. 25 Max Brignola, 5-1, at 157 pounds. The win was Travis' first over a ranked opponent in his career, an impressive feat after competing solely at 149 pounds so far this season.

"It felt really good to go out there and get a strong win," Travis said. "To be stingy, dig deep and win a tough match felt good. I had to keep pushing forward, keep a good position and not give up easy takedowns."

Izzak Olejnik picked up his sixth ranked win of the season with a 14-5 major decision over No. 33 Jake Logan. Olejnik is now 12-0 on the season and has defeated a ranked opponent in five straight matches.

At 174 pounds, standout freshman Brayden Thompson reeled in the first win of his collegiate career, defeating Thayne Lawrence, 8-2. The freshman secured late takedowns in both the second and third periods to claim the match.

Dustin Plott then followed up Thompson's victory with 9-1 major decision over Caden Rogers. With the win, Plott earned his team-best 11th bonus point victory in just 13 matches this season, good for an 84.6% bonus win percentage.

Ninth-ranked Michael Beard earned an 18-2 tech fall against Kyle Haas, who was making his second career dual start and first of the season. In the final match of the night, No. 16 Nathan Taylor narrowly held off Konner Doucet, 3-2.

Dec. 10, 2023 | Norman, Okla.
McCasland Field House

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 11	28
OKLAHOMA NO. 18	9

NORMAN, Okla. – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 18 Oklahoma, 28-9, on Sunday at McCasland Field House in the first of two Phillips 66 Bedlam Series duals. With the win, OSU remained undefeated at 3-0 while the Sooners dropped to 4-2.

The win was Oklahoma State's 18th straight over the Sooners and No. 150 in the all-time series. OSU leads the series with Oklahoma, 150-27-10, while John Smith is 57-6-3 against the Sooners as head coach.

OSU won four of five matches prior to intermission to a secure a wide lead and never looked back. Three unranked Cowboys reeled in victories, including two wins over ranked opponents from Reece Witcraft and Brayden Thompson.

"All of our duals have started at 125, and we've been very competitive up there this year and it's helped us," coach Smith said. "I want to see us open it up more in the second and third period, instead of just leaning on that first takedown. Everyone has been doing their part and it's been good for us."

Troy Spratley got the Cowboys on the board first with a 4-1 decision over No. 32 Conrad Hendriksen. He is now 10-2 on the year following a pair of ranked wins throughout the weekend.

With Daton Fix unavailable, Reece Witcraft once again filled in at 133 pounds and picked up a big 8-1 decision over No. 27 Jace Koelzer. Tagen Jamison then held off Kaden Smith, 6-3, at 149 pounds, building OSU's lead up to 9-0.

Following No. 22 Willie McDougald's tight 5-4 decision over Jordan Williams, Teague Travis snatched back the momentum and sent the Cowboys into the break with an 11-2 major decision over John Wiley. Travis tacked on points late in the third period to secure bonus points and gave OSU a 13-3 advantage at intermission.

At 165 pounds, Izzak Olejnik picked up right where the team left off, defeating No. 16 Cael Carlson, 8-3. Olejnik, who is now 13-0 and ranked second in the country by Intermat, has defeated a ranked opponent in six straight matches, dating back to the quarterfinal round of the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational.

After claiming his first career win on Friday against Lehigh, Brayden Thompson upset No. 17 Tate Picklo, 9-0, for the first ranked win of his career. The freshman jumped out in front early and tacked on points throughout the third period to earn a major decision.

"He did a nice job finding ways to win it," Smith said. "It took some adjustment on his part and on ours. He was able to make that adjustment this weekend. I thought this was a huge weekend for him as far as his demeanor goes. He stayed focused. When he had the opportunity to score, he did. He is going after things and not worrying about the outcome, and that's how you win."

Dustin Plott continued his stellar start to the season with a dominant 19-2 technical fall over No. 32 Giuseppe Hoose in 4:18. Plott has now earned bonus points a dozen times in 14 total matches this season, most on the team.

Second-ranked Stephen Buchanan pinned Kyle Haas in 4:19 at 197 pounds, but Konner Doucet capped off the dual with a clutch 2-1 decision over No. 10 Josh Heindselman in tiebreakers. The win marked Doucet's first over a top-10 opponent in his career.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 9	31
WYOMING	9

LARAMIE, Wyo. – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated Wyoming, 31-9, in dominating fashion on Tuesday at the UniWyo Sports Complex. With the win, Oklahoma State closed its fall semester with a perfect 4-0 record, while Wyoming dropped to 3-3.

Head coach John Smith improved his record to 20-0 against Wyoming as head coach and is now 24-1 in head-to-head matchups against his former wrestlers. The win was also the 480th of Smith's career, putting him 12 behind Harold Nichols for second-most in NCAA history.

"Good win to end the first semester," coach Smith said. "Put ourselves in position with our guys that put up points. Picked up bonus (points), really stretched the score out, and I like to see us stretch the score out when we have the opportunity. I think, for the most part, that's the highlight of the dual."

Following an opening-bout victory by No. 16 Jore Volk over Troy Spratley, OSU rattled off seven straight wins to take control of the dual. In his first appearance since Nov. 10, Daton Fix got Oklahoma State on the board with an 8-2 decision over Cooper Birdwell.

At 141 pounds, Cael Hughes made the first dual start of his young career against Stockton O'Brien and posted a 14-3 major decision to give OSU the lead. He was one of two true freshman Cowboys to record victories on the night.

Jordan Williams and Teague Travis posted back-to-back wins to send Oklahoma State into the break with a 13-3 edge. Williams fell behind 18th-ranked Willochell 8-3 in the opening three minutes, but rallied back over the final two periods to take the match.

Following the intermission, Izzak Olejnik, Brayden Thompson and Dustin Plott all earned bonus points in three straight matches. Olejnik reeled in his first tech fall as a Cowboy, while Plott posted his 13th bonus point win of the season in 15 tries.

True freshman Jersey Robb also made his dual debut at 197 pounds, nearly defeating No. 21 Joey Novak before surrendering a fall late in the third period. Konner Doucet capped off the night with a 5-1 decision over Kevin Zimmer.

NC STATE NO. 4	12

RALEIGH, N.C. – The ninth-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team picked up its biggest win of the young season Friday night, taking down No. 4 NC State, 22-12, at James T. Valvano Arena at William Neal Reynolds Coliseum. The win continued Oklahoma State's undefeated season at 5-0, while NC State dropped to 9-2.

The Cowboys have won three straight duals on the road and boast a trio of wins over ranked opponents this season. With the win, head coach John Smith improved his record to 25-1 as a head coach in head-to-head matchups against his former wrestlers.

Oklahoma State is now 3-1 in its past four duals against opponents ranked in the top-10, while Friday's victory also marked its first win over a top-five opponent since defeating No. 3 Iowa on February 24, 2019.

"We were ready," Smith said. "I thought some of the younger guys wrestled some of their better matches and they made the difference. In the big, tough dual meets like this, there's always somebody that lights the fuse, and I thought we lit it a few times. 125, 157 – two good wins from those guys. That's how you win big dual meets is somebody steps out there and does something that wasn't expected."

Troy Spratley began the night with a clutch 7-2 decision over No. 17 Jakob Camacho, who spent much of December as the top-ranked 125-pounder according to Intermat. Spratley's win over Camacho was his highest-ranked win as a Cowboy and improved his record to 11-3.

Third-ranked Daton Fix then faced No. 5 Kai Orine in a top-five matchup at 133 pounds. Fix jumped out to a 6-2 lead in the opening period and never looked back, taking the match by major decision, 11-3. Fix's win was the seventh of his career over a top-five opponent and first time earning bonus points in such matches.

Fourth-ranked Ryan Jack managed a takedown in the match's final seconds to defeat Tagen Jamison, 6-4, and No. 3 Jackson Arrington's major decision over Jordan Williams evened the dual at 7-7.

In the final match prior to intermission, No. 23 Teague Travis swung the momentum back in OSU's favor with a huge 7-6 decision over fifth-ranked Ed Scott. In a wild third period, the two wrestlers traded blows, but two reversals by Travis was ultimately enough to complete the upset. Travis is 5-0 in duals this season and now boasts his first career win over a top-five opponent.

"He's a hard worker," Smith said of Travis. "It's just a matter of him believing this is where he is and this is what he can do. He's finding that out a little bit through his hard work and through his effort. It's really good to see him have success."

The Cowboys then continued their surge after the break, winning three straight matches by Izzak Olejnik, Brayden Thompson and Dustin Plott.

Olejnik handled AJ Kovacs at 165 pounds and nearly picked up bonus points, while Thompson grinded out a tight 3-2 decision over No. 31 Alex Faison in tiebreakers for his fourth consecutive win. Plott fell behind fifth-ranked Dylan Fishback in the first period, but battled back and iced the bout with a late takedown to win 13-8. It marked Plott's first career win over a top-five foe.

Following No. 4 Trent Hidlay's technical fall over Jersey Robb, Konner Doucet capped the night off with a 2-1 victory over No. 16 Owen Trephan. Doucet moved to 10-2 on the year with the win and owns three wins over ranked opponents.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 5	31
PITTSBURGH NO. 15	6

PITTSBURGH, Pa. – The Oklahoma State wrestling team claimed its fourth ranked win of the season on Friday, handling No. 15 Pittsburgh, 31-6, at Fitzgerald Field House. The win moved Oklahoma State to 6-0 on the year, while Pittsburgh fell to 7-4.

The Cowboys captured the first six matches of the night and picked up bonus points five times en route to their fourth straight win on the road. With the win, head coach John Smith now trails Harold Nichols by just 10 victories at 482 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

"Pretty good effort at those first five weights," Smith said. "Really looked good, scored points, separated the scores and did a good job. Sammy Alvarez's first match out was really good. Teague followed it up, and then won at 165. When you take the first six matches in what could be a tight dual meet, you don't give them much hope."

Troy Spratley and Daton Fix got the ball rolling early for OSU, each earning bonus points over ranked opponents to give their squad an early 10-0 cushion. The fall was Spratley's first as a Cowboy, as Fix has posted bonus points in three of his first four matches this season.

Following Tagen Jamison's 8-2 decision over No. 27 Cole Matthews, Sammy Alvarez made his Cowboy debut at 149 pounds against No. 26 Finn Solomon. Alvarez surrendered the first takedown of the bout, but battled back and extended the score to win by major decision, 12-4, with riding time. Teague Travis then sent the Cowboys into the break with a commanding 14-3 major decision over Jared Kesler, improving his dual record to 6-0.

Izzak Olejnik continued his undefeated run out of intermission, beating eighth-ranked Holden Heller by decision, 5-2. He is 16-0 on the year and has beaten a ranked foe in half of his wins, including three over wrestlers ranked in the top-eight. Luca Augustine, ranked No. 15 by Intermat, got Pittsburgh on the board with a tight 2-1 decision over Brayden Thompson in tiebreakers.

Dustin Plott picked up his team-best 14th bonus point win of the season against No. 12 Reece Heller, 14-4. At 197 pounds, Luke Surber returned to the mat for the first time in over a month, but dropped his match to No. 15 Mac Stout, 5-2. Konner Doucet sent the Cowboys home in a big way, however, defeating ninth-ranked Dayton Pitzer, 3-0. Doucet improved to 11-2 this season with the win and has taken down a ranked opponent in three of his last four matches. The top-10 win was the second of his career.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 5	29
WEST VIRGINIA NO. 20	9

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. – The Oklahoma State wrestling team wrapped up its busy weekend with a commanding 29-9 victory over No. 20 West Virginia at WVU Coliseum on Sunday afternoon. OSU remained undefeated at 7-0 on the year, as the Mountaineers dropped to 8-2.

The Cowboys won seven of ten matches on the day en route to their 17th-straight victory over West Virginia. OSU has won five straight duals on the road, four coming against ranked opponents, to continue its perfect start to the season.

With the win, head coach John Smith now trails Harold Nichols by just nine wins at 483 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

For the second time this weekend, Troy Spratley and Daton Fix came out firing with a pair of bonus point victories. Spratley dominated Jace Schafer to win by major decision, 12-1, while Fix picked up a 19-4 technical fall over David Rhoads in just 3:43.

Tagen Jamison then faced ninth-ranked Jordan Titus in a top-10 matchup at 141 pounds. Jamison jumped out front with a first period takedown, which was ultimately enough to take the match, 4-2. The redshirt freshman now boasts four wins over top-10 opponents this season and owns a 14-3 record overall.

Sammy Alvarez dropped a tight 4-2 decision to No. 9 Ty Watters at 149 pounds, but Teague Travis responded with a 5-2 win over Alex Hornfeck. The bout was even at 2-2 late in the third period, but Travis secured the clutch takedown with 30 seconds remaining for the victory. Travis has been a key piece of the Cowboy lineup thus far, winning in all seven duals.

Izzak Olejnik suffered his first defeat of the season at the hands of No. 9 Peyton Hall before Brayden Thompson posted the first fall of his young career against Luke Eschenheimer in 3:27. At 184 pounds, Dustin Plott took care of No. 32 Dennis Robin with a 19-4 technical fall. The win marked Plott's 15th time earning bonus points in 18 matches this season.

Kyle Haas then fell to Austin Cooley, 5-0, at 197 pounds, but Konner Doucet sent the Cowboys home with a 2-0 win over Michael Wolfgram in the heavyweight match. Doucet improved to 12-2 on the season and has won five matches in a row.

Following five straight duals on the road, Oklahoma State finally returns home to Gallagher-Iba Arena next weekend for a dual against No. 17 Oregon State on Sunday, December 21. The dual is slated for 2 p.m. CT and will be available for streaming on Big 12 Now on ESPN+.

OREGON STATE NO. 16	9
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 5	27

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team continued its undefeated season with a 27-9 victory over No. 16 Oregon State Sunday afternoon at Gallagher-Iba Arena. The Cowboys moved to 8-0 with the win, while Oregon State fell to 5-3.

Oklahoma State fell behind early, facing a 9-5 deficit after three matches, but it rattled off seven straight wins to ultimately claim the dual. It was an afternoon full of tight matches, as four Cowboys picked up wins in either sudden victory or tiebreakers, OSU's most in a dual since at least 2002-03.

The Cowboys are now 6-0 against ranked opponents and 13-1 in their last 14 duals overall. With the win, head coach John Smith improved to 26-1 as head coach in head-to-head matchups with his former wrestlers. Additionally, he trails Harold Nichols by just eight victories at 484 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

Daton Fix got the Cowboys on the board at 133 pounds with a dominant 22-6 technical fall over No. 26 Gabe Whisenhunt, his fifth bonus-point win in just six matches this season. With Oklahoma State trailing after three matches, Sammy Alvarez made his Gallagher-Iba Arena debut in a big match against No. 15 Nash Singleton at 149 pounds. The two wrestlers traded escapes and went to sudden victory, but Alvarez finally found his offense to secure the much-needed 4-1 decision.

Teague Travis then improved his dual record to 8-0 with a 4-2 decision over Isaiah Crosby, which was followed by Izzak Olejnik's 10-1 major decision against Kekana Fouret. Olejnik suffered his first defeat of the season a week ago against West Virginia's Peyton Hall, but responded well on Sunday with his 10th bonus-point win this season.

Holding a 15-9 edge, the Cowboys put the dual away with four straight wins over ranked foes by Brayden Thompson, Dustin Plott, Luke Surber and Konner Doucet.

Thompson took on Matthew Olguin, who entered Sunday as the No. 13 165-pounder in the country. The match made its way into sudden victory, but Thompson grinded out a takedown with just six seconds remaining for the 4-1 decision.

In the marquee matchup of the day, second-ranked Dustin Plott defeated No. 4 Trey Munoz, 4-2, at 184 pounds. Plott got the key takedown early in the third period and was able to hold off Munoz for his second career top-five victory. His first was just 16 days ago against No. 5 Dylan Fishback of NC State.

After missing much of the season due to injury, Luke Surber picked up his first dual win since the season opener, defeating No. 28 Justin Rademacher, 9-6, in sudden victory. At heavyweight, Konner Doucet faced No. 11 Boone McDermott for the second time this season after defeating the Beaver at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational in December. Just as they did in Las Vegas, the two competed into tiebreakers, as a ride out by Doucet lifted him to a 2-1 decision.

NORTHERN IOWA NO. 22	12
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 5	22

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 22 Northern Iowa, 22-12, for its fifth-straight win over a ranked opponent Friday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena. OSU improved to 9-0 overall and 4-0 in the Big 12, while Northern Iowa fell to 3-5.

The Cowboys won six of 10 matches on the night and were able to separate the score behind a trio of bonus-point wins from Daton Fix, Jordan Williams and Izzak Olejnik. Oklahoma State is now 7-0 against ranked opponents this season and 14-1 in their last 15 duals overall. With the win, head coach John Smith now trails Harold Nichols by just seven victories at 485 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

"I thought our young guys competed," coach Smith said. "It's slowed down for them a bit. At 125, we got the first takedown, so we have to keep working to score after that. Daton (Fix) did a great job of scoring for us, knowing this could be a tough match. Jordan Williams did well, and it was exactly what we wanted to see... Good win for Konner (Doucet) after losing to (Tyrell Gordon) twice before. Little bit slow, but you're going to see some of that this time of year."

In a rematch from December's Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational, Troy Spratley opened the night with a tight 3-2 decision over No. 30 Trever Andersen. A takedown in the first period by Spratley was ultimately enough to earn him his fifth ranked win of the season. Daton Fix then extended the Cowboys' lead with an 18-4 major decision against No. 23 Julian Farber, marking his fifth-straight match earning bonus points.

After missing each of Oklahoma State's past three duals, Jordan Williams was inserted back into the lineup at 149 pounds and put together a dominant 20-5 technical fall over Adam Allard. Williams' big win was much-needed, as the Cowboys dropped tight, ranked matchups at 141 and 157 pounds.

Izzak Olejnik improved to 18-1 on the season following his 12-2 major decision against RJ Weston at 165 pounds. The senior has responded well to his lone loss at West Virginia, securing bonus points in back-to-back matches. Brayden Thompson then added to the Cowboy lead at 174 pounds, defeating No. 30 Jared Simma, 6-3. The true freshman is now 4-1 against ranked opponents and has won seven of his last eight matches.

In a top-ranked battle at 184 pounds, Dustin Plott fell to No. 1 Parker Keckeisen, 12-6. Plott worked for a takedown early in the third period to claim a 5-4 lead, but UNI's returning national finalist closed the bout with a pair of takedowns to earn the win.

True freshman Jersey Robb made his Gallagher-Iba Arena debut at 197 pounds before Konner Doucet battled No. 15 Tyrell Gordon in the heavyweight match. Doucet fell to Gordon twice last season, but was not denied in his home arena, picking up a 4-3 decision in tiebreakers. The Comanche native has won seven consecutive matches, five coming against opponents ranked in the top-16.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 5	21

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team downed No. 4 Iowa State, 21-12, Saturday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena for its second win over a top-five opponent this season. OSU is now 10-0, matching its longest winning streak to open a season since 2018-19, while the Cyclones dropped to 10-2.

In a dual that featured five top-10 matchups, the Cowboys took six of 10 matches on the night and were led by bonus-point wins from Daton Fix, Dustin Plott and Jersey Robb. Oklahoma State now owns two wins over top-five opponents, its first time doing so since 2018-19.

Additionally, the Cowboys have won 11 of their past 12 against ranked teams and 15 of their past 16 overall, as well as four of their last five against top-10 teams. With the win, head coach John Smith now trails Harold Nichols by just six victories at 486 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

The Cowboys took control of the dual right from the start, winning each of the first three matches.

For the second night in a row, No. 20 Troy Spratley used a takedown in the first period to pick up the 4-2 decision over No. 25 Kysen Terukina. Spratley took down a pair of ranked opponents this weekend and is 8-2 in dual action. Third-ranked Daton Fix then gave OSU a 7-0 lead behind a dominant 11-3 major decision against No. 7 Evan Frost, his sixth-straight bonus-point win and second top-10 win of the year.

Perhaps the dual of the night was at 141 pounds, as No. 9 Tagen Jamison battled No. 8 Anthony Echemendia in a big swing bout. The two wrestlers went to sudden victory after trading escapes, but Jamison got the key takedown for his fifth top-10 victory this season.

Following No. 17 Sammy Alvarez's defeat to No. 10 Casey Swiderski, Teague Travis got the job done against Jason Kraisser, winning by decision, 8-2. Travis ended the weekend with a 14-2 record and has earned wins in nine of 10 duals on the year.

Second-ranked Dustin Plott made easy work of No. 10 Will Feldkamp, nearly earning a technical fall as he settled for a 17-3 major decision. The senior is 19-2 on the year, while posting bonus points 16 times and beating three top-10 wrestlers.

Oklahoma State led 17-9 heading into the 197-pound bout, needing one more victory to cement the team win. Jersey Robb, who entered the night with an 0-3 dual record, put on a show against No. 30 Julien Broderson. The true freshman exploded for a 10-1 lead in the first period and tacked on a late takedown to secure the 15-6 major decision, sealing the first dual win of his career and the team victory.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 3	28

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team routed No. 24 Arizona State, 28-9, Friday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena to keep its undefeated season intact at 11-0. With the loss, Arizona State fell to 3-5.

The Cowboys picked up five bonus-point wins on the night, matching their season-high set against both Bucknell and Pittsburgh. Now sitting at 11-0 for the first time since 2019, Oklahoma State is one of just two undefeated teams remaining in the country.

Oklahoma State has now defeated a ranked opponent in seven straight duals and owns nine ranked victories on the season. In addition, OSU is 12-1 in its last 13 duals against ranked teams and won 16 of its last 17 overall. With the win, head coach John Smith trails Harold Nichols by just five victories at 487 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

"(Troy) Spratley fell into a couple of situations there that he didn't create," coach Smith said. "I'd love to see him go out there and create those situations, but he went out there and found a way to get some points to win. Daton (Fix) needs to push through when it's hard to score... Those matches prepare you the NCAA Championships when things get tight... Liked what I saw from Brayden Thompson and Dustin Plott. Thompson goes and gets three takedowns, and Plott goes out and gets the pin. Good to see Luke (Surber) back after some injuries."

For the second dual in a row, the Cowboys jumped out to an early lead behind wins at the first three weight classes.

At 125 pounds, Troy Spratley opened the night in a tight matchup against No. 11 Richard Figueroa. Spratley trailed early in the second period, but executed a six-point move and tacked on in the third to earn a 13-5 major decision. The redshirt freshman has won his last seven matches, with five of those victories coming against ranked opponents. Daton Fix extended the Cowboy lead with a 5-3 decision over No. 26 Julian Chlebove before Tagen Jamison cemented a 16-5 major decision against Cody Foote.

With the Cowboys holding an 11-0 lead, Jordan Williams and Teague Travis each dropped tight decisions to a pair of fourth-ranked wrestlers. Izzak Olejnik then got OSU back on track at 165 pounds, shutting Chance McLane out in a 5-0 decision.

Three straight bonus-point wins by Brayden Thompson, Dustin Plott and Luke Surber then iced the team win for Oklahoma State. Thompson scored five points in the third period en route to his 11-2 major decision over Cael Valencia, while Dustin Plott made quick work of Max Wilner, earning the pin in just 2:33.

After battling injuries throughout recent weeks, 197-pounder Luke Surber looked like his usual self, defeating Jacob Meissner by major decision, 17-4. The strong performance marked Surber's third dual win of the season and eighth time securing bonus points in 12 matches.

MISSOURI NO. 5	10

COLUMBIA, Mo. – The third-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team dominated No. 5 Missouri, 24-10, Sunday at the Hearnes Center for its third top-five win of the season, its first time doing so since 2011-12. OSU continued its undefeated season at 12-0, while Missouri dropped to 8-2.

The Cowboys rattled off five straight wins to open the dual, taking a commanding 18-0 lead into intermission and taking seven total matches to seal the team win. Missouri managed just three takedowns on the day, while four Cowboy freshmen claimed wins.

Oklahoma State has now beaten a ranked team in eight consecutive duals and owns 10 ranked wins on the season. The Cowboys are 5-1 in their past six duals against top-10 opponents and have won 17 of their last 18 duals overall. With the win, head coach John Smith trails Harold Nichols by just four victories at 488 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

Troy Spratley set the tone in the opening matching against Noah Surtin, who entered the day ranked seventh behind a 12-1 record. The bout went into sudden victory after the two wrestlers traded escapes, but Spratley managed the key takedown for the 4-1 decision. Over the weekend, Spratley brought home a pair of wins over top-11 wrestlers to move to 17-4 on the year.

Sam Smith recorded the first dual win of his career following a Missouri forfeit at 133 pounds. Daton Fix then bumped up to 141 pounds for his first career start at the weight, but walked away with a tight 2-1 decision over No. 26 Josh Edmond. Jordan Williams extended the Cowboy lead with a 10-3 decision over Joel Mylin at 149 pounds. He was the only wrestler on Sunday to reach double digits and improved his record to 11-5.

In the last match prior to intermission, Teague Travis rode a first period takedown to upset No. 10 Brock Mauller at 157. The win was Travis' second against a top-10 opponent this season, and cemented a wide 18-0 Cowboy lead at the break.

Top-ranked Keegan O'Toole put the Tigers on the board against Izzak Olejnik, before Brayden Thompson had the win of the day against No. 5 Peyton Mocco. Tied at 1-1 in sudden victory, the true freshman got a takedown and four near fall points en route to the clutch 8-1 decision. It marked Thompson's highest-ranked win of his young career.

Dustin Plott then added the Cowboys' seventh win of the day at 184 pounds, defeating No. 14 Clayton Whiting by decision, 8-2. Plott boasts a 21-2 record and has won 14 of his last 15 matches.

SOUTH DAKOTA STATE NO. 12	6
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 2	31

STILLWATER – Behind two falls and three wins in sudden victory, the second-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team took care of No. 12 South Dakota State, 31-6, Saturday night at Gallagher-Iba Arena. OSU continued its perfect season at 13-0 as South Dakota State dropped to 11-3.

As they have for much of the season, the Cowboys took control of the dual from the start, winning each of the first six bouts. Oklahoma State racked up 16 takedowns compared to SDSU's six and picked up three bonus-point wins en route to its second biggest margin of victory this season. The Cowboys have stepped up in critical situations all season long, compiling a 13-3 record in dual bouts that reach extra time

Oklahoma State has now defeated a ranked opponent in nine straight duals, its longest streak since 2004, and leads the nation with 11 total ranked wins. The Cowboys also moved to 7-0 in Big 12 competition, are the only undefeated record in the conference and 16-1 in their last 17 duals against league foes. With the win, head coach John Smith trails Harold Nichols by just three victories at 489 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

"I thought South Dakota State did a great job and is a really tough team," associated head coach Coleman Scott said. "Did a good job getting three overtime wins, but you have to go out and score earlier than that. Overall, (we) found some things late that you like to see, but it's not really what we're looking for. Good to see Jordan (Williams) go out and let it fly. Got two takedowns before the cradle, so it was nice to see. Good job by the guys tonight as a whole."

For the eighth time this year, Troy Spratley and Daton opened the gates with back-to-back wins at 125 and 133 pounds, respectively. Spratley secured takedowns in the first and third periods to defeat No. 15 Tanner Jordan, 7-3, avenging his slim loss at the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational in early December. He has won eight of last nine matches, including five in a row over ranked opponents. Fix then followed up with eighth bonus-point victory of the year, beating No. 16 Derrick Cardinal by major decision, 15-4.

Tagen Jamison added to the Cowboy lead in a wild match with No. 24 Clay Carlson at 141 pounds. Trailing 5-4, Jamison worked his way out of Carlson's grasp for an escape just before the third period buzzer, sending the bout into sudden victory. Jamison then quickly claimed the key takedown to top Carlson, 8-5.

Leading 6-1 in the second period, Jordan Williams broke the dual open with a pin over No. 18 Alek Martin, his first of the season and second of his career. It matched the highest-ranked win of his career. In a tight matchup at 157 pounds, Teague Travis defeated No. 16 Cael Swensen, 4-1, in sudden victory for his second-consecutive victory over a top-20 wrestler and 11th dual win of the year.

At 165 pounds, Izzak Olejnik posted his fifth fall of the season against Tanner Cook in the first period. Olejnik is now 20-3 as a Cowboy with a dozen bonus-point victories. Facing a 6-2 deficit in the third period, Dustin Plott posted an escape and takedown to send his meeting with No. 12 Bennett Berge into sudden victory. Plott then added another takedown to secure his team-best 13th ranked win of the year.

At heavyweight, Konner Doucet sent the Cowboy faithful home happy following a 9-7 decision against Luke Rasmussen. Doucet tallied seven points in the first period, while the nine points are his most scored against a Division I opponent this season.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 2	34

STILLWATER – The second-ranked Oklahoma State wrestling team downed No. 25 Oklahoma, 34-9, Sunday at Gallagher-Iba Arena for its 19th-straight Phillips 66 Bedlam Series dual win. The Cowboys maintained their perfect season at 14-0 with one dual remaining, while the Sooners ended their regular season at 5-7.

The win moved the all-time series record to 151-27-10 in favor of the Cowboys. Oklahoma State has defeated the Sooners in Gallagher-Iba Arena 24 times in a row, while its 19-dual winning streak is one shy of tying the all-time series record of 20 set between 1969 and 1978. In 33 years at the helm of his alma mater, head coach John Smith owns an impressive 58-6-3 advantage over OU.

Oklahoma State has now defeated a ranked opponent in 10 straight duals, tied for its longest streak since 1994, and leads the nation with a dozen ranked wins. With the win, coach Smith trails Harold Nichols by just two wins at 490 for second-most in Division I wrestling history.

"I can't even remember those first three matches they happened so fast," coach Smith said. "It's a great way to start, getting 10 minutes into the dual and you're already three matches down. I thought we may get out of there in an hour, but credit their guys for fighting it out... The whistle blows and we're scoring. That's why we're winning."

Like they have for most of the season, the Cowboys set the tone early with a pair of pins and technical fall to build a commanding 17-0 lead after three bouts. It marked the fifth-consecutive dual OSU has claimed the opening three matches. OSU ended the day with a season-high six bonus-point wins, its most in a Bedlam dual since December 9, 2018.

Just over a minute into the afternoon's first matchup, Troy Spratley put Conrad Hendriksen on his back for the fall, igniting the 9,912 fans in attendance. It was Spratley's second pin of the season, and he has won nine of his last 10 matches. Daton Fix then improved to 12-0 following a 20-5 technical fall against Gabe Vidlak. At 141 pounds, Tagen Jamison broke the score open, pinning Carter Schmidt in just 54 seconds. It was the third fall of Jamison's young career and fastest by a Cowboy in dual action this season.

"I've had a pin in a tournament before, but in a dual, especially Bedlam, it is crazy," Jamison said. "There were so many people there, the noise like that. It was just an exciting moment, especially with the two guys before me, Troy Spratley and Daton (Fix). They both woke the crowd up too, so it was nice being able to add to that."

Following Jordan Williams' defeat to No. 21 Willie McDougald, Teague Travis and Izzak Olejnik got OSU back on track with a pair of ranked victories over No. 30 Jared Hill and No. 26 Cael Carlson, respectively. Despite a scoreless first period, Travis eventually found his offense for his 12th dual win this season, while Olejnik improved to 21-3 with the victory over Carlson.

At 184 pounds, Dustin Plott posted his second technical fall over Giuseppe Hoose in as many tries, marking his team-best 18th bonus-point victory. For the second straight season, Luke Surber faced former Tuttle High School teammate Carson Berryhill, this time defeating him by technical fall thanks to a pair of seven-point moves.

Eight Cowboy seniors were honored prior to the dual in Fix, Olejnik, Sammy Alvarez, Joey Sanchez, Andrew Bloemhof, Alexander Yokubaitis, Evan Shetley and Sam Sherrer. In addition, former Cowboy wrestler and longtime Oklahoma high school coach Ray Stapp was presented with the 2024 Gallagher Award.

IOWA NO. 4	22
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 2	9

STILLWATER – The No. 2 Oklahoma State wrestling team fell to No. 4 Iowa, 22-9, on Sunday in the team's final dual of the regular season. OSU completed the regular season with a 14-1 record in dual action, while Iowa improved to 12-2.

Gallagher-Iba Arena played host to 13,721 fans, the arena's third-highest total ever at a wrestling dual. Additionally, Sunday's crowd secured a season attendance average of 5,871, most in Gallagher-Iba Arena wrestling history.

In the opening bout of the afternoon, No. 12 Troy Spratley and No. 4 Drake Ayala went into sudden victory tied at 1-1, but Ayala secured a takedown and near fall points to give Iowa the early lead. At 133 pounds, third-ranked Daton Fix defeated Brody Teske by decision, 7-2, in his final match inside Gallagher-Iba Arena. With the win, Fix completed his career with a perfect 36-0 record at the venue.

"I just wanted to take it in one last time," Fix said. "I grew up dreaming of putting on that orange singlet and wrestling in Gallagher. When I was a little kid, I spent a lot of a lot of time here, so it's a dream come true for me just to be able to represent Oklahoma State. I love Oklahoma State with everything in me, I'm a Cowboy forever and I definitely bleed orange."

Following No. 2 Real Woods' tight 4-1 win over No. 8 Tagen Jamison, 18th-ranked Jordan Williams once again evened the team score after beating Victor Voinovich III, 7-3. Williams improved to 13-6 on the year and enters the postseason having won three of his last four bouts.

With the scored tied 6-6, the Hawkeyes picked up decisions in top-10 matchups at both 157 and 165 pounds. Seventh-ranked Patrick Kennedy then gave Iowa a 16-6 lead at 174 pounds, defeating No. 21 Brayden Thompson, 12-3, in the only bonus-point decision of the day.

Second-ranked Dustin Plott continued his stellar season, handing Gabe Arnold his first loss of the year and completing the regular season with a 24-2 record.

At 197 pounds, No. 16 Luke Surber and No. 11 Zach Glazier were tied late in the third period, but Glazier worked his way to a takedown with under 15 seconds remaining to ice the team win. Ben Kueter then beat No. 11 Konner Doucet, 5-1, in the afternoon's final match.

TULSA, Okla. – Oklahoma State 133-pounder Daton Fix became the first and only wrestler in Big 12 history to claim five individual conference titles Sunday night, defeating second-seeded Evan Frost of Iowa State, 8-5, in front of a hometown crowd at the BOK Center.

Already holding the 133-pound titles from 2019, 2021, 2022, and 2023, Fix took advantage of an extra year of eligibility provided by the NCAA in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic to add a fifth and final conference championship in 2024.

The top-seeded Fix made it look easy, too. He jumped out to a 7-1 lead with a takedown in each of the first two periods and then cruised to an 8-5 win to move to 17-0 on the year.

He was already just the 10th wrestler in Oklahoma State history to win four conference titles, and now he is the only one to win five.

With the addition of the title, OSU now has 121 Big 12 individual championships and 296 conference individual championships in its wrestling history.

As a team, the Cowboys finished in second place with 141.5 points to mark the highest score for a runner-up team in the history of the Big 12 Championships and the seventh-highest total for any team in tournament history. Iowa State claimed the team title with 152.5 points.

"By no means did we lose the tournament – Iowa State won it," coach John Smith said. "We scored a lot of points. If you told me we were going to score in the 140's, I would have told you we won the tournament."

In addition to Fix, three other Cowboys reached Sunday night's finals, including Troy Spratley at 125 pounds, Jordan Williams at 149 pounds and Dustin Plott at 184 pounds.

Spratley lost a tight 3-2 decision to Wyoming's Jore Volk late in the third period, while Williams was unable to finish due to injury and Plott dropped his match to the top-ranked 184-pounder in the nation in Northern Iowa's Parker Keckeisen.

After their performance this weekend, the Cowboys clinched 10 automatic berths to the 2024 NCAA Wrestling Championships, scheduled for March 21-23 at T-Mobile Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Oklahoma State wrestling great Daton Fix wrapped up a historic career Saturday night at the 2024 NCAA Wrestling Championships, finishing runner-up in the 133-pound bracket to record his fourth career finish as an NCAA finalist. Dustin Plott also claimed runner-up at 184 pounds to mark the best finish of his career to date.

Only three other Cowboy wrestlers in history have been four-time NCAA finalists, as Fix joins Richard Hutton (1947-50), Pat Smith (1990-92, 1994) and Mark Branch (1994-97) on the short list.

"He's one of our all-time bests," coach John Smith said. "Not only was he highly competitive in college, but he's a World Championship silver medalist at the senior level. He's done a lot of things that will motivate others. He's meant a lot to us."

Despite dropping a closely contested finals match to defending national champion Vito Arujau of Cornell, 5-3, Fix's runner-up finish adds another line to an already outstanding résumé as he ends his Cowboy career with an overall record of 123-7.

His wins total ranks as the 10th-best in school history and he is one of just six wrestlers in Cowboy history to claim more than 120 wins with less than 10 losses, joining John Smith (1984-88), Pat Smith (1990-94), Alan Fried (1991-94), Jordan Oliver (2009-13) and Alex Dieringer (2012-16).

Fix's career winning percentage of .946 is also among the top 15 to ever wear the orange singlet.

He is the first and only five-time All-American in school history (only 14 others have earned four), the first and only five-time Big 12 champion in history (only 11 others have won four), and the first and only five-time conference champion in school history (only nine others have won four).

Included in his wins total are 22 pins, 27 major decisions and 26 technical falls, giving him bonus point wins in 58% of his career matches. His 26 technical falls rank fourth in the history of Cowboy wrestling and his 75 total bonus-point wins are in the top 10.

"I love Oklahoma State," Fix said. "I've said it a million times, but I wouldn't want to be anywhere else. It's been a dream come true to put on the orange singlet. I'm just very thankful for everything that they've done for me and I hope I've made them proud."

In addition to his impressive list of college honors, Fix won a silver medal at the 2021 World Championships to claim the best finish for an OSU wrestler at the World Championships in nearly 30 years.

Fix also entered his career as a Cowboy fresh off winning a gold medal at the 2017 Junior World Championships and earning the 2017 Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award.

Plott's match pitted him against UNI's Parker Keckeisen, who entered the match ranked No. 1 in the nation with a perfect 30-0 record. The match remained within one score after two periods, but the top-seeded Keckeisen pulled away in the final period for a 14-5 win.

The result moved Plott's final season record to 31-4 and closed his third consecutive All-America finish at the NCAA Championships. He has one year of eligibility remaining and can try to become OSU's 16th four-time All-American in 2025.

As a team, the Cowboys finished 10th with 56 points to wrap up the 2023-24 wrestling season.

History

COWBOY WRESTLING TRADITION

Oklahoma State is the gold standard in the college wrestling world.

On the national level, the Cowboys have won 34 NCAA team titles, crowned 143 NCAA individual champions and earned 486 All-America honors.

No other program comes close to those astounding numbers.

It's a similar story on the conference level, with OSU winning 55 league titles as a team and Cowboy wrestlers combining to win 296 individual conference championships.

Furthermore, every four years, Oklahoma State is consistently represented on the Olympic stage. Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning 11 gold medals.

From an individual perspective, any list of the greatest wrestlers in NCAA history must include Oklahoma State's Yojiro Uetake, who was a perfect 57-0 with three NCAA titles, and Pat Smith, the first four-time NCAA champion in history.

Pat's older brother, John Smith, was a two-time NCAA champion for the Cowboys and went on to win a staggering six world-level gold medals from 1987-92, while his OSU teammate, Kenny Monday, won gold in 1988 and 1989 as part of his four world medals.

All told, 39 members of the Cowboy wrestling family have been inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, the most in the country, in addition to 14 Cowboy wrestlers combining to earn Outstanding Wrestler distinction at the NCAA Championships a total of 15 times.

The elite level of coaching and instruction that takes place in the Cowboy wrestling room can be credited for the program's perennial success dating back to its inaugural seasons.

Ed Gallagher is credited as the Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling. He launched Oklahoma State into a dominant position in the sport when he led the Cowboys to 11 NCAA titles from 1928-1940. His impact on the sport is still felt today.

Art Griffith and his eight NCAA titles succeeded Gallagher. Myron Roderick then guided the Cowboys to seven crowns, which was followed by three combined NCAA titles from Tommy Chesbro and Joe Seay. Most recently, John Smith led the OSU program for the 33 years, a tenure that included five NCAA championships, before David Taylor was hired as the eighth head coach in program history.

Dating back to the inception of the NCAA Wrestling Championships in 1928, every Oklahoma State head coach has led the Cowboys to at least one NCAA title. Gallagher, Griffith, Roderick, Seay and Smith, along with eight other former Cowboy wrestlers, have all served as coaches for Team USA at either the Olympics or World Championships.

In 1917, Gallagher delivered the first dual win in OSU wrestling history and in 2011, Smith led the Cowboys to their 1,000th dual match triumph. In between those landmark wins, OSU won more than 89 percent of its duals all-time to further its stranglehold as the gold standard in college wrestling.

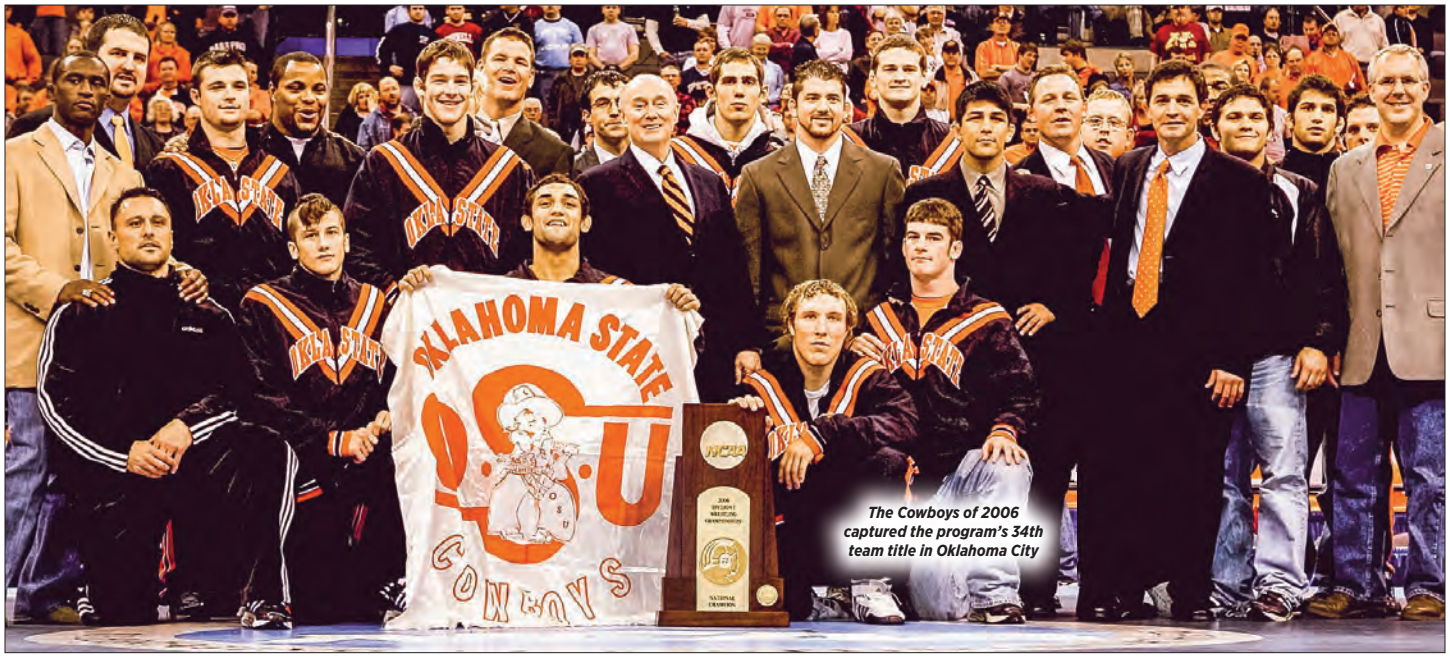
NCAA TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS



The Cowboys of 2006 captured the program's 34th team title in Oklahoma City

Oklahoma State has finished first as a team 34 times at the NCAA Championships, including a tie in 1933. The NCAA did not keep team points in 1928 and 1931-33; therefore, the team championships are considered "unofficial" by the governing body during those years. The Cowboys have finished second 13 times and third 15 times, and at least one individual champion has been from Oklahoma State in 71 of the 93 tournaments. The NWCA selected first and second team All-Americans in place of the 2020 NCAA Championships that were canceled*

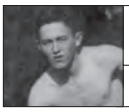
NCAA OUTSTANDING WRESTLERS

ALAN KELLEY

1933 // 145 pounds

Alan Kelley capped a perfect 10-0 1933 season by storming to wins over Franklin & Marshall's Cassell in the first round of the NCAA Championships and Lehigh's B. Bishop in the second round. In the championship match, Kelley pinned Southwestern Oklahoma's F. Stout at the 12:12 mark to claim the 1933 NCAA Championship and earn Outstanding Wrestler honors. The next season, Kelley went 10-0 yet again and won his scond NCAA Championship.



ROSS FLOOD

1935 // 126 pounds

Ross Flood compiled a 31-1 overall record in three years at Oklahoma State, capped by a perfect 11-0 mark in 1935 that included a fall over Southwestern Oklahoma's Gott in the NCAA Championship match. His pin in the finals was one of three in the tournament despite competing in just four matches. Flood won the final 27 matches of his career, with 17 of those victories coming by fall, and later went on to win the silver medal at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

STANLEY HENSON

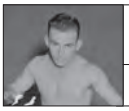
1937 // 145 pounds

Stanley Henson was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1937 NCAA Championships. He pinned his first opponent, Doolittle of Lafayette, at the 3:17 mark and came back to pick up another win by fall in the second round against Iowa State's Linn at 6:45. A semifinal win over Chicago University's Finwall preceded Henson's NCAA Championship-winning match over Illinois' McIlvoy. Henson compiled a 31-1 record during his three years at Oklahoma State, including wins in each of his final 29 bouts.

JOE MCDANIEL

1938 // 118 pounds

Joe McDaniel capped a perfect 1938 season by earning Outstanding Wrestler accolades at the NCAA Championships. McDaniel won each of his three matches at NCAAs that year, pinning Penn State's King at the 2:50 mark in his first match before winning by decision over Minnesota's Hanson in the semifinal and Indiana's Duffy in the championship match. McDaniel started his OSU career by losing two of his first three bouts but never lost again after that, rattling off 27 consecutive wins to finish out his career.



AL WHITEHURST

1941 // 136 pounds

Al Whitehurst was tabbed as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1941 NCAA Championships after picking up four wins, two of which came by fall. He claimed a 6-2 win over Michigan State's Maxwell in the championship match to cap a 1941 season in which he put together a perfect 10-0 record. Whitehurst finished his two-year OSU career with a 19-1 overall record, with his lone setback a 1-0 overtime defeat in his first season.

DAVID "BUDDY" ARNDT

1942 // 145 pounds

David "Buddy" Arndt never lost a match during his three-year career at Oklahoma State, stringing together a 23-0 career mark. A three-time NCAA champion, he was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler after storming through the 1942 NCAA Championships. Arndt picked up a healthy 13-3 win over Nebraska's Stout in his first match at NCAAs before replicating that score with a 13-3 wipeout of Rutgers' Paterno in his second match. Arndt pinned Cornell's Ellison at the 7:36 mark of the semifinal match before romping to an 18-5 win over Michigan's Johnson in the championship match.

CHARLES HETRICK

1949 // 128 pounds

Charles Hetrick earned Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1949 NCAA Championships, capping off his perfect 12-0 campaign in style. Following a 6-2 win over Virginia Military's Perry in the first round, he pinned Colorado's Karbatsch at the 5:40 mark in the second round before claiming a 4-2 win over Northern Iowa's Bush in the semifinal. The championship match resulted in a 4-1 Hetrick win over Cornell's Thomsen.

YOJIRO UETAKE

1965 and 1966 // 130 pounds

Just one year after winning the gold medal for his native Japan in the 1964 Tokyo Olympics, Yojiro Uetake took the mat for Oklahoma State and rolled to Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1965 NCAA Championships. Uetake won each of his five matches at NCAAs that year, highlighted by a 6-1 win over Lehigh's Peritore in the championship match. His closest match at the 1965 NCAAs was a 5-3 semifinal win over Michigan State's Behm. He then became the first and only Cowboy ever to be named NCAA Outstanding Wrestler twice when he secured that recognition again in 1966 after steamrolling to five lopsided victories. Uetake pinned Lehigh's Peritore at the 4:31 mark of the championship match to cap a dominating run through the bracket in which he won his bouts by scores of 12-4, 11-2, 18-3 and 11-2. Uetake finished his collegiate career with a 57-0 record before going on to claim his second Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics.

DWAYNE KELLER

1968 // 123 pounds

Dwayne Keller was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1968 NCAA Championships after picking up a series of hard-fought victories in each of his final three matches. Keller started his run with a 12-5 victory over UCLA's Vallance and a pin of Army's Patton. A pair of one-point wins over Indiana State's Parker and SUNY-Cortland's DeSario ensued, sending Keller to the championship match, where he claimed a 4-2 win over Portland State's Sanders. Keller won two NCAA championships as a Cowboy and reached the finals a third time as a senior, but suffered the only defeat of his 64-1 career.

DARRELL KELLER

1971 // 142 pounds

Darrell Keller claimed Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1971 NCAA Championships thanks to his second national title and first at 142 pounds. Keller stomped his first two opponents to the tune of a 6-0 win over Stanford's Thomas and an 8-0 win over Western Michigan's Bacon. His semifinal match against Navy's Keaser was a classic, with Keller claiming a dramatic overtime win to set up a 16-12 victory over Washington's Owings in the championship match.

MIKE SHEETS

1983 // 167 pounds

Mike Sheets went a perfect 29-0 in 1983 and was honored as the Outstading Wrestler of the NCAA Championships thanks to a dominant showing. Sheets started his run with a commanding 29-2 win over St. Lawrence's Todd Northrup in the first round before crushing Portland State's Kevin Benson, 14-0. He then shut out Illinois State's Mike Jones, 6-0, in the quarterfinal before handing Nebraska's Ray Oliver a 5-1 defeat in the semifinals. A convincing 14-0 win over Navy's John Reich put a cap on Sheets' impressive performance.

JOHN SMITH

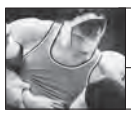
Just one year after winning his first U.S. Freestyle National Championship and a gold medal at the Goodwill Games in Moscow, John Smith was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1987 NCAA Championships. Smith crushed the opposition at NCAAs that year, pinning Drexel's Tim Rothka in his first-round bout before rolling to a 23-8 technical fall win over Michigan State's Dan Matauch in the second. Smith made it back-to-back technical falls when he handed Lehigh's Jim Frick a 22-7 beating in the third round. A 20-9 semifinal win over Ohio's Rob Johnson then set up a rematch with Nebraska's Gil Sanchez for the national title. Sanchez previously handed Smith his only loss of the year in Smith's first match of the regular season, but Smith avenged that loss with an 18-4 pounding of Sanchez for the crown.



CHRIS BARNES

Chris Barnes secured NCAA Outstanding Wrestler honors in 1990 after storming through the competition. Barnes pinned Duke's Keith Girvan at the 6:31 mark in the first round before picking up technical fall wins over North Carolina's Ben Oberly and Rider's John Hangey in his next two matches. William & Mary's Rob Larmore suffered a 14-8 defeat at the hands of Barnes in the semifinals before Barnes claimed the NCAA crown with a 10-2 major decision victory over Minnesota's Marty Morgan in the championship match.

PAT SMITH

1994 // 158 pounds

The first four-time NCAA champion in history and only Cowboy to ever do so, Pat Smith concluded his storied career with Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1994 NCAA Championships. Smith won by technical fall in each of his first two matches, claiming a 23-8 win over Kent State's Jim Andrassy in the first round before disposing of Nebraska's Jason Kraft, 26-10. Smith beat Oregon State's Dan Alar, 14-3, for a spot in the semifinals, where he beat Boston University's Earl Walker, 6-2. Smith was then crowned with his historic fourth NCAA title when he beat Michigan's Sean Bormet, 5-3, in the championship match, cementing his status as one of the best collegiate wrestlers of all time.

516-46-6 ALL-TIME RECORD AT GIA

BY THE NUMBERS

25 NCAA team championships won since Gallagher-Iba Arena opened in 1939

91 Percent of duals won at Gallagher-Iba Arena since the building's opening

67 Longest home unbeaten streak in OSU history, including wins in the first 37 duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena

44 Undefeated and untied seasons at Gallagher-Iba Arena since its opening

No venue in America has a richer wrestling tradition than Gallagher-Iba Arena, home of the Oklahoma State wrestling program since 1939. In its beginning as Gallagher Hall, the gymnasium was named for Ed Gallagher, the Oklahoma A&M wrestling mentor who never wrestled competitively but ultimately became the sport's most influential coach of all time. The 1987-88 season brought a new look and name to the hallowed hall. When renovations were completed in January 1988, it was renamed Gallagher-Iba Arena to honor the late Mr. Henry P. Iba, Oklahoma State's legendary basketball coach. Alongisde 53 NCAA championship banners, Gallagher and Iba's names have looked over Oklahoma State's historic venue for nearly 40 years.

Gallagher-Iba Arena took on a new look once again in 2001 as the building underwent a $56 million renovation that increased the seating capacity to its current total of 13,611. On January 4, 2001, the top-ranked Cowboys hosted Oregon in the program's first dual competition inside the renovated arena. Oklahoma State dominated the Ducks, 33-3, and proceeded to win 28 of its next 29 duals in front of the expanded crowd. The 2001 season was capped off by a convincing victory over in-state rival Oklahoma, in which 10,802 fans piled into Gallagher-Iba Arena to quickly set a new wrestling attendance record.

The OSU faithful has continued to reach record-setting heights in recent years. In one of the most highly-anticipated duals this century, the Cowboys of 2017 battled second-ranked Penn State in front 14,059 fans, the biggest crowd in Gallagher-Iba Arena history, regardless of sport. A top-three showdown between OSU and Iowa in 2019 saw the second-biggest wrestling crowd ever at Gallagher-Iba Arena with 13,811 people in attendance. Just last season, the Cowboys set a new program record with a season attendance average of 5,871, while their 23,633 attendance total over the last two duals marked the largest number of a two-meet stretch in program history.

Since 1939, Oklahoma State has captured 25 NCAA team titles, completed 44 undefeated and untied campaigns at home and won over 90% of its duals inside Gallagher-Iba Arena. The building's opening coincided with the longest home unbeaten streak in program history, as the Pokes won their first 37 duals inside GIA as part of a 67-dual unbeaten streak at home. That stretch still stands as the program's longest home unbeaten streak, as OSU never suffered defeat from 1933 to February 1951.

Oklahoma State's next-longest unbeaten streak at home occurred from the 1959 finale to the middle of the 1967 season, going undefeated for 57 duals in a row. Not far behind, the Cowboys won 51 consecutive duals inside Gallagher-Iba arena from 1986-1993, good for the third-longest such streak in program history. More recently, John Smith guided the Cowboys to a 26-dual home winning streak from 2018-2022. Not long after the streak was snapped, Oklahoma State defeated South Dakota State, 29-6, on February 4, 2022, for the program's 500th victory inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

In another storied moment of the venue's history, Oklahoma State and Indiana took the mat on February 3, 1989, exactly 50 years after the two programs met for the first-ever dual inside Gallagher Hall. The Cowboys took the rematch, 28-6, similar to their 18-6 victory in the original meeting.

OSU enters the season having won 13 of its last 14 duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena, including seven over ranked opponents in 2024

AT THE OLYMPICS

Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have earned Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with 14 Cowboys combining for 16 medals in all. The program boasts 11 gold medals from nine different athletes, ranking Oklahoma State sixth in the world compared to the top countries. In all, a Cowboy wrestler has reached Olympic team membership in 17 of the last 24 cycles. The Cowboy Olympians are highlighted by three-time NCAA champion Yojiro Uetake, who took the gold medal twice for his home country of Japan, and John Smith, a back-to-back gold medalist for the United States.

AT THE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Along with its success on the Olympic level, Oklahoma State has proven to be a force at the World Championships with 11 wrestlers combining for 14 medals, including six golds. OSU wrestlers have earned World team membership 40 times, a total that's highlighted by six-time qualifier and two-time medalist Bobby Douglas, 1989 gold medalist and back-to-back finalist Kenny Monday and six-time world champion John Smith, who won four straight gold medals at the World Championships from 1987-1991. First year head coach David Taylor added a bronze medal just weeks ahead of the 2025 season, the sixth medal of his career.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

Since the inaugural class in 1976, the Oklahoma State wrestling program has seen 39 members go on to be inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, by far the most in the country. Within that total, 37 spent time as either an athlete or coach for OSU.

ED GALLAGHER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1916-40

He was a pioneer, not only of wrestling techniques but also of wrestling tradition. From Oklahoma State University, where his coaching achievements were unparalleled, Ed Gallagher's influence spread across the nation. Long after his death in 1940, the torch was carried onward by Gallagher's pupils, who became great coaches in their own right .

As a collegian, Gallagher excelled in football and track. He was clocked once in 9.8 seconds while winning the 100-yard dash in the Southwest Conference meet and had a 99-yard run in the Kansas State football game that same year.

He earned his degree in electrical engineering, but chose a career of coaching football and track and teaching physical education. He remained at his alma mater several years, then went to Baker University in Kansas. In 1916, he returned to Oklahoma State as director of athletics.

Gallagher introduced scientific wrestling to gym glasses and put his first varsity team on the mat that year. He applied his engineering knowledge of leverage and stress to the development of more than 400 wrestling holds. He was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams. His wrestlers won 136 dual meets, tied four and lost only five. During the 10 years prior to 1932 his teams scored 69 consecutive victories.

When the NCAA tournament was inaugurated in 1928, halfway through his coaching career, Gallagher's wrestlers won four of the seven individual titles, earning recognition as the first championship team. Competing in 13 national meets, Gallagher's teams reigned supreme 10 times and shared an 11th title. Along the way, they won 37 individual NCAA titles, 32 National AAU crowns, and three Olympic gold medals.

As one of the great coaches in the history of the sport, Edward Clark Gallagher is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ART GRIFFITH

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1941-56

He always felt a coach should lead his wrestlers to championships, and Art Griffith lived up to that ideal. In 30 years of coaching, he took his teams to 77 tournaments and never left the scene without at least one gold medal.

Griffith's coaching career spanned two great dynasties, first for 15 years at Central High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and then for 13 seasons at Oklahoma State University. His records were fabulous.

His high school teams won 94 of 100 matches, 50 of them in a row, and 10 Oklahoma scholastic championships. A dozen times, his Braves were undefeated, and they won the only two national high school tournaments conducted.

Succeeding Edward C. Gallagher, he took the reins at Oklahoma State in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships in 13 attempts. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

Another lasting contribution was Griffith's development of the point scoring system for wrestling bouts, which in early days were determined only by falls or time advantage. Griffith served in many roles throughout his career, but the effect of his coaching greatness was most evident in 1941. Of the 16 National Collegiate finalists that year, all but two had been coached by Griffith either in high school or college.

For his legendary exploits as a wrestling coach, Art Griffith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

MYRON RODERICK

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1954-56/Head Coach, 1957-69

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 28 of 30 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. And there was no interlude between his two careers. From national champion in 1956 to the new torch-bearer of the great Oklahoma State coaching tradition in 1957 was an abrupt but highly successful transition.

In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 82 consecutive duals without a loss.

His wrestlers won 20 individual NCAA titles and four gold medals in the Olympic Games. He also coached his teams to two National AAU championships, was the United States coach in the 1963 World Games and was assistant coach in the 1964 Olympics.

Roderick departed from tradition in one respect. He carried his personal intensity into a search for quality wrestlers and, more than any other man, introduced recruiting on a major scale into the sport of wrestling.

As the first executive director of the U. S. Wrestling Federation, he established the foundation of USA Wrestling, the sport's national governing body. He saw the need for a National Wrestling Hall of Fame and worked not only to bring the dream to life, but also to ensure its future.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and coach, and his lifelong leadership in the sport, Myron Willis Roderick is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

CLIFF KEEN

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1922-24

He started his coaching career in football. Cliff Keen's 1925 high school team at Frederick, Oklahoma, scored 355 points and yielded but three. Then he decided to see what he could do with wrestlers.

After 45 years at the University of Michigan, the longest coaching career in wrestling history, the answer was clear. He could develop champions.

Cliff Keen was an undefeated wrestler under Edward C. Gallagher at Oklahoma State University and won the Missouri Valley national invitational championship. In 1924, he won the Olympic trials but was sidelined by a broken rib. His substitute ultimately lost in the Olympic finals at Paris. He also was a football and track star.

His Michigan teams twice were NCAA runners-up and they won 13 Big Ten Conference championships, placing in the top three in the conference 40 times. They won 276 dual meets against 88 losses and 11 ties. His wrestlers captured 11 National Collegiate titles and 81 conference crowns.

But Cliff Keen's impact on the world of wrestling had no state or national boundaries. He served on the U.S. Olympic Committee from 1928 to 1952 and was manager of the 1948 Olympic team in London.

He was an original member and later president of the National Wrestling Coaches Association and also presided over the national rules committee. For many years he pioneered the development of safe, effective, wrestling equipment such as the headgear which bears his name. There is no role of service to wrestling which has not borne the stamp of Cliff Keen.

He obtained a law degree from Michigan in 1933 and served three years as a Navy commander during World War II.

In recognition of his great coaching career and contributions to wrestling spanning more than 60 years, Clifford Patrick Keen is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

FENDLEY COLLINS

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1925-27

One of the quiet gentlemen of a fiercely competitive sport, Fendley Collins enjoyed an outstanding 33-year career as coach at Michigan State University. But his contributions to wrestling spanned more than half a century.

As an undefeated 175-pound wrestler under Edward C. Gallagher at Oklahoma State, he won the Canadian amateur championship in 1926 and the U.S. National AAU title in 1927.

After two brief years of high school coaching, he assumed the reins at Michigan State in 1930 and guided the Spartans to 158 victories, against 84 losses and 11 ties. Three times his teams were runners-up in the NCAA tournament, and his wrestlers won 28 national titles in collegiate and amateur meets.

Collins was active in all phases of wrestling. He served on national rules and officials' committees and on the United States Olympic Committee. He was coach of the U.S. team in the 1955 Pan American Games and manager of the 1964 Olympic team.

Some of his most noteworthy activities concerned international competition and education of America to the differences in style and procedures. He founded the Pan American Wrestling Confederation, served as its first president, and later was named honorary president for life.

He was the first true interpreter and instructor to the United States on the complicated international bracketing system and was the original author of the basic guide to pairings still in use throughout the country.

After retirement from coaching in 1962, Collins served another 10 years at Michigan State as coordinator of special events and as instructor in physical education. He retired in 1972, four years before his death.

For his outstanding contributions to wrestling as a coach, educator and leader of young men, Fendley Alexander Collins is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JACK VANBEBBER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1929-31

He vanquished the nation's finest wrestlers seven times, but when Jack VanBebber set out to conquer the world, he had to hitch-hike. At the 1932 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, while awaiting his final bout for the gold medal, VanBebber suddenly learned that the time schedule had been altered and he was due on the mat within the hour, six miles away. No transportation was provided, or available, so he set out afoot. After two miles, a passing motorist gave him a ride to the arena.

Once at the scene, however, his opponent proved no more effective than his earlier victims. And "Blackjack" VanBebber became champion of the world with a decision over Eino Leino of Finland, a four-time Olympian who already owned gold, silver and bronze medals.

VanBebber was undefeated as a collegiate wrestler for Oklahoma State University in 1929, '30 and '31, winning three NCAA championships at 155 and 165 pounds. He captured National AAU titles his junior and senior years, then moved to Los Angeles in 1932 and won another.

The only defeat of his wrestling career came in an early round of the Olympic trials, but he rallied to win the trials and successfully defended his 158.5-pound assignment during final challenge bouts in Los Angeles. For more than 50 years he was the only American-born wrestler to win three NCAA titles and an Olympic gold medal.

VanBebber served four years in the infantry during World War II, three of them in the Pacific theater. He then joined the Phillips Petroleum Company for 39 years until his retirement, and taught wrestling to sons of company employees and to Boy Scouts.

In 1950, a national poll of U. S. coaches, officials and sports editors selected him as one of the country's top 10 amateur athletes in the first half of the 20th Century.

In recognition of his outstanding achievements as a competitor, Jack Francis VanBebber is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

REX PEERY

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1933-35

He fathered the greatest legend in the history of wrestling. So monumental were Rex Peery's personal achievements, and those of his family, that they tend to overshadow his outstanding coaching career and his many contributions to the development of the sport.

Peery was a three-time National Collegiate champion at Oklahoma State University under coach Edward C. Gallagher. For the next 29 years, he established a great coaching career, 13 years in Oklahoma high schools and 16 years at the University of Pittsburgh.

Two unforgettable milestones mark his Pittsburgh coaching tenure. In 1952, '53 and '54, he coached his elder son, Hugh, to NCAA championships. In 1955, '56 and '57, he coached his younger son, Ed, to those same honors. Can any family, in any sport, equal those achievements of nine national championships in nine attempts?

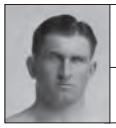
As a wrestler, Rex Peery was undefeated in dual meets. He added the 1935 National AAU championship to his collegiate laurels.

As a coach, he produced 233 victories, 58 losses and six ties. His Pittsburgh teams twice were NCAA runners-up and he developed 13 individual collegiate champions and 23 Eastern champions. He continued to serve in the athletic department of the University of Pittsburgh as an assistant professor until his retirement.

He was coach of the United States freestyle team in the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, was a member of the Olympic Wrestling Committee for 12 years, and held many other positions of service in the sport.

Peery was one of the founders of USA Wrestling programs in Pennsylvania and served on its national governing council, as well as the board of governors of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

In recognition of his contributions to wrestling as an athlete, coach and administrator, Rex Anderson Peery is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



EARL MCCREADY

Class of 1977
Wrestler, 1928-30

His nickname was "Moose" -maybe because of his home town in Saskatchewan, Canada, but more likely because of Earl McCready's stature as the first great heavyweight wrestler of the collegiate events.

International recruiting was unheard-of in the mid-1920s, but in 1926 Fendley Collins and two teammates from Oklahoma State drove to Vancouver and won the Canadian national freestyle tournament. They liked the looks of the strapping 220-pound youngster named McCready and talked him into following them back to their campus.

Under the guidance of Coach Edward C. Gallagher, he won every match for three years, all but five of them by falls. He was the anchor man, the cleanup hitter, for three undefeated championship teams. "We never worried if the match was close," one of his teammates recalls. "We knew Moose would get them, and he always did."

McCready wrestled in the first three NCAA tournaments in 1928-29-30, and won the championship each year, thus becoming the first three-time champion in collegiate history. It was 20 years before another heavyweight could match that. In the 1928 finals, he won by a fall in 19 seconds, still a record for an NCAA meet held under collegiate rules.

He also won four national freestyle championships, one in the United States and three in Canada, and represented Canada in the 1928 Olympic Games, carrying his country's banner in the opening ceremonies. He won a gold medal in the 1930 British Empire Games.

As a collegiate athlete, McCready was a three-year football letterman at guard, winning all-star honors in 1929.

He wrestled professionally for 28 years, including a match in the famed Royal Albert Hall in London. He was the first wrestler to demonstrate the sport on British television.

As a wrestler of great achievement, one who set the pattern for those who followed, Earl Gray McCready is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JESS HOKE

Class of 1977

He was neither a wrestler nor a coach, but Jess Hoke stands among the giants of the sport as its first true communicator. As founder and editor of Amateur Wrestling News, now in its sixth decade, he had monumental impact on wrestling's tremendous growth, coast to coast.

His interest in wrestling was stimulated during his days as a student sports writer in the early stages of Edward C. Gallagher's coaching career at Oklahoma State. He had a personal interest, too, in Coach Gallagher, who had been his Scoutmaster and track coach. The account of the first major Cowboy victory, over Nebraska in 1920, carried Hoke's byline.

In the 1950s, when four of his seven sons journeyed to Michigan State to wrestle for Fendley Collins, he discovered that college students then, as now, were inconsistent about writing letters home. From his interest in Michigan State results came the full-scale idea of a publication to carry wrestling results across the nation. At that time, wrestling was a regional sport; nobody knew what was happening a few miles away.

Thus was born Wrestling News and Reports, soon to become Amateur Wrestling News, annually publishing thousands of dual meet summaries and complete reports on activities from high school tournaments to the Olympic Games. For a time, Amateur Wrestling News was joined by a second Hoke publication, The Young Wrestler, a youth-oriented magazine.

With Amateur Wrestling News as his forum, Jess inaugurated many projects to stimulate interest throughout the sport, such as national rankings of college teams, tournament forecasts and achievement awards to coaches, wrestlers, writers, photographers and other contributors. He also persuaded the Helms Foundation to launch wrestling's first hall of fame. In 1962, he was the first recipient of the sport's Man of the Year trophy.

His role in establishing wrestling as a nationally known sport is without parallel. In recognition of his outstanding contribution to the sport, Jess Walter Hoke is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

ROSS FLOOD

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1933-35

One of his ancestors, Daniel Boone, was a fair-to-middlin' sharpshooter, and when Ross Flood went hunting for wrestling championships his aim was just as good.

At Blackwell, Ross and his brother John became the first twins to win Oklahoma high school championships. Then Ross pursued his wrestling career at Oklahoma State University under Coach Edward C. Gallagher.

Undefeated in 30 matches at 126 pounds, he won three National Collegiate championships in 1933, '34 and '35, each time leading the Cowboys to NCAA team honors. As a senior he was voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament.

His achievements continued to mount when he won National AAU championships in 1935 and '36 and another outstanding wrestler trophy. He then earned a place on the U. S. Olympic team and captured the silver medal at 123 pounds in the Berlin Games.

In the 1937 Pan American Exposition at Dallas, he won the gold medal at the expense of three other national champions, despite severe rib injuries which brought an end to his competitive career.

For six years he was a successful high school coach in Stillwater, then entered the Navy to spend five years as a physical instructor, including wartime service in the Pacific theater. He returned to coaching in 1946 to revive the wrestling program at Southwestern Oklahoma State, then purchased a livestock auction in Stillwater, which he operated for three decades.

Billy Sheridan, the famed Lehigh coach, often declared that Ross Flood provided the best example he had ever seen of wrestling skills and techniques.

In recognition of his tremendous achievements as a wrestling champion, Aaron Ross Flood is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

STANLEY HENSON

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1937-39

In the never-ending debate over who has been America's greatest wrestler, the name of Stanley Henson always receives plenty of support. His record as a competitor speaks for itself.

Henson's career was blessed by the leadership of two Hall of Fame coaches. At Tulsa Central High School, under Art Griffith, he wrestled two years, won two state championships and the outstanding wrestler award as a senior.

Then he joined the Oklahoma State University team of Edward C. Gallagher. Defeated only once in three seasons, Henson won three NCAA championships and each time led the Cowboys to the team title.

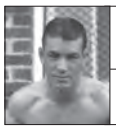
In 1937, he became the first sophomore to be voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament. He continued to excel the next two years, but the nation's coaches were not yet ready to present their cherished award to any man a second time. He also won the Pan American Exposition in 1937 and scored a 1938 double with the National AAU freestyle title. As his junior year drew to a close with two championships, Henson already was thinking more of medical school than of wrestling.

During a European tour in the fall of 1938, he suffered a severe shoulder injury which hampered him during his senior year but couldn't prevent a third NCAA title, this one at 155 pounds after two at 145.

After five years as a physical instructor and wrestling assistant at the Naval Academy, Henson was able to concentrate fully on the study of medicine, completing his degree in 1950 at the University of Maryland.

A highly respected surgeon, he was one of the first to combine his athletic and medical interests in the rapidly growing field of sports medicine, where he became a nationally known lecturer and consultant.

As a dominant figure in the sport of wrestling and a continuing example of the qualities of self-discipline, sportsmanship and integrity, Dr. Stanley Willard Henson Jr. is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



FRANK LEWIS

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1933-35

As a tall, skinny college freshman, Frank Lewis was "a little tired" after six years of wrestling and planned to give full attention to his studies at Oklahoma State University.

But he needed a physical education credit and a wrestling class would provide an easy grade. Members of the class were required to compete in the all-college intramurals and when he failed to win the championship his pride was stung. He decided to concentrate on wrestling again.

Frank Lewis concentrated so well that he became a national champion and the gold medalist in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin.

A state high school champ and four-time medalist from 100 to 155 pounds, he possessed the raw talent from which coach Edward C. Gallagher could mold a winner. But because of his rapid growth, the youngster didn't have the stamina to wrestle the longer college matches. And because of a minor heart condition, his coach had to devise a special training routine to build stamina without putting a strain on his health.

Despite these difficulties, he established a collegiate record of 22-6, winning the NCAA title in 1935 after placing second the year before. Both years he contributed vital points to the Cowboys' team trophies.

In 1935, he won the National AAU crown and became the first contestant to be officially recognized as outstanding wrestler of a National AAU tournament, receiving a gold watch for this honor. A year later, he swept undefeated through the series of Olympic trials, then defended his position against his alternate on the boat to Europe.

In the Games, he scored a fall the first day, another the second day. He wrestled three times the third day, but stamina no longer was a problem and two more falls offset a narrow loss to Tur Andersson of Sweden as Frank Lewis became the only American to win a championship.

As a wrestler of ultimate achievement and a lifelong example of perseverance and dedication to goals, Frank Wiatt Lewis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOE MCDANIEL

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1937-39

He was destined to be an Olympic champion, but the Games of the XII Olympiad were engulfed in the holocaust of World War II. So Joe McDaniel had to settle merely for recognition as the outstanding wrestler of the world.

Three times he was a National Collegiate winner for Oklahoma State University, each year leading the Cowboys of Coach Edward C. Gallagher to the team trophy. As a 118-pound junior, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the 1938 tournament, an honor won a year earlier by his roommate, Stanley Henson. Three times he reigned as National AAU champion, twice as a collegian when the Cowboys also won team honors, and again in 1941, two years after graduation.

McDaniel's only serious exposure to international competition came at the close of his junior year, in a 1938 European tour climaxed by a tournament at Stockholm, Sweden, among the leading wrestling nations of the world. He was undefeated in 12 bouts and scored an overwhelming victory over Odon Zombori of Hungary, winner of the Olympic gold two years earlier.

Despite a three-year hitch in the Air Corps and seven years as field representative for a major steel firm, McDaniel never has been far from the sport of wrestling.

After a year of high school coaching and another at Maryland, he returned from the war to coach 11 years at Syracuse University, leading the Orange to a fourth place national finish. In 1963, he moved to Wyoming, coaching two years in high school and eight at the University.

His career turned full circle in 1973, when he returned to his home town of Sulphur, Oklahoma, to serve as high school coach. In 30 years of coaching at all levels, his record was 257 victories against 105 defeats.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and his long years of service to the sport, Joe Clark McDaniel is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DOUG BLUBAUGH

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1955-57

In the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Doug Blubaugh battled the world champion from Iran for the Olympic gold medal. Emamali Habibi had never known defeat.

Three times the Persian attacked, each time throwing the young American into danger. Then a swift counterattack from Blubaugh hurled his opponent to his back ... suddenly the struggle was ended.

Thus did an Oklahoma farm boy reach the apex of a brilliant athletic career, earning the 1960 Olympic gold medal at 160.5 pounds, and with it recognition as the outstanding wrestler in the world.

Doug Blubaugh was no stranger to the role of champion. He won NCAA honors for Oklahoma State in 1957 and National AAU Freestyle titles in 1957, when he was named outstanding wrestler, and 1959.

A year before his Olympic conquest, he won a gold medal in the 1959 Pan American Games at Chicago, matching the 1955 achievement of his brother, Jack. They were the first brothers to capture Pan Am titles.

Blubaugh is remembered, too, for his epic struggles with a former college teammate, Phil Kinyon. Over four years of Freestyle competition, they met 13 times. The first 12 bouts ended in draws, 11 scoreless. Five of these were in the 1960 Olympic trials, before Blubaugh crashed through for the takedown and victory that sent him on to Olympic glory.

From a competitive career totaling more than 400 victories against just 17 defeats, Blubaugh turned to coaching and won added respect for his teaching skills and his honesty and dedication. After seven years as an assistant at Michigan State, during which he was Freestyle coach of U. S. teams in the 1971 Pan American Games and World Championships, he spent a decade as head coach at Indiana University.

As a champion athlete of awesome achievement, and as a living example to young men of the highest standards of character and integrity, Douglas Morlan Blubaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

YOJIRO UETAKE

Class of 1980
Wrestler, 1964-66

After winning the national high school championship of Japan, he came to the United States to complete his education. By the time Yojiro Uetake returned to his native land, he had given a whole generation of American wrestlers an education in winning technique.

He won all 57 of his collegiate matches for Oklahoma State University and three Big Eight Conference titles. Three times a NCAA champion, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the NCAA tournament as a junior and again as a senior.

After his sophomore year of competition in 1964, "Yo-Jo" returned home to Japan to win the Olympic gold medal in Tokyo. Four years later, in Mexico City, he repeated this achievement and became the first Japanese wrestler ever to win two championships in the Olympic Games.

He was the complete wrestler, blending speed, strength and unparalleled skills to dominate all areas of the sport-takedowns, control, escapes and falls. Seldom did any opponent score offensive points against him.

"I don't know how good he was," said his collegiate coach, Myron Roderick. "because I never saw him challenged."

Such was the range of his ability that every match became a small "clinic" in itself, attracting coaches and rival contestants from all parts of the arena to learn from his masterful techniques.

While preparing for his second Olympic crown, he spent two years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State, then returned home to become Japan's national freestyle coach. He guided his country's wrestlers into the 1972 Olympics at Munich and the 1976 Games at Montreal.

Upon his marriage, he took the surname of his wife's family, Obata. As an athlete of awesome skills and ultimate achievement, Yojiro Uetake Obata is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

CONRAD CALDWELL

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1929-31

He won the National Collegiate championship in only the fifth bout he ever wrestled. But that NCAA title was just the beginning of Conrad Caldwell's spectacular career.

He did not compete in wrestling at Commerce, Oklahoma, High School and indeed had never seen the sport until he enrolled at Oklahoma State, where Hall of Fame coach Edward C. Gallagher recruited him from a gym class and promised to turn him into a national champion.

His pre-tournament experience consisted of two matches as a substitute heavyweight. Then in three bouts as a 165-pounder in the 1929 NCAA meet, he fulfilled Coach Gallagher's prophecy. He repeated, at 175 pounds, in 1930 and '31 to become only the third wrestler to win three collegiate crowns.

Caldwell was a standout amid an awesome array of Aggie talent that included teammates Earl McCready, Jack VanBebber, Bobby Pearce and LeRoy McGuirk. One night in 1931, Caldwell applied the finishing touches to a dual meet victory over Kansas State that required only 19 minutes, 33 seconds of wrestling by the entire team.

In 1932, he moved to California and competed five years for the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The only defeat of his career came in the first round of the 1932 Olympic trials. He came back to win the trials at 191 pounds, only to see another wrestler chosen in his place for the Games.

Through 1936, Caldwell was unbeaten from 174 pounds through heavyweight-and on one occasion, all three weights at one time. In a 1933 dual meet with UCLA, he weighed in at 174 but found his teammates at 191 and heavyweight were absent. He pinned the UCLA 174 pounder, won a decision at 191 and after a 10-minute struggle pinned the heavyweight, an all-Coast football tackle.

In recognition of his achievements as one of wrestling's pioneer champions, Conrad C. Caldwell is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BOBBY PEARCE

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1930-32

He took up wrestling as a youngster to strengthen himself physically in a constant struggle with allergies. But despite his frail physique, Bobby Pearce won championships at all levels.

The coach at Cushing, Oklahoma, High School, Matt Berg, allowed him to join the squad despite some misgivings. Pearce rewarded him with three undefeated seasons and three state championships. As a high school senior, he reached the semifinals of the 1928 Olympic trials.

Then he joined the awesome array of talent at Oklahoma State, helping extend the winning streak of coach Edward C. Gallagher's Aggies to 70 consecutive matches. Over-all, during his collegiate days, he won 19 bouts, lost three and tied one.

A fast and aggressive wrestler, Pearce liked to go for the quick fall, and once flattened his opponent in just 11 seconds.

Pearce was National AAU champion in 1930 and '31, won the NCAA title in 1931 and was runner-up in 1932. Although he was upset in the collegiate finals as a senior, he responded with the ultimate triumph, winning the gold medal in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles, first ever for an Oklahoma wrestler.

Although only a 126-pounder, he competed professionally for five years and at the same time turned his hand to coaching. He guided Cushing to the state high school championship in 1933 and coached a YMCA team for two years before embarking on a professional career in refinery engineering.

He returned to coaching briefly 20 years later at Mesa College in Colorado, leading that team to two undefeated seasons and a conference championship.

As a champion of great achievement and success over physical difficulties, Robert Edward Pearce is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DAVID "BUDDY" ARNDT

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1941-46

Is it possible for a champion to walk away from the mat for three full years and return to compete at the same high level? Buddy Arndt did just that and became the only wrestler to win National Collegiate championships on both sides of World War II.

His only coach in wrestling, Hall of Famer Art Griffith, was a man who hated to lose. With that leadership in both high school and college, and his own exceptional ability, Arndt never met defeat. He won every match in three years at Tulsa Central High School and two state championships, missing one state meet because of illness. As a sophomore at Oklahoma State, he captured his first NCAA title at 145 pounds and won all six bouts in the National AAU tournament, only to settle for second place under the international scoring rules.

But as a junior, in 1942, Arndt was clearly the nation's best wrestler, sweeping National Collegiate and AAU honors and earning the outstanding wrestler trophy in both tournaments. Both seasons he competed a full class above his normal weight to make room in the Aggie lineup for another national champion.

But athletics then were overshadowed by the war and Arndt spent the next three years as a P-38 fighter pilot, flying more than 100 combat missions over Italy with the 15th Air Corps. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with four clusters and also collected six Bronze Battle Stars for action in major battles.

He returned to college after the war, this time competing at his natural weight of 136 pounds, won his third NCAA championship and, for the third time, led the Aggies to the team trophy.

As a man who excelled in the battles of sport, and in the far greater struggles of real life, David B. Arndt is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

SHELBY WILSON

Class of 1982
Wrestler, 1957-59

To become a champion, an athlete must set a goal. Shelby Wilson not only set a goal, but he pursued it through disappointments and distractions until he scaled the ultimate championship heights.

As a high school wrestler in Ponca City, Oklahoma, he won three conference championships and suffered only three defeats -all in the state meet, two of them in the finals. At Oklahoma State, after an injury cut short one season, he captured two Big Eight titles and twice charged to the national finals-only to suffer disheartening defeats both times.

Even his journey to the 1960 Olympics was difficult. After an upset loss in the trials, he started the final challenge in the middle of the freestyle ladder. First, he threw the Greco champion to assure a trip to Rome. He then captured the Freestyle ticket by fighting off the challengers below him, and turning the tables on the top-ranked wrestler.

And in the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Shelby Wilson earned the Olympic gold medal. The road was long, with many detours, but he had attained his goal.

"Without a goal, an athlete isn't really going to struggle to achieve," he said. "Whether or not he wins a victory, the struggle, the discipline, the battle with adversity give him the championship qualities he needs for success in life."

Shelby Wilson had a hobby of "repairing anything that's broken." Growing up on a farm, he learned the value of keeping the land and the equipment in condition. During 13 years of high school and college coaching, and then as the founder and director of the Stronghold Youth Foundation, he transferred those values to human needs. An ordained minister with a love of people, he worked on their behalf with the same dedication that he once devoted to pursuit of a wrestling goal.

As an athlete of ultimate achievement and as a humanitarian of exceptional stature, Shelby Autrie Wilson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

GUY LOOKABAUGH

Class of 1983
Wrestler, 1919-21

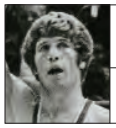
As the first superstar of Oklahoma State University athletics, Guy Lookabaugh helped establish a wrestling dynasty that spanned half a century. He earned headlines in football, but in wrestling was recognized as one of the greatest athletes of his time. Lookabaugh enrolled in 1917 and immediately became a football hero. He enlisted in the Army, but returned after the war to become known as the first "Super Aggie."

In 1920, coach Ed Gallagher's wrestlers made a bid for national recognition, facing a mighty Nebraska team undefeated for five years. With his team trailing, Lookabaugh took the mat at 158 pounds and battled his way through a 27-minute overtime match for a difficult decision. In the final bout, the Aggies had victory within reach, but had no one to send against Nebraska's unbeaten 175-pound star. Coach Gallagher again called upon Lookabaugh, who responded with a "regulation" 21-minute decision to give the Oklahomans their first major wrestling triumph.

Lookabaugh, nicknamed "Ducky," never lost a college match. His career preceded the NCAA tournaments, but in 1921 he won championships of three conferences-the Missouri Valley (Big Eight), Western (Big Ten) and Southwest. His flamboyant style was evident in his first big Freestyle tournament. Facing Eino Leino, a Finn who would win four Olympic medals, Lookabaugh threw him out of the ring and pinned him on the floor. The referee ruled it an illegal fall.

Lookabaugh turned to coaching in 1922-23, but returned to school to train for the 1924 Olympics. He reached the finals at Paris, only to lose an unpopular split decision. He coached three years at Kansas and helped Dr. R.G. Clapp formulate rules for the first NCAA tournament in 1928. He coached at Northeastern Oklahoma and Grinnell of Iowa until 1940.

In recognition of his monumental athletic achievements and his influence on the lives of young people for more than half a century, Guy Howard Lookabaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



GENE DAVIS

Class of 1985
Wrestler, 1965-67

National champion, Olympic medalist, international coach ... he has written his name into the most exalted records of wrestling. But perhaps no other in our sport has touched as many lives as Gene Davis has with his personal ministry.

In 17 years as wrestler and coach for the Athletes in Action, a division of the Campus Crusade for Christ, Gene and his colleagues have used the forum of athletics to carry their message to groups of sports fans across the nation. That the AIA wrestlers, always "on the road," won 188 of 224 dual meets and two national team championships is noteworthy, but incidental to their primary goal.

Davis was a four-time high school champion at Missoula, Montana, undefeated in 66 matches. At Oklahoma State, he was an NCAA titlist and three-time All-American at 62-5-1, also outstanding wrestler in the Big Eight. Upon graduation, he joined the AIA as wrestler and coach. He continued his spectacular athletic career for 11 years, winning four national freestyle titles and placing fourth and sixth in the World. A member of the 1972 Olympic team at Munich, he returned four years later as Olympic captain and earned a bronze medal at Montreal.

Davis' lifelong attitude of placing his team and his teammates before personal goals caused him to make a difficult and painful drop to 136.5 pounds for the 1976 Olympics. He had dominated the 149.5-pound class throughout the year, but felt he could strengthen the team by making way for another U. S. candidate. Despite victories over the reigning world champion and the world silver medalist, the strain of severe weight-cutting thwarted his bid for a gold medal.

In 1979, Davis coached the United States to a sweep of 10 gold medals in the Pan Am Games. Two years later he was World team coach.

As a wrestler of outstanding achievement and as an example of sportsmanship and leadership, Gene Davis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

GRADY PENINGER

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1947-50

Only once, in a span of more than 30 years, did the NCAA team title escape from the states of Oklahoma and Iowa. And it took a native Oklahoman, Grady Peninger, to carry the trophy off to Michigan State. His 1967 Spartans, featuring individual champs Dale Anderson and George Radman, provided just one of the highlights of his 40-year career.

He reached national prominence while still in high school in Tulsa, winning the state championship and the first of two National AAU crowns during his senior year of 1945. After a two-year hitch in the Navy, he enrolled at Oklahoma State, and was an NCAA finalist in '49.

He entered high school coaching at Ponca City, Oklahoma, and in eight years guided three state champion teams. His stars included Shelby Wilson and Doug Blubaugh, who went on to earn Olympic gold medals and win their way into the Hall of Fame.

In 1960, he was called by Michigan State to assist, soon to succeed, Fendley Collins at the helm. Peninger's teams dominated the Big Ten Conference, winning seven consecutive titles starting in 1966. He was voted national coach of the year after the '67 triumph. He was the first Big Ten coach to develop a three-time NCAA champion, Greg Johnson, and a four-time NCAA finalist, Pat Milkovich. Don Behm was an Olympic silver medalist, and Tom Milkovich, won four conference titles.

In all, he produced 43 conference and 11 national champions, 90 Big Ten medalists and 46 All-Americans. His Spartans won 213 of 330 dual meets and enjoyed 23 consecutive winning seasons.

Peninger was president of the National Wrestling Coaches Association. While serving on the NCAA rules committee, he pushed through an expanded consolation bracket in 1986, and the double elimination format in 1995, each creating more opportunity for the wrestlers.

His goal always has been to provide greater opportunity for wrestlers to succeed. In recognition of such leadership, Grady Peninger is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BOBBY DOUGLAS

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1965

The Making of a Champion is the title of his book, and it also is the pattern of Bobby Douglas' life. From a small town in eastern Ohio, and a small college in West Virginia, he rose to become a dominant athlete of the 1960s, earning national and international acclaim.

He won two state high school titles, and was All-State in football and baseball. He emerged on the national scene as 1962 NAIA champion for West Liberty State. A year later, he reached the NCAA finals, and his 13-8 duel with the defending champion from a larger school was a classic. Transferring to Oklahoma State, he won the Big Eight, but was knocked out of the 1965 nationals by injury, closing his collegiate career at 72-2.

It was in the international styles where Douglas earned worldwide renown, for his knowledge of the sport and his technical skills ... which he later would share with another generation as coach, author and clinician. He won three national Freestyle titles and represented the United States on two Olympic teams, placing fourth in 1964, and six World teams, winning a silver, a bronze and a fourth place. He was captain of the '68 Olympic team and his career record was 303 victories, 17 defeats.

He became head wrestling coach at Santa Barbara in 1973. A year later, he moved to Arizona State, which he led to the only NCAA team trophy won by a western school. Douglas also launched the Sunkist Kids club on a long series of national Freestyle championships. He moved on to Iowa State and maintained its great tradition. He was an assistant coach for 10 World and Olympic Teams, was World Cup coach in 1987 and Olympic coach in 1992.

He was the first black American to wrestle in the Olympics, the first to captain our Olympic team, and the first to coach wrestling at a major university. He showed, by example, that others could reach such goals.

As a wrestler of notable achievement, and as an outstanding teacher and leader, Bobby Eddie Douglas is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

RAY SWARTZ

Class of 1990
Wrestler, 1928-30

A big, hearty man--strong and talented in many sports--Ray Swartz focused on wrestling, and built two distinct careers of national and international coaching leadership. At Central Oklahoma, in the shadow of wrestling giants, he founded a national powerhouse of the mid-1930s. Swartz then took the helm at the U. S. Naval Academy, where he continued a proud wrestling tradition and helped launch programs overseas.

In his fourth season at Central, only his fifth year of coaching, Swartz led the Bronchos to second place in the 1936 NCAAs and crowned the school's first two champs, Ray Clemons and Ted Anderson. Clemons placed fifth in the 1936 Olympics. Swartz's 18-9-1 record included two victories over Oklahoma and a tie with Oklahoma State.

He became coach at Navy in 1939. The academy won four straight conference titles, '43 through '46, and posted a 125-35-4 mark over 21 years. His top star, Peter Blair, was an NCAA champion in 1954 and '55 and won a bronze medal in the 1956 Olympics. Swartz was chairman of the NCAA rules committee, and published many articles on wrestling and hand-to-hand combat. He was a pioneer of the international styles.

He was an expert teacher of coaches and officials, and a referee/judge in four Olympics, but the highlight of his career came in 1952 as U. S. Olympic Freestyle coach. His team earned a gold medal and two silvers, and one of his own Navy wrestlers, Joe Henson, a bronze.

In his home town of Stillwater, class of '24, Swartz was a two-time state wrestling champion and starred in four other sports. He needed two years as a rigger and roughneck in the Oklahoma oil fields to raise money for college a couple of miles from home. His wrestling career at Oklahoma State was limited by the presence of Earl McCready, the first three time NCAA champion. But Swartz was a football and track standout.

As a leader who broadened the horizons of wrestling in the United States and abroad, Raymond Hatcher Swartz is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DICK HUTTON

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1947-50

He was an imposing physical specimen striding across the Oklahoma prairie, and Dick Hutton reigned over the nation's collegiate heavyweights like few men before or since.

He was the cornerstone upon which coach Art Griffith rebuilt the Oklahoma State program when wrestling resumed after World War II. Hutton suffered only one loss and one draw in four years of varsity competition. That one defeat, a controversial referee's decision in the 1949 NCAA finals against light-heavyweight champion Verne Gagne, kept Hutton from becoming the sport's first four-time collegiate king.

He won titles in 1947, '48 and '50, and was a member of two national championship teams. His four appearances in the national finals-three of them successful--established a record that was unmatched for 28 years and unbroken until 44 years later. Hutton placed seventh in the 1948 Olympic Games after being slowed by an injury in his second bout.

After five years in the U. S. Army, he competed 10 years in professional wrestling, winning the heavyweight belt from Lou Thesz in 1957 and holding it for two years. Contrary to the usual professional image, he became known for his honest, gimmick-free wrestling.

In later years, Hutton owned and operated a thoroughbred and quarterhorse racing and breeding ranch in Texas.

In recognition of his dominance of collegiate wrestling throughout a fabulous career, Richard Heron Avis Hutton is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

TOMMY CHESBRO

Wrestler, 1959-60/Head Coach, 1970-84

When he returned to Oklahoma State University as only its fifth head wrestling coach, Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed by not one, but three Hall of Famers.

But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.

From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats, a 90 percent winning record. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

In 1992, while serving as the university's director of athletic facilities, Chesbro scored a memorable "post-career" coaching victory. Interim coaches Smith and Monday were away, training for the Olympic Games, so Chesbro led the Cowboys into a match against arch rival Oklahoma. Their 43-0 victory was largest margin in the 72-year history of wrestling's storied Bedlam Series.

Chesbro was a state high school champion wrestler and a starter on Oklahoma State's 1959 NCAA championship team. In eight years as a high school coach, he had a record of 51-23-8, bringing his victory total to 278. His teams won one state title and twice were runners-up.

For his success in carrying on the rich tradition of a great collegiate wrestling program, Tommy Edward Chesbro is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

MELVIN JONES

Class of 1996

As a contributor to wrestling, Mel Jones enhanced the sport with a unique gift ... he delivered its crown jewel, its national museum and Hall of Fame.

Dr. Jones never was a wrestler, much to his sorrow. Because of an accident when he was a youngster, he walked on crutches, braces and/or casts for more than eight years. He is a survivor of open heart surgery and wears a pacemaker. But physical handicaps never kept him from earning high academic honors, nor from an outstanding career as a college professor, scientist, author, diplomat, business executive and philanthropist. And, of course, wrestling fan.

He received his Ph.D. at the age of 24 and four years later became the youngest full professor in the history of Oklahoma State University. An agronomist, he served four years in the Point IV program to Cuba, developing that nation's agricultural program and earning a Citation of Merit from the Cuban government.

When Myron Roderick, the first executive director of USA Wrestling, took his dream of a Hall of Fame to Dr. Jones in 1972, Mel's answer was, "Let's do it." He organized a corporation, involved financial backers and guaranteed that the building would be delivered debt-free. Then he hit the road and raised $600,000 to make good on his promise.

Four years later, USA Wrestling had an empty museum with no funds for its development. Mel Jones reorganized the Board of Governors to bring the Hall of Fame to life. He gave of his own money, then went out and raised more. He was USA Wrestling Man of the Year in 1973 and the first winner of the Hall of Fame's Order of Merit in 1992.

He has been a generous donor of time, money and effort on behalf of three universities, the United Fund, and worthy youth programs.

For his leadership in building and developing a national shrine to all areas of The Oldest Sport, Dr. Melvin D. Jones is honored as a Distinguished Member of his National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOHN SMITH

Wrestler, 1984-88/Head Coach 1992-24

Over a six-year span, which started while he was still a student at Oklahoma State, John Smith was the best wrestler in the world. He now ranks alongside other Distinguished Members whose names emerge in any discussion of "the greatest American wrestler ever."

Although that distinction is arguable, Smith's career record is not. Partly because of opportunity, but primarily because of skill, it is beyond comparison. From 1986 through 1992, Smith won:

:: Two Olympic gold medals. He was the first American to do so in 80 years, and both of his golds came against the world's best.
:: Four World titles. No other American had won more than three.
:: Six consecutive world-class championships. No other American had won more than two in a row.
:: Two gold medals in the Pan American Games, in two attempts.
:: Two gold medals in the Goodwill Games, in two attempts.
:: Five national Freestyle championships, in five attempts.
:: Two NCAA crowns and 90 consecutive collegiate victories.
:: He became the first wrestler to be voted the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding athlete, the first American to be chosen Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA), and the first wrestler ever nominated for the World Trophy, which he received in 1992.

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 152-8-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 457 times for his school, club, or country and won 434 times, for a success rate of 95 percent.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

Smith retired from competition after the Olympics in Barcelona and two years later coached Oklahoma State to the NCAA team title.

One of the greatest athletes of the Twentieth Century, John William Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOE SEAY

Head Coach, 1985-91

After leading his teams at Cal State-Bakersfield and Oklahoma State to a total of nine NCAA championships, Joe Seay then coached the USA to milestone victories in the Goodwill Games, World Championships and Olympic Games.

A 1964 graduate of Kansas State, Seay wrestled there three years and later won three national Greco-Roman crowns while placing second twice in Freestyle.

But it was as a coach at all levels that he earned lasting renown.

Starting with eight years at Bakersfield South High in California, he compiled a record of 177-12-2 and was national high school Coach of the Year. Moving across town to Cal State, he coached a dozen years and won seven Division II national championships with a record of 189-56-2. At Oklahoma State, from 1985 to '91, he went 114-18-2 with back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90.

His folkstyle record adds up to 480 victories and an .859 winning percentage. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles in both divisions, and he was named national Coach of the Year five times.

When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1991, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

As a coach who has left an indelible mark on all levels of the sport, Joe Van Seay is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

KENNY MONDAY

Wrestler, 1981-84

No matter what the calendar said, when he stepped onto a mat it was always "MON-day night!" Poise, patience and mental toughness propelled Kenny Monday to Olympic gold in 1988, silver in 1992 and sixth in 1996. He made winning a habit and wrestling a pleasure to watch.

At Booker T. Washington, Kenny's coach characterized his passage from "scrawny to awesome," as Monday chalked up an almost unblemished record of 140-0-1. He amassed four state high school championships at four different weights, tucking in a 1977 Junior Nationals title along the way. In seven trips to the Junior Olympics, he won five times.

At Oklahoma State University, the 150-pounder became a teammate of the only wrestler to tie him in high school duals, a fierce competitor named Mike Sheets. At OSU, Kenny ran up a career record of 121-12-2. Twice a runner-up, Monday captured an NCAA title in 1984. He ranks second on OSU's all-time list for falls. In 1986, he won the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Classic and took both the Sunkist International Open and the World Cup the following year.

International victories came at the 1988 Tblisi Tournament, the 1989 World Championships, the 1991 Pan American Games and the President's Cup in Turkey, the 1992 Roger Coulon in France and the 1996 Dan Kolov Tournament in Bulgaria. At the grueling Tblisi in Soviet Georgia, he was honored with the prized animal-skin cloak as the Outstanding Wrestler. One American coach summed up the Tblisi as "probably five times as tough" as the Olympics. O.W. honors also went to Kenny in 1989 and 1990 at the Grand Masters Tournament.

Four times Kenny posted wins at the U.S. National Championships and also captured the 1989 U.S. Olympic Festival crown. His 1988 Olympic Games success brought Monday the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year award, as well as the Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year in 1989.

For his dual achievements as a stellar wrestler at every level and for his encouragement of youth wrestling, Kenny Monday is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

KENDALL CROSS

Class of 2002
Wrestler, 1987-90

It has been said on several occasions that Kendall Cross was destined to become an Olympic Champion. But to realize that prediction would take one of the most wide-open, exciting styles of competition ever seen in American wrestling -- the Kendall Cross style.

After completing his high school career in Mustang, Oklahoma, by winning a state championship, Kendall went on to Oklahoma State University where he became a three-time All-American and the 1989 NCAA champion. His first success at the international level came in 1988 when he became the Espoir World Cup Champion, setting the stage for his pursuit of the Olympic gold.

In 1992, he was the only freestyle wrestler on the American Olympic Team who was not ranked number one at his weight at the beginning of the year. He finished sixth at the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games.

The road to the Olympic gold would be no easier in 1996. His championship series with Terry Brands at the Olympic Trials in Spokane, Washington, treated American fans to one of the most spectacular displays of wrestling ever seen in this country. His victory at the trials sent him on to the Atlanta Olympic Games where his dominating effort provided one of the most inspiring gold medal performances in memory.

In 1997, he was named the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, while in 1992 and 1995 he was declared the Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler at the U. S. Nationals where he became a three time national champion.

Cross continues to be a role model for young wrestlers and an impressive representative of our sport. He has developed the Kendall Cross Gold Medal Wrestling Club in the Boston area, designed to aid in the development of young, aspiring wrestlers.
For his achievements as an athlete and for his continued representation of the sport of wrestling to the youth of America, Kendall Cross is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

J ROBINSON

Class of 2005
Wrestler, 1966-68

J Robinson's competitive spirit and "give it your all" attitude immerged during his days as a prep wrestler in California. A two-time SDIF Champion (1963 & 1964); he was named Most Outstanding Wrestler in 1964. His flair for international competition and being on the "cutting edge of the sport" began when be became a member of the inaugural California International Team. Competing in Japan, the pioneer team paved the way for young wrestlers of the future.

In the next years, Robinson made his mark in not just one style of wrestling, but three. He honed his collegiate style skills under the instruction of the legendary coach, Myron Roderick at Oklahoma State University. Shifting his focus to the International arena, he was a member of two World teams, finishing fourth in 1970 and fifth in 1971. He competed as a member of the 1972 Greco-Roman Olympic Team. During this time, he won four National titles; two in Freestyle and two in Greco-Roman.

With his three style background, he began his coaching career at the University of Iowa. As an assistant coach, Robinson helped propel the team to an amazing nine national championships in 12 years. In 1984, as interim coach, he led the Hawkeyes to another NCAA title and a Big Ten Championship. In 1986 he was named Head Coach of the University of Minnesota. With one goal in mind, they won back to back NCAA Championships (2001 & 2002). His teams also captured four Big Ten Championships and three NWCA National Duals titles. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2001, and was named Big Ten Coach of the Year five times.

While sharing his skills on the collegiate level, he also continued to share his expertise with athletes in freestyle competitions. He was selected as the head coach for the Pan American Games in 1983 and served as an assistant coach for the Olympics in 1976, 1980, 1984, and 1988.

In recognition of his dynamic contributions to the sport of wrestling, J Robinson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

PAT SMITH

Class of 2006
Wrestler, 1990-94

Pat Smith made wrestling history when he became the first wrestler to win four NCAA Division I national championships. Competing for Oklahoma State University, he captured titles in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994, all at 158 pounds, and spurred the Cowboys to team titles in 1990 and 1994.

The year he won his record fourth national crown, he was named the NCAA's Outstanding Wrestler. He also became only the third OSU wrestler to win four Big Eight Conference championships.

Smith ended his college wrestling career with a mark of 122-4-2 and set the school record for consecutive matches without a loss with 98 straight victories.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

Smith was named the 1994 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year and was one of just 15 athletes named to the NCAA 75th Anniversary Wrestling Team. He was inducted into the Oklahoma State Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

His successful freestyle wrestling career included a bronze medal in the 1997 World Cup, a second-place finish to three-time Olympian Kenny Monday at the 1996 Trials; gold medal performances at two U.S. Olympic Festivals; and six All-American finishes at the U.S. National Open Freestyle Championships. He also won USA Wrestling national titles on the Espoir and Junior levels.

As an Oklahoma State University assistant wrestling coach for 11 years, he personally coached six Cowboys to individual or multiple NCAA titles and helped OSU to win the Division I team title for four consecutive years from 2003-2006.

Smith won three state titles for Del City High School and was twice named Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament. He is a member of one of the nation's top wrestling families -- brothers Lee Roy, John and Mark were also state high school champions and earned All-America honors for OSU.

For inspiring others and accomplishing what no competitor before had ever done, Patrick M. Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

FRED FOZZARD

Class of 2012
Wrestler, 1966-68

The United States had been shut out of gold medals at the World Championships and the Olympic Games for eight consecutive years after the 1960 Olympics, but two Oregonians were about to make wrestling history in 1969. Fred Fozzard and fellow Distinguished Member Rick Sanders laid the groundwork for future generations of American wrestlers.

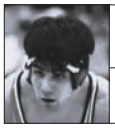
No American wrestler had ever won a World title when Sanders and Fozzard struck gold at the 1969 freestyle World Championships in Mar Del Plata, Argentina. Fozzard's path to the 180.5 pound gold medal, however, seemed unlikely. At age two he contracted polio which shrunk his right arm and left him with no grip and no working thumb. Fozzard developed a unique wrestling style to overcome this disability, which eventually led to numerous championship victories.

Fozzard followed his victory in 1969 with a solid fifth-place finish at the 1970 World Championships. Prior to his arrival on the international scene, Fozzard was an integral part of Oklahoma State's wrestling dynasty. As a sophomore, Fozzard placed second at the 1966 NCAA tournament at 177 lbs., helping the Cowboys to the team title. Fozzard returned as a junior and won the 1967 NCAA tournament as the top seed, which included two pins and a dominant 10-3 win in the finals.

As a senior, the Cowboy standout from Oregon entered the 1968 NCAA tournament undefeated and as the top seed, but he suffered a loss to the eventual champion in the semifinals. Showing his resiliency through adversity, Fozzard stormed back with two pins in the consolation round to place third. His bonus point wins ultimately gave Oklahoma State the team championship in 1968. Fozzard's final collegiate record was 55-4-3.

Fozzard continued his career as an assistant coach for his alma mater from 1968 through 1972. He was the head wrestling coach at Kansas State from 1973 through 1975 and an assistant coach at Portland State from 1975 to 1977. He was also heavily involved in the Southern Oregon program, a highly successful team that competes in the NAIA.

For his historic achievements that led the way for future American wrestlers, Fred Fozzard is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



ERIC GUERRERO

Class of 2014
Wrestler, 1996-99

In a college wrestling program known for producing champions, Eric Guerrero will be remembered as one of the best.

Hailing from San Jose, Calif., Guerrero won three state wrestling championships and compiled an impressive 226-4 high school record. He won a national high school championship, a Junior National championship in 1995, and a Cadet World championship in 1993. The California prep standout chose to take his talents to wrestling's most storied program, Oklahoma State University.

Guerrero was nothing short of spectacular during his four seasons with the Cowboys. As a true freshman, he placed fifth at the 1996 NCAA Wrestling Championships. The following season, as a 19-year-old sophomore, Guerrero won the 126-pound weight class, and he would repeat the victory in 1998. Despite moving up to 133 pounds in 1999, he became Oklahoma State's 14th three-time NCAA champion. Guerrero also won a Big 12 title in 1999 and was a two-time academic All-American. His career college record was 117-13.

After college, Guerrero continued to compete internationally in freestyle, where he showed no signs of slowing down. Shortly after his final college match, he represented the United States at the 1999 World Championships. Guerrero won four U.S. Open titles, made three more World teams (2001–2003), and won a World Cup title in 2003.

Then in 2004, Guerrero represented the United States at 132 pounds in freestyle wrestling during the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

After retiring from competition, Guerrero turned his focus to coaching at his alma mater, Oklahoma State. He served as strength and conditioning coach (2001-2004) and as assistant coach (2004-2012). In 2012, Guerrero was named the associate head wrestling coach. During his coaching career, he led nine wrestlers to 14 individual NCAA championships, and four-straight NCAA team championships (2003-2006).

In recognition of competitive and coaching success at one of college wrestling's leading programs, Eric Guerrero is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

BILL HARLOW

Class of 2016
Wrestler, 1964-66

Thought to be the best wrestler ever to come from Tennessee and one of the greatest big men to wrestle at Oklahoma State University, William B. Harlow was a state champion, a three-time NCAA finalist and a three-time national freestyle champion.

When he arrived at Oklahoma State, however, he felt as though he had a lot of catching up to do technically and spent his years in Stillwater as a "human sponge" absorbing everything he could learn. With Distinguished Members Yojiro Uetake, Bobby Douglas, Tadaaki Hatta and Gene Davis as teammates during his collegiate career, learning opportunities were scattered throughout the wrestling room. He quickly gained a reputation as a slick and smooth wrestler, using technique rarely seen in a man of his size.

Harlow finished second in his first trip to the NCAA finals as a sophomore in 1964. As a junior, he won the Big Eight Conference title, but again finished as runner-up in the national tournament. Finally, as a senior, he moved up to 191 pounds and compiled a 21-0-1 record and won both the Big Eight and NCAA championships. With Uetake and Davis, he led OSU to the national team title, the second of his tenure as a Cowboy. Overall, he finished his collegiate career with a record of 54-5-2.

Harlow began his wrestling career as an eighth grader, competing for the high school team at St. Andrews School in Sewanee, Tenn. Over five years, he lost only one match and, as a senior in 1962, won the national prep championship, the state championship and his fifth Mid-South championship, earning Outstanding Wrestler honors at all three tournaments.

After leaving Oklahoma State, he concentrated on freestyle, winning three national titles, including being named Outstanding Wrestler in 1974. He represented the USA at the 1970 World Championships in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and won a silver medal, falling in the 90 kg. finals to Soviet Gennady Strakhov.

As he continued to train and compete, he began a high school coaching career that would last for almost 50 years, beginning in Illinois. He returned to Oklahoma, coaching at Broken Arrow High School for 16 years while teaching and working as an administrator. He was principal and wrestling coach for three years at Kellyville, Okla., High School before serving eight years in Alaska as an administrator and wrestling coach. He returned to Oklahoma to teach and coach at Sapulpa High School until his retirement in 2013.

Harlow received the Lifetime Service to Wrestling award from the Oklahoma Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2005. In 2010, he was presented The Gallagher Award, given annually to an OSU wrestling alumnus who exemplifies the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions.

In recognition of his achievements as both a wrestler and a coach, William B. Harlow is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JIMMY JACKSON

Class of 2023
Wrestler, 1975-78

Jimmy Jackson was a three-time NCAA and Big Eight Conference champion for Oklahoma State University. He passed away in 2008 at the age of 51, suffering from diabetes and congestive heart failure. Jimmy and Lee Kemp, a Distinguished Member inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1990, became the first African-American wrestlers to win three NCAA championships, both in 1978.

Listed at 6-foot-6 and 350 pounds, Jimmy had a career record of 87-9-2 with 44 falls. He defeated Greg Gibson of Oregon, a Distinguished Member inducted in 2007, in the 1976 NCAA tournament finals, 5-3. Gibson went on the become the only American to win world medals in three styles of wrestling: Freestyle, Greco-Roman and Sambo.

He also defeated Jeff Blatnick, a Distinguished Member inducted in 1999, in the second round of the 1978 NCAA tournament, 11-4, and registered a pin in 1:12 in the finals. Blatnick won an Olympic gold medal in Greco-Roman in 1984. Also competing in the unlimited division at the 1978 tournament was fifth-place finisher

John Bowlsby, brother of Bob Bowlsby, the 2023 Outstanding American honoree.

Jimmy helped Oklahoma State go 61-5 in duals during his career and was inducted into the Oklahoma State University Athletics Hall of Honor in 2007. Jackson competed in the 1976 Olympics as a 19-year-old college sophomore, winning his opening match by technical fall over Harry Geris of Canada, also an Oklahoma State wrestler, before losing to gold medalist Soslan Andiyev of the Soviet Union and silver medalist József Balla of Hungary.

Jackson defeated Greg Wojciechowski to qualify for the 1976 team and was an alternate to Wojciechowski for the 1980 team that did not compete because of the United States boycott. Jackson was a three-time World Cup champion and won a gold medal at the Pan American Championships in 1987. He was the 1974 Michigan Class A state champion for Ottawa Hills High School in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

For his stellar collegiate and international wrestling careers, Jimmy Jackson is posthumously inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a 2023 Distinguished Member.

TADAAKI HATTA

Class of 2024
Wrestler, 1965-66

Tadaaki Hatta came to the United States from Tokyo, Japan in 1961 and became an NCAA champion, two-time All-American and two-time Big Eight champion for Oklahoma State University. He helped OSU win NCAA titles in 1964 and 1966 while finishing second in 1965.

Hatta has taught and coached wrestling at every level, from youth clubs to the Olympics.

He was on the U.S. men's freestyle coaching staff for the Olympics in 1988, 1992 and 1996 and the World Championships from 1979 to 1995. He coached the Japanese Olympic team in 1968 and 1984 and the Mexican Olympic team in 1972. Hatta was on the coaching staff for the U.S. Women's team for the 2004 Olympics, the first Olympics where women competed in wrestling, and returned to the 2008 Olympics as volunteer head coach of the U.S. Women's team.

He was also the head coach of the 1998 Men's Cadet World Team, the 1999 Women's Cadet World Team, the Women's Junior World Team in 2001 and 2002 and the 2002 Women's University Team. Hatta works with the New York Athletic Club women's team and also volunteers with Cleveland Beat the Streets.

He is also an assistant coach for the St. Ignatius High School rugby team, which won the high school national championship and the Ohio state championship in 2022.

Hatta is also a consultant for the St. Ignatius wrestling team and for Nike Wrestling.

He was an art teacher, wrestling coach and trainer from 1972-2011 at high schools in Ohio, including Oberlin High School, Ravenna High School, St. Edward High School, St. Ignatius High School and Walsh Jesuit High School.

He graduated from Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in fine art in 1966 and then earned a master's degree in art from Northwestern University.

Hatta received the Gallagher Award from Oklahoma State wrestling in 2019 and was recognized as a Distinguished Alumni by the Oklahoma State College of Arts & Sciences in 2022.

An honorary member of the Chickasaw Nation, he also restores statues at Cleveland churches pro bono and recently completed a portrait of his father to commemorate the 90th anniversary of wrestling at Waseda University, commissioned by wrestling alumni it will hang in the school's wrestling room.

COLEMAN SCOTT

Class of 2024
Wrestler, 2005-08

Coleman Scott won a bronze medal at the 2012 Olympics after being an NCAA champion, two-time finalist and four-time All-American for Oklahoma State University.

He helped OSU win NCAA team titles in 2005 and 2006 and to fifth-place finishes in 2007 and 2008.

Scott was a member of the U.S. National Freestyle Team in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015.

He was a three-time Pennsylvania state champion for Waynesburg Central High School.

Scott was a two-time USA Wrestling National Junior Freestyle champion and a two-time USA Junior World Freestyle team member.

He was the Pennsylvania, Northeast Region and National winner of the Hall of Fame's Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award in 2004.

Scott was an assistant wrestling coach at Oklahoma State from 2012 to 2014, where he coached four NCAA Division I national champions and six NCAA DI All-Americans while helping OSU capture two Big 12 Conference titles and finish second and third as a team at the NCAA championships.

He became an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina in 2014 and took over as head coach after one season. Scott coached two-time NCAA champion Austin O'Connor and NCAA finalist Kizhan Clarke and 13 All-Americans while leading the Tar Heels to five Top 20 finishes at the NCAA tournament.

He was a coach for the U.S. Women's Freestyle team at the World Championships in 2018 and 2019 and for the World Champion U.S. Men's Freestyle team in 2017.

Scott also coached a Canadian Senior World Team member and an Olympic Trials champion. He returned to Oklahoma State in 2023 as associate head coach.

GALLAGHER AWARD

Beginning in 1986, the Gallagher Award has been given out to 34 individuals who exemplified the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions. The award is the highest honor an OSU alumnus can earn from the Cowboy wrestling program for their dedication to the sport of wrestling after the end of their college career. The list of recipients includes some of the sport's and program's legends, such as Myron Roderick, John Smith, Kenny Monday, Pat Smith, Kendall Cross and Bobby Douglas.

Ray Stapp is the latest addition to the exclusive group that is accountable for 34 individual national championships, 71 All-American honors, 13 Olympic appearances, six gold medals and 14 members of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Originally from south Oklahoma City, Stapp attended U.S. Grant High School, where he began his wrestling career in ninth grade. Stapp's small stature prevented him from playing other sports like football, but that extra time on the mat paid off as he became U.S. Grant's first state champion in 1966. Although Stapp had always dreamed of attending OSU, he ended up at Trinidad State, a junior college in Colorado. Stapp then went undefeated as a freshman in 1967 and won the NJCA national championship at 115 pounds.

Following his national championship, Stapp transferred to Stillwater and wrestled for the Cowboys from 1969-71. He compiled an impressive 57-8 record, won three straight Big Eight titles and was a three-time All-American, including a runner-up finish in 1970. As a senior, Stapp finished fourth to help the Cowboys bring home their 27th NCAA team title.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1971, Stapp went into the workforce and worked a handful of jobs outside the sport. He quickly realized his heart wasn't in it, as he missed wrestling too much and wanted to give back to the sport that had provided him so many lifelong memories. It marked the beginning of Stapp's long and successful coaching career throughout the state of Oklahoma, which he credits to his old coach as a Cowboy.

Learning under Roderick, Stapp excelled as a coach for 30 years. After pit stops at Southeast High School and Putnam City West, Stapp landed at Western Heights, where he spent the rest of his coaching career. At Western Heights, Stapp started the junior high wrestling program and eventually continued to the high school level. Stapp's teams were consistently in the top-three of their class, racking up eight state champions and 38 place-winners. He was named the 3A Coach of the Year in 1979 before receiving the 1995 Governors Accomplishment Award and being named the all-state team coach in 1999.

While leading his program to unprecedented heights, Stapp also spent much of his time contributing to the community as a member of the Oklahoma and National Education Associations, Oklahoma Coaches Association, National Wrestling Coaches Association and National High School Athletic Coaches Association.

"What a career Ray Stapp had in the sport of wrestling as a student-athlete here at Oklahoma State and as a coach for 30 years," head coach John Smith said. "Coach Gallagher would be proud that Stapp is accepting the award. He exemplifies everything great about Coach Gallagher."

Ray Stapp was presented the 2024 Gallagher Award before the Cowboys' home dual against Oklahoma by Lee Roy Smith

WRESTLING LEGEND ED GALLAGHER

By Mark Palmer (July 31, 2008)

Re-printed with permission

Thirty-four NCAA team titles. 143 individual NCAA champs. Nearly 500 NCAA All-Americans.

By any measure, Oklahoma State has built a wrestling legacy unmatched by any other college wrestling program over many decades. And the man who laid the strong foundation for that legacy is Ed Gallagher, Cowboys wrestling coach from 1916 through 1940.

As head coach, Gallagher's Cowboys racked up a 136-5-4 overall record for an incredible .937 winning percentage. During his 23 seasons at the reins, Gallagher's teams had nineteen undefeated seasons, winning eleven NCAA team titles. Gallagher coached 22 wrestlers to earn 37 individual national championships; eleven of his Cowboys wrestled in Olympic competition, with three winning gold medals. Because of these accomplishments, Ed Gallagher's name adorns the arena at Oklahoma State... and he was named one of three "Best Wrestling Coaches" in an online poll of wrestling fans for the NCAA 75th Anniversary Team honors in 2005. (The other two coaches: Iowa State's Harold Nichols, and University of Iowa's Dan Gable.)

The Versatile Athlete Who Never Wrestled

Born September 5, 1887 in Perth, Kansas, Edward Clark Gallagher was a natural athlete, running track and playing football in high school. As a student at Oklahoma State -- then called Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College -- Gallagher set 100-yard dash and hurdle records that stood for thirty years. In 1908, he ran 99 yards for a touchdown against Kansas State.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1909 with an engineering degree, Ed Gallagher stayed in Stillwater as the school's track coach. In 1913, he was lured away to Baker College in Baldwin City, Kansas, where he coached all sports ... however, two years later, he was back at Oklahoma State, serving as athletic director.

During the 1914-1915 school year, Oklahoma State launched its wrestling program, with A.M. Colville as coach. That first season, the Cowboys wrestled only one dual meet – held in conjunction with a gymnastics event -- and were trounced by the University of Texas. The following year, Ed Gallagher took the helm of the wrestling program ... despite never having wrestled in an organized program in high school or college.

Ed Gallagher's lack of mat experience may seem stunning these days, considering today's top college wrestling coaches have resumes loaded with high school state and national wrestling titles, NCAA championships and even international mat honors. Yet, when Gallagher was in school, organized wrestling programs were rare, outside those at YMCAs and men's clubs, or at eastern colleges ... so opportunities to compete on the mat were very limited for someone from the Great Plains such as Gallagher.

The lack of on-the-mat experience ultimately didn't hurt Ed Gallagher and his Oklahoma State wrestlers. Admittedly, Gallagher's first season as head coach (1915-16) was a losing one; the Cowboys again had just one dual meet, again losing to Texas, this time by an even more lopsided 22.5-2.5 score. However, in his second year, Gallagher's matmen wrestled three duals, winning two (against Emporia State and Texas), and tying with Arkansas.

That winning momentum was sidelined after the 1916-17 season; because of World War I, there was no wrestling team at Oklahoma State, as most of the male students were serving in the military or reserves. However, when the program resumed in the 1919-20 school year, the Gallagher dynasty began its long, successful run as the dominant college wrestling program throughout the 1920s and 30s.

Engineering Success on the Mat

As an engineer, Ed Gallagher employed a systematic approach to the sport of wrestling ... starting with how he selected young men to wrestle for Oklahoma State. He looked at their families, picking sons of "upstanding" parents ... and favoring "only boys who cannot go out in society." In other words, those who might be considered economically disadvantaged, and would view wrestling as a springboard for success in life beyond the mat.

Gallagher also expected his wrestlers to live clean -- no smoking, no drinking, and, perhaps most startling nowadays, no dating. "The best woman in the world can do you no good," claimed the Cowboy coach. (No, Gallagher was not a confirmed bachelor; he married right out of college, and together, Ed and the former Mary Austella Taylor had a total of six children -- three boys, and three girls.) Along with clean living off the mat, Gallagher stressed clean behavior on the mat. He wanted his men to wrestle tough, with determination ... but with character, and good sportsmanship.

In selecting wrestlers for his program, Gallagher also favored a specific type of physique. He sought "lean plainsmen" -- tall, slim, strong men, rather than compact, muscular types who were typical in college wrestling even 80-90 years ago. Ideally, these long, lean wrestlers must have quick reactions, according to the coach's criteria.

Ed Gallagher's engineering background also guided his primary focus -- the study of leverage, and how it applied to wrestling. Using a human skeleton and rubber bands, he spent hours figuring out holds and counters -- one report saying he spent at least two hours a day in his office on this task. The Cowboy coach developed, by his own count, 400-500 holds and variations; he expected each of his men to know at least 200 of those.

Perhaps most surprising, Ed Gallagher was open about sharing his scientific approach to wrestling. His teams often put on wrestling demonstrations before or after a dual meet in an opponent's gym. In 1939, he and his Cowboys were featured in a three-page "how-to-wrestle" feature for the popular photo-magazine, "Life." In addition, he wrote two very popular instructional books, titled simply "Amateur Wrestling" and "Wrestling."

Break it Down

Here's a specific example of how the engineer in Ed Gallagher guided his instruction of his wrestlers: He told them to think of an opponent on all fours as a table. To succeed, his wrestlers need to "break" at least one leg of the table. If the opponent's arms were weak, that was the point of attack; if the arms were strong, go for the legs.

Another way to "break" an opponent, according to Gallagher: Make more than one attempt or counter. Continue a string of attacks until you have opponent under control. In other words, never give up.

Not all of Ed Gallagher's ideas came from his own engineering mind. According to the book about the history of the Oklahoma State wrestling program, "Cowboys Ride Again!" Gallagher picked up a tip from 1920s professional wrestling champ Ed "Strangler" Lewis: If possible, "take two deep breaths and immediately pitch back viciously. To do this correctly, break out of the predicament first, and, step back and draw the breaths. Now, he (the opponent) will see this and either follow suit or at least temporarily relax, and you can catch him somewhat relaxed."

Eat to Win

Coach Gallagher made a science of studying the diet of his wrestlers. He generally allowed his wrestlers to eat what they wanted, as long as it what was what they typically consumed, in reasonable quantities. However, he discouraged his wrestlers from consuming cold drinks.

He focused on glycogen, the form in which sugar is used in the body, turning one-third of that into carbon dioxide, and the remaining two-thirds to water and lactic acid -- the cause of oxygen debt, leading to hard breathing during exertion in workouts and during a wrestling match.

After weigh-ins, instead of chowing down with a big meal as most wrestlers did in the 1920s and 30s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually contented themselves with hot tea, sweetened with brown sugar, honey or Karo syrup. He wanted his men to be "properly sugared" especially when trying to make weight.

Your Great-Grandfather's Cowboys

College wrestling of the Ed Gallagher era differs significantly in a number of ways from the sport we know today. For starters, the Cowboys wrestled just 5-8 dual meets in a typical season in the 1920s and 30s. Each regulation match lasted ten minutes. There was no point scoring system; matches were won by a pin (back then, shoulders had to be on the mat for a full three seconds), or by "time advantage" -- essentially, whoever had the most riding time. In 1938 -- towards the end of Gallagher's coaching career -- this system was replaced, with the referee making the decision as to who won. The referee decision system didn't last; in 1941, the beginnings of today's point system made their appearance in college wrestling.

Perhaps the most startling difference for today's fans: For home meets, the Oklahoma State wrestlers competed in a roped-off ring, like those for boxing or professional wrestling. The actual wrestling area was the same as on-the-floor mats in other college events. In reviewing "NCAA Wrestling Guides" of the era -- the annual rules-and-results publication for high school and college wrestling -- there are diagrams governing ring size, number of ropes, what the ropes should be made of, and how they should be secured... but nothing about rules governing how the ring could be used. The only hint: In "Cowboys Ride Again!" there's a description of a match in which an angry Oklahoma State wrestler threw an opponent over the top rope, which apparently was against the rules... but the Cowboy wasn't disqualified, and the match resumed.

The Cowboys weren't alone in wrestling in roped-off rings. According to college yearbook photos, teams at Indiana University, University of Iowa, Iowa State Teachers College (now University of Northern Iowa), and Northwestern University also had rings for home meets 70-80 years ago. (The NCAA banned wrestling rings in the early 1940s.)

The gear Ed Gallagher's men wore to wrestle was radically different, too. No one-piece black-and-orange, synthetic-fabric singlets for the Cowboys back then. During the more than two decades Gallagher coached at Oklahoma State, his wrestlers wore a variety of uniforms. Through much of the 1920s, his wrestlers wore full-length wool tights. There was a time where the Cowboys wore tights with what was called a black Tom -- also known as an outside supporter -- on top of the tights. Towards the late 1930s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually wore wool trunks, much like we associate with pro wrestling, with no tights.

Despite these variations in what the Cowboys wore below the waist, throughout the 1920s and 30s they usually wrestled bare-chested at home meets and at events at colleges in the Midwest and Southwest. However, when wrestling in the east, Gallagher's wrestlers would often be required to put on sleeveless shirts, at the request of the school hosting the event. (An NCAA rule change in the mid 1960s prohibited shirtless wrestling.) Going all the way to the top ... headgear was not required as it is now, and a very rare sight in the Gallagher era.

When not wrestling, the Oklahoma State wrestlers often traveled in gear appropriate to their team name. Outfitted in Stetson hats, colorful flannel shirts, and cowboy boots, team members made an incredible impression wherever they traveled. Adding to the Cowboy mystique, some team members performed rope tricks in opponents' gyms before some dual meets.

The Cowboy Way of Winning

No matter what they wore -- or whether they wrestled in a ring or mats on the floor -- Ed Gallagher's Oklahoma State Cowboys dominated the college wrestling scene for more than two decades. In the years after World War I, the Cowboys never had a losing season. In fact, in the ten-year period from the 1921-22 through the 1930-31 seasons, the Cowboys never lost a dual meet. That's 69 consecutive wins!

Among the Cowboys' opponents during the Roaring Twenties: University of Oklahoma, University of Kansas, Kansas State, Texas, Iowa State, Cornell College of Iowa ... as well as farther-flung teams such as West Virginia, the U.S. Naval Academy, and the Philadelphia Athletic Club. Who broke the eleven-year, 70-match winning streak? Cross-state rivals Oklahoma. The Sooners beat the Cowboys by one point in the last dual meet of the 1931-32 season. During the rest of the decade, the Cowboys had only one other loss (at Southwestern Oklahoma State in the 1936-37 season) ... and three ties. Most victories were by a substantial margin.

In 1928, the NCAA launched a national wrestling championship to conclude the dual-meet season. At the very first NCAAs -- held at the Armory at Iowa State -- Oklahoma State claimed four individual titles out of a total of seven weight classes.

That was no fluke; in the thirteen years of NCAA competition, the men coached by Ed Gallagher ruled the national championships each year. The leanest year for Cowboys was 1936, when just one wrestler -- Harley "Doc" Strong -- won a title. However, in a typical year, at least three Cowboys brought home an individual championship.

During the Gallagher era, 22 individual wrestlers won a total of 37 NCAA titles. Among the Cowboys who won three championships (back when freshmen were not eligible for NCAA/varsity competition): Earl McCready (the very first three-time college champ), Jack VanBebber, Conrad Caldwell, Rex Peery, Ross Flood, Joe McDaniel, and Stanley Henson.

Ed Gallagher's men did incredibly well on the ultimate international stage, too. From 1924 through 1936, Oklahoma State had nine wrestlers qualify for the U.S. Olympic wrestling teams ... along with Earl McCready wrestling for his native Canada at the 1928 Olympics, and Canadian big man George Chiga competing for his home team at the 1936 Olympics. Of these Cowboy Olympians, four earned medals in freestyle competition. At the 1932 Olympics in Los Angeles, Bobby Pearce won gold at 123 pounds, while Jack VanBebber claimed gold at 158.5. In the 1936 Berlin Olympics, Ross Flood brought home a silver medal at 123 pounds, and Frank Lewis won gold at 158.5.

Coach Gallagher's Toughest Battle

For years, Ed Gallagher dealt with the challenges of Parkinson's. In 1936, Oklahoma State and the entire Stillwater community put on a fundraising event at the school's Lewis Field football stadium so that coach Gallagher could travel with his wrestlers to the Berlin Olympics ... then take a side trip to Vienna to be tested by physicians there, at the request of his son Clarence, a doctor.

To help lighten his load, in 1938, Ed Gallagher retired as director of physical education at Oklahoma State, but continued on as wrestling coach.

It was about this time that construction began on a new, $500,000 arena on the Oklahoma State campus that would serve as home for the Cowboy basketball and wrestling programs. Completed in 1939, what was originally called the 4-H Club and Student Activity Building was state-of-the-art for the time, featuring an air-cooling system ... and over 5,000 theater-type seats, as well as collapsible bleachers for wrestling events, bringing total seating capacity to nearly 9,000 fans.

February 3, 1939 was declared "Gallagher Day" in Stillwater, in honor of the beloved wrestling coach. It was that day that the new arena -- nicknamed "the Madison Square Garden of the Midwest" -- was officially dedicated. That night, the facility hosted its first event, a dual meet with Indiana University, one of the top programs of the era. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers 18-9.

At the end of the 1939-40 season, outdoorsman and hunter Ed Gallagher went to the Rocky Mountains for an extended vacation. While in Colorado, he collapsed and died on August 28, 1940 ... just a week shy of his 54th birthday.

His funeral was held at the new arena that had been named in his honor (and is still home to the wrestling Cowboys, now called Gallagher-Iba Arena, having been substantially upgraded and expanded in 2001.) Thousands came for the funeral for the man referred to in obituaries as "the Dean of Collegiate Wrestling" and "the Knute Rockne of the Mats" (referring to the legendary Notre Dame football coach killed in a plane crash a few years earlier).

Reading the text of the 1939 "Gallagher Day" souvenir program and the 1940 Redskin yearbook -- the last featuring Ed Gallagher as coach -- has added poignancy now. Even though he had been battling Parkinson's for years, there was optimism in the words in these publications produced in the last year of his life. In the "Gallagher Day" program, long-time friend and sportswriter Randle Perdue began his profile of the coach with this positive paragraph:

"The big news about Ed Gallagher is that he is improving in health! In recent weeks he has found a new medicine, the result of long search by his son, Dr. Clarence Gallagher, and evidently it is effective. Ed has gained nearly twenty pounds in weight. He is more cheerful, more hopeful. He is optimistic about the future. In fact, he has made a date to go quail hunting next fall. It will be his first time in about five years. When Ed gets back to quail hunting, he will be the Ed Gallagher of old."

In the 1940 Redskin yearbook, the last line of text in the description of the Cowboys' 1939-40 season closes with "With two intercollegiate champions and several intercollegiate runners-up returning, Coach Gallagher should have little trouble turning out another national championship for Oklahoma A. and M. College in 1940-1941." (Art Griffith became the Oklahoma State head wrestling coach upon Gallagher's passing in 1940. The Cowboys were 6-0 for the 1940-41 season, winning four individual titles and the team title at the 1941 NCAAs.)

The Gallagher Legacy

In tallying up the accomplishments of the Ed Gallagher era, the stats are impressive: 19 undefeated seasons out of 23 ... only two losses in the last 19 seasons ... six AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) team titles ... ten outright NCAA team titles (tied for first for an eleventh)... 73 NCAA and AAU individual champs ... and three Olympic gold medalists.

Ed Gallagher's legacy goes far beyond those stats. He coached a number of wrestlers who went on to become high school and college wrestling coaches themselves. Among the Cowboys turned coaches: Cliff Keen at the University of Michigan ... Paul Keen at Oklahoma ... Buell Patterson, who coached at Kent State, Nebraska and Illinois... Rex Peery at Pittsburgh ... Fendley Collins at Michigan State ... Joe McDaniel at Syracuse and Wyoming ... and Orion Stuteville at Northwestern.

Buell Patterson weighed in with his thoughts on coach Gallagher: "A reason that the men who have worked under Ed like him so well is that if he lost a match, they never received a bawling out. And believe me, it is a lot of satisfaction to give all one has for a man and know that what one gives will be satisfactory with him, even if one makes mistakes."

Another one of his coaching protégés, Carl "Dutch" Voyles (who coached at Duke and William & Mary), said of his mentor: "No one ever said an unkind word about him. That must have been because Ed was so full of kindness himself ... there are all too few men like Gallagher in this world of ours."

In his article about Ed Gallagher for the 1939 "Gallagher Day" program, Randle Perdue said of the man he had known since 1911:

"Applicable adjectives, on which Ed's friends all agree as describing him, include honest, fair, clean, square, quiet, unassuming, uncomplaining, canny, crafty, foxy, firm, shrewd, fearless, modest, sincere, stubborn, determined, and uncompromising – altogether friendly and possessing a fine sense of humor..."

"Gallagher has never been cocky, or disagreeably boastful. He has taken his victories graciously. He has never complained about a referee's decision -- at least not publicly."

The legacy of Ed Gallagher lives on in so many ways, beyond having his name on an arena ... or the annual award that bears his name, given to an Oklahoma State wrestling alumnus. (Among the past honorees: Bobby Douglas, Doug Blubaugh, John Smith, Pat Smith, and Kenny Monday.) His analytical, engineering-based approach to amateur wrestling revolutionized the sport. The success of his Cowboys helped launch high school wrestling programs throughout the state of Oklahoma, making the Sooner State a leading hotbed for wrestling to this day. What's more, the foundation of success laid by Ed Gallagher and his wrestlers has been built upon over the decades to the point where today, the Oklahoma State Cowboys still claim the most individual and team titles in NCAA wrestling.

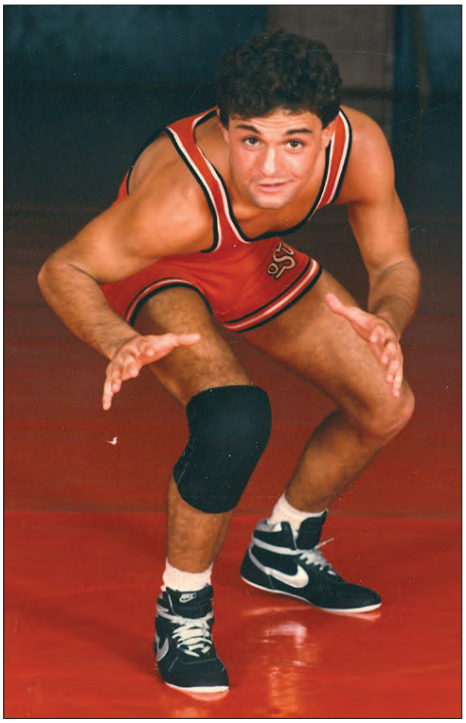
WRESTLING LEGEND JOHN SMITH



Widely considered the greatest American wrestler in history and one of the greatest collegiate wrestling coaches of all time, few have made a larger impact on the sport of wrestling than John Smith.

Under his watch, OSU produced five NCAA team championships, 33 NCAA individual championships, 490 dual wins, 153 All-America honors, 23 team conference championships, 132 individual conference championships and two Hodge Trophy winners. His accomplishments place him among the top coaches in the history of the sport.

Smith was the longest tenured wrestling coach in Oklahoma State history and trails only James Wadley (men's tennis) and Henry Iba (men's basketball) as the longest tenured head coaches at OSU, regardless of sport.

His 490-73-6 career dual record gives him the most wins in school history and the third-most wins in the history of Division I wrestling. His numbers for All-Americans, conference championships and individual conference champions are the most at OSU by a wide margin and believed to be the most in NCAA wrestling history.

He also coached his teams to eight perfect dual season records, an all-time conference record of 171-24-5 and 21 top-five finishes at the NCAA Championships. His wrestlers won better than 70 percent of more than 16,000 bouts during his time as head coach and went on to claim double-digit spots on Team USA at the world level.

"It has been an honor to coach for more than 32 years at the same institution," Smith said. "I can't even begin to tell you what Oklahoma State has done for me, my wife, my immediate family and brothers and sisters who all graduated from OSU. My journey started at age 17 here at Oklahoma State and it has allowed me to accomplish everything I ever wanted."

Beyond the numbers, Smith is recognized widely for his contributions to the sport. He is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame, a two-time selection as the National Wrestling Coaches Association Coach of the Year and a 15-time selection as conference Coach of the Year. He was also the first wrestler to be inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame and is a member of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame.

"Coach Smith is a hero and truly the greatest of all time," OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg said. "John has dedicated his life's work to Oklahoma State University, Cowboy Wrestling and the sport. Although the decision comes with much emotion for him and for us, he felt the time was right to retire. Because we have so much respect for him, we will respect his decision and honor and celebrate his exceptional contributions and loyalty to Oklahoma State. John will continue to support the program as a lifelong Cowboy and due to his efforts, we know great things are yet to come for Cowboy Wrestling."

Some of Smith's most prominent pupils include Olympic medalists Coleman Scott and Jamill Kelly, Hodge Trophy winners Steve Mocco and Alex Dieringer, other multiple-time NCAA champions Pat Smith, Mark Branch, Eric Guerrero, Johnny Thompson, Jake Rosholt, Chris Pendleton, Johny Hendricks, Jordan Oliver, Chris Perry and Dean Heil, as well as five-time All-American Daton Fix and four-time All-Americans Branch, Dieringer, Guerrero, Hendricks, Tyrone Lewis, Oliver, Rosholt, Scott, Smith and Thompson.

Smith also coached at the world level, coaching Team USA at the Olympics in 2000 and 2012, the World Championships in 1998, 1999, 2009, 2010 and 2011 and at the World Cup in 1997. He also coached the USA Women's Cadet World Team in 2018.

Smith's legacy extends far beyond Stillwater as well, having built a coaching tree that extends from coast-to-coast and includes double-digit pupils now holding the reigns at their own program. After 33 years and numerous battles with familiar foes, Smith ended his career with a 26-1 head-to-head record against his former wrestlers.

Prior to taking over as Oklahoma State head coach in 1992, Smith put together a wrestling career that squarely places him in the conversation for the greatest American wrestler ever.

He won six consecutive world championships as a competitor from 1987-92, including gold medals at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul and 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. He also won two gold medals in two attempts at the Pan American Games, two gold medals in two attempts at the Goodwill Games and two NCAA individual championships for Oklahoma State.

His Cowboy wrestling career also included three All-America honors, three conference championships, the NWCA Collegiate Wrestler of the Year award and more than 150 career wins to rank as the most in program history.

In 1990, he became the first wrestler to win the James E. Sullivan Award for the nation's top amateur athlete.

In addition to the already mentioned international honors, Smith received the Amateur Athletic Foundation World Trophy (1992), was the first American to earn FILA's Master of Technique Award (best technical wrestler in the world, 1990), and earned the U.S. Olympic Committee Sportsman of the Year (1990), FILA Outstanding Wrestler of the Year (1991), USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year (1989), Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year (1988) and U.S. Olympic Committee Titan Award (2004). He was also named one of the 100 Greatest Olympians of All-Time (1996) and is a member of the FILA Hall of Fame (2003), AAU Wrestling Hall of Fame (2024), Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame (1997) and NCAA 75th Anniversary Team (2005).

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 152-8-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 457 times for his school, club, or country and won 434 times, for a success rate of 95%.

A.M. Colville coached the Oklahoma State wrestling program for its first ever varsity competition, a 17.5-7 dual match loss to Texas in Stillwater in 1915. It was Colville's only OSU coaching appearance. In that match, OSU 125-pounder Dan F. Cooley scored the first win ever by a Cowboy wrestler when he pinned his opponent in 55 seconds and rendered his foe unconscious. Colville's inaugural OSU squad consisted of Cooley, Herman Dose, Millard Harnden, R.W. Havenstrite and Jack Briscoe.

COACHING HISTORY

ED GALLAGHER

1916-40 // 136-5-4 Record // 11 NCAA Championships
37 NCAA Individual Champions // 69 All-Americans

"The Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling", as he was eulogized by the New York Times upon his untimely death in 1940, Ed Gallagher meant more to the sport than anyone ever has and likely ever will. Coach of 11 NCAA championship teams and 37 NCAA individual champions during his time at the helm of the Oklahoma State program, he launched the premier dynasty in all of North American sports when he took over the program in 1916. Gallagher, who never wrestled himself, was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods. In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams and went 136-5-4. He also coached the team to 69 consecutive victories, a stretch that lasted over a decade, and ended his career with another streak of 27 straight wins.

ART GRIFFITH

1941-56 // 78-7-4 Record // 8 NCAA Championships
27 NCAA Individual Champions // 64 All-Americans

Facing the unenviable task of succeeding Ed Gallagher at Oklahoma State, Art Griffith took over the program in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated, while his wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles. When he became the Cowboy coach, the team had already won 27 consecutive dual meets and under his leadership, that streak was extended to a program-record 76 before a loss in 1951. Griffith was also the head coach of the United States at the 1948 Olympics. He developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

COACHING HISTORY

MYRON RODERICK

1957-69 // 140-10-7 Record // 7 NCAA Championships
20 NCAA Individual Champions // 79 All-Americans

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 28 of 30 matches and three national championships, including one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion. But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions, won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

TOMMY CHESBRO

1970-84 // 227-26-0 Record // 1 NCAA Championship
19 NCAA Individual Champions // 76 All-Americans

Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed at Oklahoma State by not one, but three Hall of Fame coaches. But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors. From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach. Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

COACHING HISTORY

JOE SEAY

1985-91 // 114-18-2 record // 2 NCAA Championships
7 NCAA Individual Champions // 45 All-Americans

A decorated high school and Division II college coach in California prior to taking over as coach at Oklahoma State from 1985 to '91, Joe Seay went 114-8-2 during his time in Stillwater and led the Cowboys to back-to-back NCAA crowns in 1989 and '90. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles at both the Division I and Division II levels. When his Cowboy coaching career ended in 1991, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships. He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, while also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. At the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count, highlighted by a gold medal from former Cowboy Kendall Cross.

JOHN SMITH

33 NCAA Individual Champions // 153 All-Americans

Perhaps the greatest American wrestler ever, John Smith rightfully earned a legitimate spot in the discussion for best collegiate coach as well. Throughout his storied 33-year career, Smith became the all-time winningest coach in program in history and finished third on the all-time NCAA wins list. Add in his five NCAA championships, the fact that he's coached 33 wrestlers to NCAA titles and 153 All-America honors, it is clear that Smith is among the best. Smith's Cowboys won the conference title 23 times throughout his tenure, including a Big 12-record nine in a row, and his 1999 squad posted the most dual wins ever at Oklahoma State.

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma State University

A land-grant institution with more than 35,000 students across a five-campus system, we've graduated more than 264,000 students to serve the state of Oklahoma, the nation and the world.

A bold aspiration

Oklahoma State University intends to become the nation's preeminent Land-Grant university

From their founding in the nineteenth century, Land-Grant universities have carried a distinctly American charge captured in the words of the Morrill Act of 1862:

"to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life."

Through teaching, research and Extension, the Land-Grant institutions steward a timeless responsibility: to raise successive generations of servant-leaders; to engage as vital members of their communities; to bring research and new knowledge to bear to prepare students for the world they will enter; and to extend critical knowledge and expertise to meet society's most pressing problems — the "Grand Challenges" facing civilization.

Three Pillars

Instruction
OSU provides the highest quality education in a variety of different majors using the latest teaching methods.

Research
OSU is creating the next generation of scientists, thinkers and scholars through its tradition of research excellence.

Extension
OSU's Cooperative Extension connects people across the nation and world with the latest research and practical solutions.

Core Values

Community
Foster a strong sense of community based on shared governance among student, faculty, staff and administration.

Service
Serving others is a noble and worthy endeavor and distinguishing feature of a land-grant institution.

Steward of Resources
Dedicated to the efficient and effective use of resources and sustainability.

Excellence
Seek excellence in all endeavors and commitment to continuous improvement.

Integrity
Commitment to the principles of truth and honesty.

Intellectual Freedom
Believe in ethical and scholarly questioning that respects the rights of all to freely pursue knowledge.

Hailing from all 50 states and more than 100 countries, we are united by the Cowboy Code.

- We end the day knowing we gave it everything we had.
- We dream as big as the sky.
- We know challenges come with pain, but pain will not win.
- We have a passion to do what's right, even when it's hard.
- We stand for what matters, even if we stand alone.
- We finish what we start.
- Being a Cowboy isn't in our clothes, it's in our character.

- Inspired by James P. Owen's 2004 book "Cowboy Ethics: What Wall Street Can Learn from The Code of the West."

Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 408 Whitehurst, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-5371; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty, or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss his or her concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-9154." University President Dr. Kayse Shrum

Dr. Kayse Shrum

Fourth Year | OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

Oklahoma State University President Kayse Shrum is in her fourth year leading the largest university system in Oklahoma.

A collegiate student-athlete herself, Dr. Shrum competed as a softball pitcher at Connors State College before continuing her education at Northeastern State University and the University of Arkansas. She then earned her doctorate of osteopathic medicine from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Her husband, Darren, was also a collegiate student-athlete at the University of Central Arkansas, and the two make it a point to attend as many athletic events as possible in order to recognize the hard work and dedication of OSU student-athletes, coaches and staff.

Since taking office in July 2021, Shrum has forged a new chapter for OSU — boldly facing challenges like conference realignment and COVID-19 while positioning the university for future success by embarking on a strategic planning process. The systemwide We Are Land-Grant strategy guides OSU's future and is securing its position as the nation's premier land-grant university — with a focus on creating and discovering solutions to societal problems, providing students with a world-class education and sending them into the world after graduation well-equipped to handle the challenges before them.

Throughout Shrum's tenure, OSU has set multiple enrollment records. During the 2023 school year, OSU saw the highest undergraduate enrollment in school history, the largest first-time freshman class in school history while also becoming Oklahoma's largest university system. OSU has also set enrollment records for non-residents, Honors College, Spears School of Business, Native American, first-generation, online students and new graduate students.

OSU has maintained flat tuition and mandatory fees for three straight years, emphasizing student access, STEM education and workforce readiness. In December 2023, Shrum launched OSU Polytech, which builds on OSU's decades of experience in applied and technical learning to directly address Oklahoma's high-tech workforce needs. Currently, over 3,700 students are enrolled in 60 polytechnic education programs in person and online across the system.

Her influence and forward-thinking approach have been instrumental in launching OSU's transdisciplinary institutes, including the 2022 opening of the OSU Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute, or HPNRI. The institute harnesses OSU's expertise in human performance and nutrition science, and is coupling it with advanced knowledge from OSU's elite strength and conditioning staff to deliver better health outcomes for all Oklahomans. One key area of HPNRI's focus is on athletic trainers across the state.

Shrum's leadership, professional and civic contributions have led to notable recognition and rewards. Her honors include:

- 2023 Special Olympics Oklahoma Barry Switzer Award of Excellence
- 2022 Oklahoma Women's Hall of Fame induction
- 2022 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association DO of the Decade
- 2020 "Journal Record" Health Care Hero
- 2020 Osteopathic Founders Foundation Outstanding Physician Award
- 2020 Becker's Hospital Review "100 Academic Medical Center CEOs to Know"
- 2019 Connors State College Alumni Hall of Fame induction
- 2019 Tulsa Osteopathic Medical Society Osteopathic Impact Award
- 2019 "Journal Record's" 2019 Woman of Year Award
- 2018 Newsmaker Award by the Association for Women in Communications Tulsa Chapter
- 2014 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association's Outstanding & Distinguished Service Award
- 2013 Connors State College Athletics Hall of Fame induction
- 2012 Tulsa Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women's Pinnacle Award for Health

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
Fourth Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg Career Path

1994-99	Oklahoma State Athletics	Director of Corporate Sales and Donor Relations
1999-2002	Oklahoma State Alumni Association	Senior Director of Field Operations
2002-03	Oklahoma State Foundation/ College of Business Administration	Director of Development
2003-04	Oklahoma State Athletics	Director of Development
2004-05	Kansas State Foundation	Director of Corporate Relations
2005-15	Kansas State Athletics	Director of Major Gifts from 2005-09 Associate A.D./Development from 2009-15
2015-17	Texas Tech Athletics	Deputy Athletic Director
2017-pres.	Oklahoma State Athletics	Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21 Athletic Director from 2021-present

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director. In this role, Weiberg serves on President Kayse Shrum's leadership team that helps advance Oklahoma State's land grant mission and President Shrum's strategic initiatives for the institution.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in national landscape of college sports. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date.

With that as the backdrop, in the modernized world of college athletics, Weiberg's OSU has been a force in competition. A sampling of Oklahoma State's accomplishments during his three years as athletic director:

- Oklahoma State won team national championships in equestrian (2022) and men's cross country (2023) and the women's tennis team won the 2024 ITA indoor national title.
- OSU won 15 Big 12 team conference championships across its 18 varsity sports.
- Oklahoma State finished in the top 25 of the Learfield Directors' Cup standings each year.
- Oklahoma State won the all-sports Phillips 66 Bedlam Series over in-state rival Oklahoma twice and tied the Bedlam Series once.
- The Cowboy Football team beat No. 5 Notre Dame in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, had a winning record over Oklahoma and twice appeared in the Big 12 Championship Game.
- Oklahoma State produced 140 All-Americans, the highest three-year total in school history.

OSU's broad-based success reflects how the department has evolved in ways that produce a meaningful advantage. Some of key initiatives developed within OSU Athletics under Weiberg:

- The creation of a name, image and likeness department with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director.
- A partnership between OSU Athletics and the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

As athletic director, Chad Weiberg hired head coaches Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball) and David Taylor (wrestling).

School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.

- The creation of the POSSE STAR Fund to provide student-athletes financial rewards for achieving academic success in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling on Alston vs. NCAA.
- The creation of a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help best position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- Numerous structural and cosmetic upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium geared toward improving the fan experience.
- Launching of the OSU Athletics Vision Plan, which is highlighted by a new Human Performance and Innovation Complex and football center, upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium and entirely new competition facilities for softball and indoor track and field, practice facilities for wrestling and men's and women's basketball and upgrades to Karsten Creek Golf Course, the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Gallagher-Iba Arena.
- A partnership with Sport and Story to create OSU's own streaming service, OSU Max.

Weiberg has made three head coach hires, successfully recruiting Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball) and David Taylor (wrestling) to Stillwater.

Oklahoma State hosted NCAA Championship events in men's and women's cross country (2022), wrestling (2023) and men's and women's tennis (2024) under Weiberg, providing the Cowboys and Cowgirls with added visibility on the national level.

Also on the national level, Weiberg was on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group and beginning in September of 2024, joins the NCAA Division I men's basketball committee for a five-year term.

In 2023-24, he served as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors.

Prior to his elevation to athletic director, Weiberg served as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21. In that role, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefited student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a key role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

Olympic Medalists

Oklahoma State and the Olympic Games

Oklahoma State has produced 119 Olympians all-time and entering the 2024 Paris Games, 33 earned a medal - 20 gold, five silver and eight bronze.

OSU has been represented at every Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed in since 1924.

Oklahoma State has produced at least one medalist in 19 of the last 20 Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed since 1932. The lone exception was in 1972, when the Henry Iba-coached Team USA men's basketball team chose to not accept silver medals following a controversial result against the Soviet Union in the gold medal game.

Included among Oklahoma State's Olympic gold medalists are a quartet of two-time winners - wrestlers Yojiro Uetake and John Smith, men's basketball star Bob Kurland and softball pitching ace Michele Smith.

- The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.
- Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most others count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 25 nationally the last four years and has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last six years.

Phillips 66 Bedlam Series

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head to head competition. In sports where there is no head to head matchup, the Big 12 Championship final standings are used.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year.

The All-Time Greats

The highest honor the Oklahoma State Athletic Department can bestow upon its former student-athletes, coaches and staff is induction into the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor. Inductees are immortalized with a permanent display on the concourse level of Gallagher-Iba Arena, outside the O-Club room on the arena's west side.

The Big 12 Conference

The Big 12 enters its 29th year as one of the nation's premier conferences in college athletics under the leadership of Commissioner Brett Yormark. Since joining the Conference in August 2022, Yormark has elevated the Big 12 to new heights, emphasizing marketing, brand building and instilling an innovative strategy that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

Starting Aug. 2, 2024, the Conference is composed of 16 universities spanning 10 states and four time zones. The Big 12 members include Arizona, Arizona State, Baylor, BYU, UCF, Cincinnati, Colorado, Houston, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas Tech, Utah and West Virginia.

The Big 12 began play in 1996 and is the home of 87 team NCAA national championships, and 764 individual national champions. The Big 12 Conference office is located in Irving, Texas.

Big 12 Fast Facts

- The Big 12 sponsors 25 sports across the Fall, Winter and Spring seasons.
- Men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling.
- Women's sports include basketball, beach volleyball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, lacrosse, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 24 of its 25 sports.
- The league has been home to over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- In the last 15 seasons, 36 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award.

Name, Image and Likeness and POSSE STAR Fund

Oklahoma State is at the very forefront of the Name, Image and Likeness era of college sports and has the accolades to prove it.

OSU was the only Big 12 school recognized as a national finalist for Best Institutional Program at the inaugural NIL Awards at the INFLCR NIL Summit in 2022.

Oklahoma State sprinter Tori Ortiz secured an NIL partnership with the WWE, among many others.

OSU's reputation as an NIL leader was earned not through hype, but through planning and then executing a strategy that placed maximizing NIL opportunities for student-athletes as the top priority.

A sampling of what NIL looks like at Oklahoma State:

▶ OSU Athletics partnered with the renowned Spears School of Business to form the best-in-class Brand Squad – a group of business students who help connect OSU students with NIL partners at no cost to the students.

▶ OSU Athletics appointed Barry Hinson as Associate Athletic Director for Name, Image and Likeness – a new position geared specifically toward identifying and promoting NIL opportunities for its student-athletes.

▶ OSU partnered with industry leader Altius Sports to provide a national perspective and guidance to OSU's NIL programming.

▶ OSU partnered with the Brandr Group, One Team and Fanatics to create group licensing opportunities for its student-athletes, such as selling jerseys and other merchandise co-branded with official OSU marks and the student-athletes' name, image and likeness.

▶ OSU was an early adopter in helping student-athletes with their individual brand-building efforts through the use of professional-quality photos and videos.

▶ OSU provides ongoing rules education to the nonprofit collective Pokes with a Purpose, which pairs OSU student-athletes with local charities in a way that enables the student-athletes to use their name, image and likeness to raise awareness and funds for causes of their choosing.

▶ OSU Athletics has a standing NIL committee that meets weekly to identify, discuss and pursue NIL opportunities and partnerships that benefit its student-athletes.

▶ While it is not directly tied to NIL, OSU launched the POSSE Star Fund to provide student-athletes with additional education-related benefits including direct financial support in the form of academic achievement awards, up to the legally established maximum of $5,980 per year. In order to receive the full allotment, student-athletes must go through financial planning and education provided through a partnership between OSU Athletics and Simmons Bank.

The OSU NIL marketplace makes it easier than ever for fans and potential name, image and likeness partners to browse and connect with OSU student-athletes by visiting okstate.com/marketplace

Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development

Every athletic department has a goal of winning championships, which is something we know a thing or two about here at Oklahoma State. A quick glance to the rafters in Gallagher-Iba Arena illustrates that.

But in addition to banners, developing the next generation of leaders away from the field is a priority for OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg, and he made that clear with a key hire just weeks after taking the reins as athletic director in 2021.

Jawauna Harding re-joined the OSU Athletics family to head up our Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development office, which is charged with building initiatives and programming focused on the OSU ideal graduate competencies of professional preparedness, ethical leadership, engaged citizenship, and personal responsibility. Additionally, she oversees impact initiatives for OSU Athletics.

Her goal is to enhance the student-athlete experience and prepare them for life after OSU. Through one-on-one meetings, guest speakers, experiential learning and special events, each student-athlete gains access to professional development tools and job search support.

"OSU student-athletes possess valuable skills sought after by employers," Harding explains. "They excel in teamwork, adaptability, and time management. They've been immersed in organizational leadership systems their entire careers. Companies should see the value in providing internships and jobs that help our athletes transition these skills into professional careers."

To achieve this, Harding added two additional positions. Assistant Athletic Director Tia Harring, who previously oversaw marketing and fan engagement, now focuses on student-athlete leadership development and established GoPokes Connect, a mentorship program pairing student-athletes with alumni-athletes.

Career Coach Lerin Lynch, formerly of the Alumni Association, helps student-athletes build their professional toolbox. This includes résumé development, career coaching, and essential professional skills.

"Investing in the holistic well-being of our student-athletes is paramount," Harding said. "Hiring Tia and Lerin strengthened our ability to better support student-athletes in their professional and leadership development."

While the department empowers student-athletes through the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and community engagement projects, Harding seeks to expand employment options for them.

"Student-athletes have unique skills and unique schedules," Harding said. "Our next step is to find new, innovative ways to provide experiential learning for all our student-athletes."

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who leads a four-person team of trained mental health professionals dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime." Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health – we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate who joined the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

Honoring Academic Success

The Oklahoma State Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award acknowledges the remarkable character and performance of one male and one female student-athlete. As the highest honor presented among OSU student-athletes, this award reflects exemplary performance in academic endeavors, athletic activities, and a commitment to community engagement. The award recognizes exceptional character of the student-athlete and a remarkable dedication to academic performance.

The award was initially presented in 1994 as the OSU Student-Athlete of the Year, but the title changed to OSU Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015.

Maddison Hinson-Tolchard (golf) and Alex Maier (cross country/track and field) were honored as OSU's 2024 Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans

Academic All-American is a title reserved for college student-athletes who perform at an elite level in their chosen sport and in the classroom. The all-time list of 40,000+ Academic All-Americans includes major sports stars and some of the world's most accomplished individuals in medicine, business, science and the arts. Established in 1952 and selected by College Sports Communicators, Academic All-America is the longest running and premier award for athletic and academic success across championship college sports at all NCAA levels, the NAIA, two-year colleges and Canadian institutions. Teams are announced year round and amplified by CSC member colleges, universities, and conferences on a wide local, regional, national, and even international scope.

Outstanding student-athletes are nominated for Academic All-District® recognition by communications directors and must have a minimum 3.50 GPA and meet high athletic standards. (25,000+ nominations annually). A select group of student-athletes advances to the national ballot where CSC members vote on Academic All-America teams. (approximately 2,000 selections annually).

We Will Always Remember

On January 27, 2001, 10 members of the Oklahoma State Cowboy Basketball family passed away after a plane crash on the way home from a game at Colorado. To this day, the legacy of those Cowboys is honored. Each year, 10 OSU students are selected as Remember the 10 scholarship recipients and the charitable Remember the 10 Run generates significant donations to University Counseling Services.

A Night to Shine

Oklahoma State student-athletes walk the orange carpet at the Cowboy Choice Awards, which has become a highly-anticipated event on the annual calendar, in part because of the awards themselves and in part because it is an opportunity for student-athletes from all sports to come together off the field for a fun and enjoyable evening.

In the Heart of it All

Oklahoma State University serves nearly 25,000 students at its Stillwater campus, with 26% of the student body coming from out of state. Students from all 50 states and over 100 countries call Stillwater home.

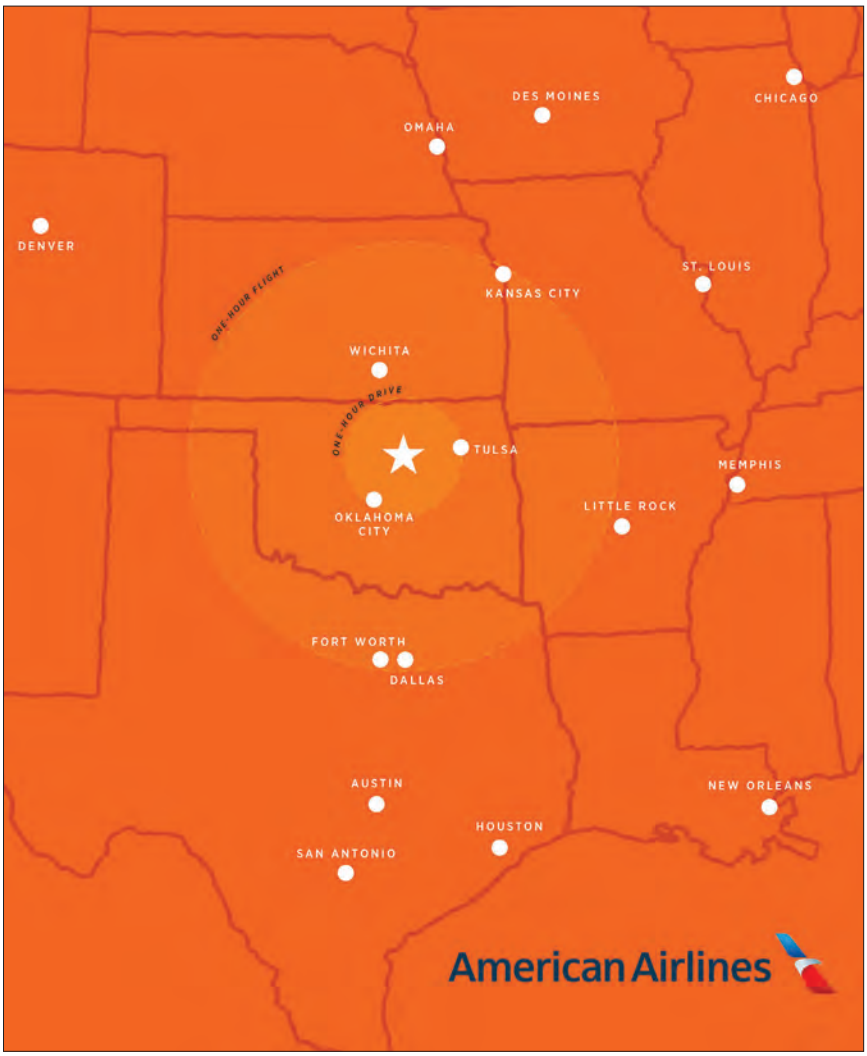
Stillwater is centrally located between Oklahoma City and Tulsa, just an hour's drive away from the two largest metro areas in the state of Oklahoma.

Stillwater Regional Airport provides daily nonstop American Airlines flights to and from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. A single one-hour connecting flight to DFW is all that separates OSU from traveling to New York, Los Angeles, London, Tokyo, Sydney and more of the world's greatest destinations.

Additional direct service to and from Stillwater may also be coming.

Stillwater Regional's 7,400-foot main runway can easily accommodate aircraft such as the Boeing 737 and Airbus A320, simplifying team travel for OSU and any opponents making the trip to Cowboy Country.

Further improvements to Stillwater Regional's facilities include a proposed expansion to the airport's terminal that would triple its current size.



Noting Stillwater

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

Average Climate
Spring: 46-72 degrees
Summer: 69-91 degrees
Fall: 48-73 degrees
Winter: 26-50 degrees

Incredible Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.

The Waving Song

Victor Herbert was inadvertently responsible for a deeply entrenched facet of A&M athletic tradition, the waving song. His lyricist was speech instructor H.G. Seldy Seldombridge. In 1908, Seldombridge had gone to Columbia University to scout for a senior class play. While there, he heard In Old New York, the hit song from the operetta The Red Mill. Even New Yorkers were humming the song on city streets, and Seldombridge returned to Oklahoma humming it, too.

Shortly thereafter, he incorporated In Old New York into the closing number of a college follies show being rehearsed in Stillwater's Grand Opera House. But as he studied the stage decorated in orange and black for a campus scene, he realized that New York's praises were out of place for a southwestern college setting.

"Suddenly OAMC flashed to my mind," he explained in 1941. He asked the 30-voice choir to take a break, grabbed a piece of wrapping paper, hummed, and scribbled. In less than ten minutes he had the alternate lyrics that would enliven sports events long after opening night.

For that finale, a letterman representing each sport joined the chorus onstage. The students added their own memorable touch. They swayed and sang "OAMC! OAMC! We'll sing your praise tonight," as they waved to the audience in unison.

It almost raised the roof off the old building, noted Seldombridge, who left the campus in 1910. Exhilarated, the crowd surged to its feet and returned the rhythmic wave. It took two encores before the campus and community gathering was willing to relinquish the emotion of the moment.

"From that night on, you could frequently hear someone whistling the tune," he recalled, touched that OAMC's waving song was remembered as late as 1941.

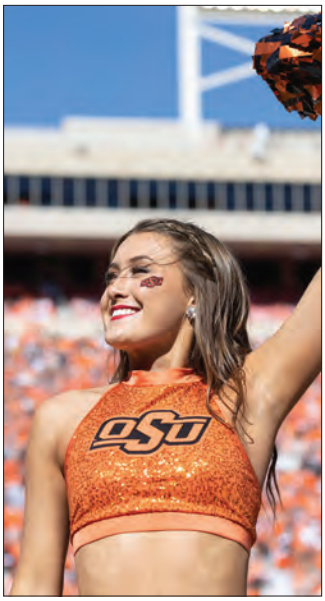
The Waving Song tradition continues to this day with OSU fans rising to their feet and waving one arm in rhythm with the song after scores in football and following victories in other sports. Contrary to popular misconception, this tradition should not be referred to as "Waving the Wheat," which is the name of the two-armed wave adopted by University of Kansas fans.

The Waving Song Lyrics

Oklahoma State! Oklahoma State!
We'll sing your praise tonight;
To let you know where e're we go,
For the Orange and Black we'll fight
We'll sing your worth o'er all the Earth
And shout: Ki Yi! Ki Ye!
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oklahoma State!

"Ride 'Em Cowboys" Lyrics

Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride'em Cowboys,
Right down the field!
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight'em Cowboys, and never yield.!
Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride on, Cowboys, to victory;
Cross (opponent)s goal;
Then we'll sing 'O-kla-homa State!'



OSU Alma Mater Hymn

Across several different sports, following victories, OSU teams gather in front of the student section to sing the alma mater. All fans, students and non-students are encouraged to remain in the stands after OSU victories and join the Cowboys for the Alma Mater hymn.

Alma Mater Hymn Lyrics

Proud and immortal
Bright Shines Your Name

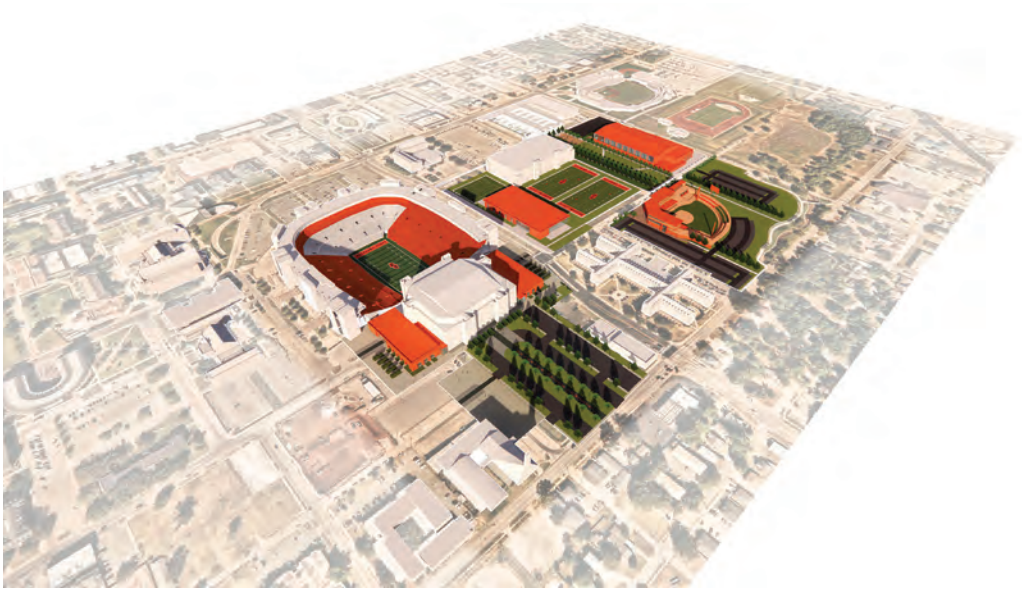
OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Looking into the Future

Oklahoma State is strengthening its position within the national landscape of college athletics with the unveiling of the athletics facilities vision plan announced by Athletic Director Chad Weiberg.

The plan focuses on providing for the success of the student-athletes, improving the fan experience, and bolstering the University's ability to attract student-athletes across all programs through the creation of a unified and connected athletic village unrivaled in college sports.

Included in the plan are a new football operations center, a new wrestling training facility, a new softball stadium, an indoor track, a new training center for basketball, upgrades to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Karsten Creek Golf Course and repurposed areas in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium and Gallagher-Iba Arena for student-athlete services that include a new academics center and spaces for mental health, leadership and career development.



The athletics vision plan comes at an estimated cost of approximately $325 million. The implementation and order of construction will be determined as funding becomes available for each individual element.

"This is a time of conference realignment and unprecedented transformation in college athletics," Weiberg said. "With a history that includes 52 NCAA titles, for us to continue to achieve championship results, now is not the time to pause or rest on past accomplishments, but to honor those accomplishments by pushing forward and building upon what has been started. This vision plan provides a road map for the next phase of an athletics village that will be unrivaled in collegiate sports."

The plan is in its conceptual stages.

Human Performance Innovation Complex and Football Center

In December of 2022, Oklahoma State University announced its new Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute with the goal of impacting every community in Oklahoma.

Due to available space and to maximize efficiencies, the institute headquarters will share a roof with the new operations home of Cowboy Football and will be located immediately adjacent to the existing practice fields and the Sherman E. Smith Training Center.

Sharing the same footprint will maximize efficiencies of key elements of the Human Performance And Nutrition Research Institute and Cowboy Football.

Vacated space in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium creates tremendous benefits for student-athletes in every sport and accommodates an athletic department that has grown in recent years to include new areas dedicated to student-athlete success, mental and physical wellness, leadership and professional development.

While the institute itself is funded by the university, the Cowboy Football program will have its own space within the building paid for by athletics funds and private donations.

The 2009 upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium played a significant role in OSU's rise to college football prominence. It also launched a larger mindset – one that Cowboy Football is truly capable of ascending to the highest level of the sport. This new facility provides an opportunity for OSU to reaffirm its commitment to being a national force moving forward.

Student-Athlete Success Center

The program areas currently occupied by OSU Football in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium will be renovated following completion of Human Performance Innovation and Football Center. This includes both student-athlete and coaches/staff areas in the stadium which are currently located on the arena and lower club Levels.

The existing Student-Athlete Dining and Training Table would be expanded and renovated. Premium areas, including both club areas and seating and additional suites would be added, offering new seating types and amenities. Existing student-athlete support programs such as academic services, student athlete development and mental health could be relocated from Gallagher-Iba Arena to the stadium. Sports medicine, along with strength and conditioning could also be expanded and located in the west end zone, offering a central training and recovery space for all student-athletes.

In addition, offices and work areas for OSU Athletics creative teams, encompassing operations, graphic design, creative content and communications would be relocated to Boone Pickens Stadium.

Boone Pickens Stadium

Between 2003 and 2009, Lewis Field expanded and was officially rededicated as Boone Pickens Stadium on September 5, 2009. The expansion included adding nearly 4,000 club seats and 123 suites and connected the north and south by creating a continuous seating bowl in the west end zone. Over time the original seating on the north and south sides stadium bowl has required annual maintenance, resulting in increased repair costs, necessitating the replacement of the existing seating treads and risers. This need allowed OSU Athletics to plan the modernization and improvement of the fan experience in Boone Pickens Stadium.

Following the 2022 football season, work began on a two-year stadium project, beginning on the north side. That scope of work begins at the 200 level with the addition of a cross aisle to the existing seating treads and risers at the 300 level, expanding tread depths and new entrances. The project includes replacing benches, adding stadium seats in some sections, additional aisles, and adding handrails for safety. New intermediate aisles will be located between the existing entrances, reducing the amount of seating between aisles.

Following the 2023 football season, the south will be replaced in a similar fashion. The project includes new entrances at the lower 200 levels, replacing benches, adding stadium seats, additional aisles and adding handrails.

This renovation will keep the overall vision of Boone Pickens Stadium intact, marrying the north, west and south seating sections, and maintaining the existing 100, 200 and 300 level seating bowl levels.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Softball Stadium

The plan includes a new softball facility partially located on the former site of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium. The new home of Cowgirl Softball will provide modern amenities suitable for a premier collegiate softball program and will include championship caliber player-development areas. In addition, typical chairback seating, tailgating corrals, and family friendly areas to enhance the fan experience are planned.

Following the demolition of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium, the project will also create opportunities for additional parking for on-campus residents.

Indoor Track and Field

The men's and women's track and field programs support over 100 student-athletes. These athletes require year-round training and competition space. The vision plan proposes an indoor track and field facility south of the existing outdoor track and field complex. The proposed site is bordered by McElroy Road to the north, the Sherman E. Smith Training Center to the south, the Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center to the west, and North Knoblock Street to the east.

This parcel of land is ideally sized for a full indoor track program. It will include a 200 meter banked track, indoor field event space, spectator seating, athletic training rooms, team meeting/theater spaces, locker rooms, player lounges, and offices for coaching staff.

In addition to strengthening training and development for the track and field programs, this new facility will act as a dynamic new recruiting tool for an already nationally prominent program.

Wrestling Practice Facility

Cowboy Wrestling is the most successful program in the history of the NCAA, regardless of sport. Entering the 2022-23 academic year, Oklahoma State wrestling had won 34 team national championships, 143 individual NCAA championships and had 475 All-Americans. The plan proposes an addition to the existing facility, which would support the ongoing success of OSU Wrestling.

While the program recently received an upgrade to its locker room, additional space is needed to sustain the success of the program.

This addition will increase the size of the wrestling room, allowing for additional mat space and championship-level team amenities. While the team will always compete inside the famous Gallagher-Iba Arena, the training facility will feature a dedicated space for spectators that will enhance recruiting and donor visits. This training facility will also house office and meeting spaces for the coaching staff.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Basketball Practice Facility

OSU's basketball programs have a rich history of success. Since the Cowboys' first game in 1908, OSU has won two national championships and appeared in six Final Fours. In the Big 12, only Kansas exceeds those totals. With 17 postseason appearances and three conference championships, the Cowgirls are continuing to build on an already-established tradition.

While having the benefit of utilizing the game court and backdrop of Gallagher-Iba Arena for practice can be an advantage for both programs, at times they are displaced during other athletic and campus events. A new practice facility is essential in helping both basketball programs continue to recruit, develop and train student-athletes to compete for championships.

The vision plan proposes an addition on the south side of the arena featuring two practice courts and other championship-caliber training spaces.

Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center

Building off the historic 2021-22 season in which the program captured its eighth Big 12 Conference title and its first overall NCEA national championship, several updates to Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center are planned.

Similar in size and scope to the Atherton Family Arena, an additional covered arena will be added to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center.

Currently the primary practice arena, the Atherton Family Arena is a 135x270 square foot covered arena. The team also uses the Totusek Indoor Arena, a 100x200 foot climate-controlled facility. The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures. A new multi-purpose team building that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station was completed in 2021.

Karsten Creek Golf Course

Opened in 1994, Karsten Creek Golf Course was quickly named the "Best New Course" in the country by Golf Digest. The undulating fairways and challenging bunkers were originally created by renowned golf course designer Tom Fazio. Complementing the course are the clubhouse, three multi-level guest lodges, and a practice and teaching facility. While the course and related amenities have stood the test of time, renovations are needed to improve the facilities infrastructure, create a more challenging course, and enhance the skills of the student-athlete.

Course enhancement will include new irrigation, drainage, fairways, cart paths, and greens. Bunkers and tee boxes will be adjusted to increase the difficulty of play and advance the skills of the golfers. The practice facility will also be renovated to improve the tee boxes, landing zones, short game area and practice putting greens.

Originally constructed in 1997, the indoor practice facility will be upgraded to include state-of-the-art equipment.

Gallagher-Iba Arena Welcome Plaza

Since 1938, Gallagher-Iba Arena has been known as one of the great venues in collegiate athletics. Over time, however, the original east facade of the building has lost its unique prominence as the main gateway of the venue. This project seeks to revive this entrance, creating the welcome that OSU fans and athletes deserve. The plan also proposes adding premium parking and tailgating experiences to enhance the fan experience from the moment they arrive for an event.

The proposed Gallagher-Iba Welcome Plaza parking expansion will create approximately 250 new parking spaces nestled in a park-like setting.

In addition to creating parking, public plaza and walkway, fans will experience an arrival sequence similar to that of Boone Pickens Stadium. With new fan-focused offerings, OSU will have new opportunities to generate revenue.
